

Let's Discuss It meeting January 25, 2014. Next meeting February 22, 2014.

Who did what over the holidays?

I had two contacts – 1) from a blog ages ago on a WWII certificate (her father had same certificate and was on Okinawa during the war and wanted to compare pics), and 2) from someone who saw my tree online (which was posted ages ago) – Nann(e)y family line

Pennsylvania Death Indices:

<http://www.portal.state.pa.us/portal/server.pt?open=514&objID=1085804&mode=2>

Family Tree Maker Mac 3 now available:

http://blog.eogn.com/eastmans_online_genealogy/2013/12/family-tree-maker-mac-3-is-now-available.html

Legacy seminars for 2014:

<http://www.geneamusings.com/2013/12/2014-legacy-family-tree-webinar.html>

Joe Burns sent this along for help in figuring out tech terms: <http://www.techterms.com/>

New law on SSDI – no info in SSDI until 3 years after death: <http://www.legalgenealogist.com/blog/2013/12/30/ssdi-access-now-limited/>

If you're looking for a genealogy related group on facebook, you might look here:

https://attachment.fsbx.com/file_download.php?id=616193541771156&eid=ASuJXYZXq81y5-hd8cLDOP5nz01iehgN5_LY0COL1FVveCIKjaM_yxfW5nmVV_EIYZg8&inline=1&ext=1388936462&hash=ASsoiS4Oqla9fhXJ

If you use Legacy, this app, supposedly, can be used on your iPad and some other devices to enter and sync data with Legacy software ($14.99):

<http://www.telgen.co.uk/families/>

Free, online family history forums:

<http://arlenestaffordwilson.wordpress.com/2014/01/12/free-online-searchable-family-history-forums/>

Joe Burns sent this link on war department papers:

<http://wardepartmentpapers.org/index.php>

Tina Sansone posted on Facebook that the Tennessee Probate Court Files from 1795 – 1927 have been added to the Tennessee section of records on

<http://www.familysearch.org>

Vatican Library manuscripts online (speak Italian?):

http://www.thestar.com/news/world/2013/05/02/digitizing_history_82000manuscript_collection_vatican_library_goes_online.html

This site has a few new links for genealogy research:

<http://home.roadrunner.com/~gentutor/page3.html>

Have you looked through some of your old favorites to see what's been added? Let's try Tennessee as an example:

1. Cyndis list on TN: <http://cyndislist.com/us/tn/>

2. FamilySearch on TN:

<https://familysearch.org/search/collection/list?page=1&countryId=57>

3. Rootsweb on TN:

<http://resources.rootsweb.ancestry.com/USA/TN.html>

4. Ancestry on TN ($)

5. Facebook groups on TN

6. USGenWeb on TN: <http://tngenweb.org/>

7. The TNGS website: <http://tngs.org/>

8. TN genealogy on Pinterest: (our Let's Discuss It Page:

<http://www.pinterest.com/letsdiscussit/tennessee-genealogy-research-links/>

And search for other Pinterest TN genealogy pages.

How do you search for information from countries other than the U.S.? You would try some of the same sites above including:

1. Cyndis list. Look at the categories page:

<http://cyndislist.com/categories/>

2. Familysearch: <https://familysearch.org/search>

3. Ancestry (unless you have a US only subscription) $

4. World Gen Web: <http://www.worldgenweb.org/>

5. Our Pinterest page and other Pinterest page.

6. Facebook pages.

7. Google: genealogy countries....

UK World War 1 Diaries:

<http://nationalarchives.gov.uk/first-world-war>

I had heard the interesting story here:

<http://www.npr.org/blogs/parallels/2014/01/23/264532419/from-the-trenches-to-the-web-british-wwi-diaries-digitized>

