

Let's Discuss It meeting April 26, 2014 next meeting May 31, 2014

Finding cities or counties that no longer exist is made easier by using old maps of the state/area (this example shows Kentucky resources).

http://familysearch.org/learn/wiki/en/Kentucky_Maps

Irish genealogy tool-kit: <http://www.irish-genealogy-toolkit.com/>

Texas General Land Office (from Sharon Bearly via Joe Burns: <http://www.glo.texas.gov/>

David Rumsey map collections: <http://www.davidrumsey.com/>

If you have ancestors in the timber industry, Cyndislist has a whole category for information on the industry: <http://www.cyndislist.com/timber/>

We haven't had an interesting new search engine in a while. How about this one: <https://millionshort.com/>

Apps/Programs/Useful Things:

iPhone useful things: <http://www.buzzfeed.com/jessicamisener/things-you-didnt-know-your-iphone-could-do>

If, for some reason, you need Soundex codes for multiple names, this site will do it for you: <http://bradandkathy.com/genealogy/yasc.html>

Genealogy Pinterest Boards:
<http://www.pinterest.com/savingstories/>
<http://www.pinterest.com/cyndislist/>
<http://www.pinterest.com/geneabloggers/>
<http://www.pinterest.com/valerieelkins/>

Sioux Tribes: <http://www.travelsd.com/About-SD/Our-History/Plains-Indians/Sioux-Tribes>

A guide to the Cherokee:
<http://www.accessgenealogy.com/native/biographies-of-the-chokeee-indians.htm>

Illinois Digital Newspaper Collection:
<http://idnc.library.illinois.edu/>

Joe Burns sent this link on Appalachian Aristocracy:
<http://appalachianaristocracy.com/>

Wanda Day sent this link on photo metadata:
<http://moultriecreek.us/gazette/photo-metadata/>

Maps at the NY Public Library and their "map warper" – placing current maps over historical maps:
<http://www.nypl.org/blog/2014/03/28/open-access-maps>

Google maps gallery:

http://maps.google.com/gallery/?hl=en&utm_source=google&utm_medium=cpc&utm_campaign=NA-LCS-2014-Geo-Products-MapsGallery-HouseAds&utm_term=google%20maps%20gallery&utm_content=SearchAd&gclid=CKLhmdCntb0CFdBqfgodPEAAvg

Cindy Rodgers sent this link for Mississippi maps:

<http://www.ancestraltrackers.net/ms/maps.htm>

Joe Burns sent us this link on Civil War campaign maps of 1862:

<http://www.loc.gov/item/99447081/>

Another from Joe Burns – biographical directory of Congress 1774 to present:

<http://bioguide.congress.gov/biosearch/biosearch.asp>

Data Visualization tools from the census:

<https://www.census.gov/dataviz/>

How much was that worth in 1870 dollars?

<http://www.measuringworth.com/>

Search engine for social media: <http://topsy.com/>

Directory of Genealogy libraries in the US:

http://www.gwest.org/gen_libs.htm

A list of libraries world wide:

<http://www.librarytechnology.org/libwebcats/>

Find an archives near you:

<http://beta.worldcat.org/archivegrid/>

From PZ: Upcoming Illinois State Genealogical Society Seminars:

<http://us4.campaign-archive1.com/?u=173da338124b2ea141a9dfe61&id=1997df6cca&e=2b5c40c2d3>

Judy Gorman reminded us of the Digital Public Library link:

<http://dp.la/>

Remember the seminar by:

Diane L. Giannini, CG

Saturday, May 3, 2014 (9:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.)

