

Let's Discuss It meeting March 21, 2015 Next Meeting April 25, 2015

This list, with clickable links, can be found under the Let's Discuss It section on the <http://www.tngs.org> web site.

Don't give up the search. Try a different online site.

Please share your research trips, questions, and accomplishments since our last meeting.

A new search engine for family research: <http://www.mooseroots.com/>

A new search engine for genealogy books only: <https://www.gengophers.com/#/>

Ohio to open adoption records: <http://www.msn.com/en-us/news/us/ohio-set-to-open-adoption-records-sealed-for-50-years/ar-AA9OS8X>

Michigan death records available online: <http://seekingmichigan.contentdm.oclc.org/cdm/search/collection/p129401coll7>

How long has it been since you searched on RootsWeb? Family trees: <http://wc.rootsweb.ancestry.com/cgi-bin/igm.cgi>

Message Boards: http://boards.rootsweb.com/?o\_iid=33216&o\_lid=33216&sch=Web+Property

Projects hosted by RootsWeb: <http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~websites/projects.html>

Have you visited the Ellis Island site lately? (they've made a few changes – some make it more difficult to use): <http://www.libertyellisfoundation.org/>

What about Castle Garden – lists of immigrants who came before Ellis Island?: <http://castlegarden.org/>

Do you visit findagrave.com? <http://www.findagrave.com/>

What about Steve Morse's search site?: <http://www.stevemorse.org/index.html>

Online searchable death indexes and records: <http://deathindexes.com/>

Ancestry did NOT buy HeritageQuest but the underlying search system is now Ancestry – so no going between Heritage Quest and Ancestry to find the best census image: <http://www.ancestryinsider.org/2015/03/ancestrycom-did-not-buy-heritagequest.html>

70 resources for Irish research: <http://crestleaf.com/blog/70-resources-finding-irish-ancestors/>

When did a state of interest take a census? https://www.census.gov/history/www/genealogy/other\_resources/state\_censuses.html

When were mortality schedules posted? https://www.census.gov/history/www/genealogy/other\_resources/mortality\_schedules.html

Have you used the GenealogyInTime search engine to look for free genealogy information on your ancestor?: <http://www.genealogyintime.com/tools/genealogy-search-engine.html>

GenealogyInTime has a search engine for freely accessible family trees also: <http://www.genealogyintime.com/tools/family-tree-search-engine.html>

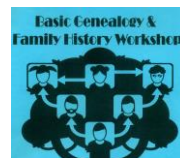

Nancy Danley, who couldn't be here today, shared that she found some very useful, interesting information in the Non-population schedules (agricultural) on the New Heritage Quest. She said this resource was very useful in detailing the holdings of her Alabama farming ancestors. https://www.census.gov/history/www/genealogy/other\_resources/nonpopulation\_records.html

Using pension records to research your civil war veteran. This one is specific to Florida records, but the knowledge should transfer: <http://www.floridamemory.com/blog/2015/03/19/doing-genealogy-with-pension-records/>

Sign up for a course sent to you in "bite-size" pieces via email each day; most 10 days for 5 minutes per day: <http://gohighbrow.com/courses/>

Saturday November 7, 2015
D. Joshua Taylor
TNGS Annual Seminar
Register at TNGS.ORG

Saturday April 11, 2015
B J Train Library in Olive Branch MS
10:30 – 1:00
Free but Registration Required.