MEMPHIS NEWS AND NOTES

Laurel leaves were placed on the brows of those of us who have authored and/or compiled books. Memphis Public Library on April 16th recognized Memphis writers as a part of the celebration of National Library Week. Honored ones were John Valentine for his "Valentine Family"; Mrs. Laurence B. Gardiner for her coauthorship of "Williamson County, Tennessee Marriages" and "N. C. Land Grants in Tennessee"; Mrs. James B. Cartwright for "N.C. Land Grants in Tennessee"; Mrs. Willis Ayres for "Delaware-West Family"; Mr. Wassell Randolph for his books on the Randolphs of Virginia; and yours truly for her work on the above Williamson County, Tennessee Marriages.

Future genealogists will find the biographies of several of us in the Biographical Section of the recently published 4 volume "History of Tennessee". Among members included are: Mrs. Willis Ayres, Mr. Roy Black, Mrs. Berry B. Brooks, Mrs. Hope Brooks, Mrs. R. S. Caradine, Mrs. James B. Cartwright, Mrs. I. G. Duncan, Mrs. Ruth Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Gardiner, Mrs. Frank Liddell, Mrs. T. L. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Nelson; Mrs. Harry O'Hara, Mrs. Geo. R. Scott, Mrs. H. B. Sullivan and Mr. and Mrs. John Valentine.

Along this line, the new "Who's Who in Tennessee" includes, among others, Mrs. Berry B. Brooks, Mrs. Frank Liddell, Mr. John Valentine, and Mrs. L. D. Bejach. Perhaps the term "vanity books" is an apt one when referring to books of this type. It is also true if some of our ancestors had been less modest, our present search would be easier.

Mrs. Laurence Gardiner and Mrs. Willis Ayres report a productive sojourn of three days at the Virginia State Library, Richmond. Mrs. Reginald Tolar is preparing to visit the State Archives at Raleigh, N.C.

In the future we will announce titles of books ordered from our "general fund" for placing in the Reference Department, Cossitt Library. Also, plans are afoot to add to the collection of census schedule films already available.

Mrs. R. T. Doughtie, Mrs. I. G. Duncan, and yours truly have entertained the Study Group these past three months. Remember the next meeting will be held on Monday, May 15th. Notice cards will be sent.

A well known quotation from MacCauley: "a people who takes no pride in the noble achievements of remote ancestors will never achieve anything worthy to be remembered with pride by remote descendants". Oh, why can't we remember these noble words when friends (?) inquire, "Why do you want to know? What good does it do?" Of course, we sometimes wonder at people who collect stamps, buttons, or butterflys. Bye, for this time.

Wilena Roberts Bejach (Mrs. L. D.)

OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

Won't you please take time to read and follow the instructions for your entry in the 1961 YEAR BOOK? We have made the task as simple as possible to cut the extra work on this end. Send ONLY the number of lines we ask for, not a family history. The effectiveness of this type of publication depends on brief, concise statements. Thanks!

NEWS FROM OUR FELLOW PUBLISHERS

The BULLETIN of the STAMFORD GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Stamford, Connecticut had a most timely short article in their March 1961 edition entitled, ON THE SUBJECT OF BULLETINS, by Mrs. Richard S. R. Hubert. Mrs. Hubert says in her article ... "I have entered the ranks of the 'Joiners'! ...Not only are we pooling our resources by working together all over the continent, but from the various local bulletins we are able to learn a great deal about the resources and organizations in localities in which we are interested ...But an even more important by-product is an awakening all over the country in records and their preservation and availability to the public. ...Here's to Bulletins, present and future, and their hard working amateur Editors!" (Such kind words can only serve to inspire us to try for even bigger and better bulletins. ...Editor)

TOOLS FOR RESEARCH

Send 24 cents (stamps acceptable) to Dorothy Ford Wulfeck, 51 Park Avenue, Naugatuck, Connecticut for a list of books in her rental library. Mrs. Wulfeck also has a card file of 50,000 references and/or proof of Marriages in Virginia - 1607 to 1800 which she will search for $2.00 per surname.

Miss Pollyanna Creekmore has published the 1850 CENSUS OF MONROE COUNTY, TENN. Price for the Monroe Census is $10.00 and may be ordered from The Family Records Society, 204 Mercantile Bldg., Knoxville 2, Tennessee.

FAMILY HISTORIES

Mrs. Frank Cline, 914 Summer Street, Hot Springs, Arkansas has made a name index for the book, HOUSE OF FOWLER (the book contains over 600 pages and the index is 96 type-written pages in length). Mrs. Cline will be glad to check the index for any Fowler connection, if you will be sure to send a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

HISTORY OF THE POWELL FAMILY IN VIRGINIA and their descendants in North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Texas, and other states may be ordered from the writer, Mr. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., 3024 North Woodbridge Road, Birmingham 13, Alabama. Price is $10.00 per copy.

The March 1961 issue of the NATIONAL GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY QUARTERLY carries the start of an interesting article by Mr. John Insley Coddington titled, BUFORD TURNER, OF MAURY, GILES, MADISON, AND SHELBY COUNTIES, TENNESSEE, AND HIS HUNTER, ALSTON, ESTES, MAGEVNEY. AND HANSON CONNECTIONS.

We appreciate the set of bulletins from the PRATHER FAMILY ASSOCIATION sent by Mrs. Kathryn R. Bonner, 21750 Berg Road, Southfield, Michigan. Anyone having Prather kin should join this association. Mrs. Bonner (one of our members) is the Editor.

CALVIT INFORMATION -- Mrs. Benjamin McFarland Hines, 546 Old Academy Road, Fairfield, Connecticut writes, ---"In the September, 1956 issue of "Ansearchin'" News on page 7 is a query inserted by me. Since then, and after years of hard work on the Calvit Family (of my query) the court records have proved the 1956 information incorrect. Many people working on the line have been able to prove beyond a shadow of a doubt that all connection between these French Huguenots who arrived in Goochland County, Virginia in 1704 and the English Calverts of Maryland was impossible, and although several generations in Louisiana made this error, it has at last been corrected in a book recently compiled by Mr. Francis Stuart Harmon of New York City called, A GOOD INHERITANCE. Copies have been distributed in many leading libraries including the Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.; Mississippi Department of Archives and History, Jackson, Mississippi; Mississippi Southern College Library at Hattisburg, Mississippi; Fish Public Library, Natchez, Mississippi; and Millsaps College Library, Jackson, Mississippi.

Mr. Harmon is a Mississippian by birth, a lawyer, historian, and one time newspaper man. He has written a wonderful chapter on the Huguenot Calvits, from whom he is also descended. He has used much of my research and has been most gracious in his appreciation.

Now my query in the 1956 issue gives so much incorrect data, in view of what we now know, that I would like to refer all people who are interested in this family to Mr. Harmon's book and perhaps just state that this Calvit family were never in Maryland at all.

The line has been proven step by step from court records thus - - -

My grandfather was William Neal Calvit, son of James Anthony Calvit (and Minerva Neal) of Rapides Parish, Louisiana.

James Anthony Calvit was the son of Anthony Calvit (and Mary Mayes) of Natchez, Mississippi. He was born 1808 in Mississippi.

Anthony Calvit was the son of Antoine Calver (and his wife, Mary ?, who married secondly Daniel Higdon in 1762 in Johnston Co., N.C. and came to Mississippi with her Calvit sons and Higdon sons via the Holston River - lived and died in Mississippi).

Antoine Calver was the son of Jean Calver of France to Goochland Co., Virginia who arrived as a small child in Virginia with his father Jean Calver, 2 brothers, 2 sisters and his mother - so Antoine was born in France and brought to Virginia as a child (Goochland, Virginia Deeds).

There are many, many descendants, both Calvit and Higdon, left in Mississippi by Mary (?) Calvit Higdon and so I am sure learning this information will be interesting to many who have been mystified at our being able to prove the Lord Baltimore Myth."

GENEALOGICAL SOURCES AT TENNESSEE STATE LIBRARY

Mrs. Charles Embry of the Genealogical Department of Tennessee State Library in Nashville kindly furnished us notes of a speech made by her last October before our Society. We pass on this abbreviated version to you.

The Reference Department of our Library contains about 3500 volumes of published genealogies and about 100 volumes are added every year.

The County Court records of Tennessee, copied by W.P.A. in the 1930's number nearly 100 volumes. In addition to the Minute Books, Deed Indexes, Wills and Inventories, and Marriages, there are some church and cemetery and a few family Bibles and other records. The Court collection is not complete nor absolutely accurate always, but they are very valuable because of the convenience of having so many in one place. There is a nearly complete collection of printed county histories, many of them on microfilm.

A major project now under way is the microfilming of Tennessee newspapers. Old files have been located at every possible source, from the Library of Congress to attics in obscure villages. On microfilm in June 1960 were 6,567 reels. The list of these, with names of papers and dates of publication, is too lengthy to attempt to describe. For further information write to State Library Division, Tennessee State Library and Archives, Nashville 3, Tennessee. In July 1960, a mimeographed report of work done in this field was released. Some of these reports (or a more recent one) may be available for the asking.

A collection of family Bibles include: Campbell, Claibourne, Compton, Graham, Harris, Humes, Hatton, Lea, Matthews, Moss, Napier (Negro), Pearson, Porter, Power-Paine-Adams, Roberts, Simons, Smith and Sowell.

Mainly from the Wilson County area, these Bible records have been photostated by Mrs. George Smith: Adams, Gleave-Albright-Hardy, Alexander, Anderson, Baird, Ballow, Barbee, Bell, Bell-Wilson, Bone, Bradley, Branham, 2 Brevard, Brien-Buell, Brown, Caplener-Bell-Bradshaw, Davis, John Doak, Dodson, Dunklin, Finley, Green, Grissom, Harris-Garrett, Hart, Hosier, Housley, Hudson, Humphrey, Knight, Ligon, McFarland, Merritt, Peyton, Peyton-Weir, Sanders, Sanders-Allison, Stratton, 2 Thackston, Waters, Weir, Williamson.

Other photostats of Bible records: Chadwell-Johnson, Carver, Chadwell-Minton, Chapman, Cheairs-Greenlaw, 2 Clark, Curry, 2 Darwin, 2 Ford, Franklin, 2 Given, Goodwin, Hill-Green, Hopkins, 2 Howell, Hudson-Gower, Hughes, James A. Joyce, Harrison, Keith Martin, 2 Knight, Lankaster, McBride, Mason, Merrill, Morrow, Neal-Moore-Patton, Nichol, Officer, Petty, Pickle, Porter, Ray, Sherrill, Sharpe, Stratton, Terry, Walker-Venable, Walker-Talley, Walling, Welch, W. H. White, Wilson, Wilson-Talley, Woodfin, and Dr. Jesse D. Wright.

The National Society, Colonial Dames of American in Tennessee collection: Anderson, Barrow-Pilcher, Bell-Snyder, Berry, Buckner, Bryan-Hatch-Bailey, Bush, Byrd, Caldwell, Carney, Cheairs, Gen. Richard Cheatham, Claybrooke, Cocke, Creveling, Dickinson, Elliston-Green, Ewing, Goodloe, Henderson, Hooker-Kirkpatrick, Jetton, Lincoln, McGavock-Hayes, Moore, Robert Orr, Pate, Payne, Peacock, 2 Perkins, Phillips, Polk, Scudday, Smith, John Sutton, Tannehill-Wilkins, Thomas, Thompson-Orr, Tillman, Tirrell, Trabue, Voorhies, Weakley, Wood, Wright, and Young.

Card files on Tennessee soldiers in these wars: War of 1812, Seminole War, Creek War, Mexican War, War Between the States; pension list of Revolutionary War soldiers living in Tennessee after the War. These records are incomplete.

Miscellaneous: A Biographical Directory of the Tennessee General Assembly, 1796-1960 is being compiled by Mrs. Gladys Bracy; file of newspaper clippings of deaths, Gold Star Mothers; county histories in newspapers; questionnaire filled out by Confederate veterans alive in the 1920's; Lineage Books of D.A.R., D.A.C., Daughters of Founders and Patriots; card file of Bibles and cemetery records copied by Tennessee D.A.R. chapters; incomplete file of marriages copied by W.P.A., alphabetized, - helpful in locating name when county is unknown. Application papers of the following lineage societies: S.A.R. of Nashville, U.D.C.. Records of soldiers of World War I and the Spanish American War have been copied and bound into volumes.

The Archives Division of the State is separate from the Library and must be consulted for these records: Land Records, early tax lists, photostatic copies of records of War of 1812 Soldiers from Tennessee, Confederate pension records, and microfilms of "National Archives, War Department Indexes to Compiled Records of Confederate Soldiers in Tennessee. Alphabetically arranged". Mr. Robert Quarles, Jr. has charge of these and other records.

The Manuscript Division of the Library and Archives, under direction of Mrs. Harriett Chappell Owsley, has custody of a wealth of material valuable to the historian as well as to the genealogist. This material is too voluminous to attempt to describe here, but Mrs. Owsley has prepared a pamphlet of "Scope Notes" on the collection. Write to her for a copy of same.

Copies may be obtained of a check list of microfilm held by the Manuscript Section and the Search Section, Archives Division of the Tennessee State Library and Archives. The materials are described, approximate number of items given, inclusive dates, sketch of contents, number reels, location of originals, institution by whom filming was done. Those films listed as having been made by Tennessee State Library and Archives are available for purchase unless otherwise indicated.

The above is a brief sketch of research material available to the genealogist at the State Library and Archives Building, Nashville, Tennessee. The collection is being added to constantly. Many original court records are there, but as yet unclassified and indexed. Many history-minded people have deposited data of all descriptions there so that it is or will be available to future generations. The Library and Archives welcomes this material, and welcomes those who want to use it.

The Memphis Genealogical Society wishes to thank Mrs. Charles Embry of the Library for bringing to us this valuable information. Also, we want to thank Mr. Robert Quarles, Jr. and Mrs. Harriett Chappell Owsley for their gracious cooperation.

Henry County, Tennessee was formed in 1821. The earlier marriage records were inaccessible when Mrs. Graham copied the above list in 1956. (Editor)

CRAWFORD FAMILY CEMETERY - HENRY COUNTY, TENNESSEE
 Copied by: Ola Johnson Graham (Mrs. J. B.)

The Crawford Family Cemetery is located north of Whitlock, Tennessee. It was in a sad state of neglect when this information was copied in 1956. The family sold the farm several years ago and it had been stocked with cattle which were running over the graves.

Mary K. Crawford, wife of J. N.    b. Oct. 24, 1845    d. Dec. 16, 1913
