

Let's Discuss It meeting January 21, 2017 Next Meeting February 18, 2017

This list, with clickable links, can be found under the Let's Discuss It section on the <http://www.tngs.org> web site.

Please share your research trips, questions, and accomplishments since our last meeting.

McCracken County Kentucky – Roth Funeral Record Search:
<https://www.mclib.net/roth/>

New version of DMT (Double Match Triangulator) available:
<http://www.beholdgenealogy.com/blog/?p=1846>
To Download:
<http://www.beholdgenealogy.com/dmt.php>

Don't stop at an index search on Ancestry:
<http://www.geneamusings.com/2016/12/dont-trust-ancestrycoms-indexes-for.html>

How NOT to clean tombstones for photography:
<https://blog.eogn.com/2016/12/12/how-not-to-clean-a-tombstone-for-photography/>

From Joe Burns: A NC History site:
<http://www.carolana.com/NC/home.html>

The St Louis Genealogical Society has, during the past sixteen years, captured and indexed more than 1.5 million interments. Those indexes are now available to STGS MEMBERS on the society's website at:
<http://stlgs.org/research-2/life-death/cemeteries-2/st-louis-area-cemeteries-list>
Also congregations.
<http://stlgs.org/research-2/congregations/congregation-index>
Their yearly membership cost is $40. Also available are the following databases:
<http://stlgs.org/home/benefits-of-membership>

Family Tree Searcher – to search multiple sites all at once:
<http://www.familytreearcher.com/>
Hints for searching specific genealogy research sites:
<http://www.familytreearcher.com/search-hints/index.html>

Civil War prisons:
http://www.censusdiggins.com/civil_war_prisons.html

Top Ten Posts of 2016 by the Legal Genealogist:
<http://www.legalgenealogist.com/2016/12/27/2016-top-posts-overall/>

PZ sent this comparison of Ancestry, My Heritage and Find My Past:
<https://www.exploringlifesmysteries.com/myheritage-vs-ancestry-vs-findmypast/>

Library of Congress website redesign: <https://www.loc.gov/>

PZ also sent this link on a comparison of Ancestry and My Heritage:
<http://www.nextadvisor.com/blog/2015/08/12/ancestry-com-myheritage-genealogy-service-best/>

DNA Suggestions for adoptees:
<http://www.legalgenealogist.com/2017/01/08/dna-testing-for-adoptees-2017/>

For adoptees from the genetic genealogist:
<http://thegeneticgenealogist.com/2017/01/08/adoptee-testing-a-study/>

Tools to capture an entire webpage (not a screen shot) as it appears (not as it prints):
<http://www.howtogeek.com/287992/how-to-take-a-screenshot-of-an-entire-webpage/>

New England Historic Genealogical Society and the Archdiocese of Boston are digitizing 5,000 volumes of information from 1789 to 1900. So far, records of four churches are available online. A majority of the records are in Latin. <http://www.readingeagle.com/ap/article/project-will-digitize-catholic-records-of-boston-archdiocese>
NEHGS link: <https://www.americanancestors.org/index.aspx>

Oklahoma State Vital Records Index:
<https://ok2explore.health.ok.gov/>

Tested with FTDNA and just got your results? What do you do next? <http://www.beholdgenealogy.com/blog/?p=1930>

Ancestry, Fold3 and FamilySearch. Which site has which National Archives Microfilm digitized?:
<https://www.archives.gov/digitization/digitized-by-partners.html>

Basic DNA from the legal genealogist:
<http://www.legalgenealogist.com/2017/01/15/dna-basics-for-a-sound-foundation/>

Notes:
