THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER

"A people which takes no pride in the noble achievements of remote ancestors will never achieve anything of worth to be remembered with pride by remote descendants."
Lord Macauley

Dear Members:

Our one-day Seminar on July 18, with Mr. Leon S. Hollingsworth, Genealogist and Historian of DeKalb County, Georgia, was a great satisfaction to your president and board members. The attendance was gratifying and we do appreciate the support given us. We want to thank the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity for the generous loan of the rooms. Members were equally helpful in sharing the responsibility of making our seminar a success. Our thanks to Mr. S. Caya Phillips and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Phillips, for the lovely buffet dinner complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth. We thoroughly enjoyed meeting Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth and found them delightful company. We look forward to a return visit from them in the future.

By the way, our attendance was seventy four! We were overjoyed, but overwhelmed. We found everyone pleased with the speaker and the arrangements. In the future, we would appreciate your cooperation in sending your reservations earlier than the last week. We understand there are exceptions, but those last minute reservations cause concern about food and space. But, we do want a good turnout, so try to let us know as soon as possible. Please!

We have started thinking about our fall plans and hope we can present programs both interesting and helpful. For some time, we have been aware of the need of our new members for doing research in the Library. We anticipate a tour of Cossitt-Goodwyn Library to familiarize researchers with the files, indexes and books. We also want to revive several useful ideas. We have had several request for assistance and advice on evaluating the materials collected through research. Several of our experienced genealogists will make themselves available at future meetings to discuss, individually, the steps one can next make with regard to solving a problem. Please have your charts and data arranged so that a speedy evaluation can be made. We know this will prove helpful.

In October, we will open our permanent headquarters at 2233 Madison Avenue. We voted in April to rent space where our properties can be centralized. Now, we are fortunate in having acquired a mid-town location that seems to suit our every need. Our library and bulletin office will be stationed there, and we will continue the present schedule regarding time and dates for exchange of books. We have been grateful to Betty Moore for the loan of her lovely den this summer for this same use and purpose.

In December, we do not have a scheduled meeting, but we are planning a festive "Open-House" in our new quarters.

At this time, it might be well to remind our out-of-town members that the 1969 Surname Index has been printed and sells for $1.00. Also, that the fly-sheet listing contents and prices of all the back issues of "Ansearchin" News was sent out in the first issue of 1970. The Editor, Jewel Standefer, welcomes all documented Tennessee material; Bible records; cemetery records. Material that is too lengthy or unsuitable for publication is placed in binders and kept in our private library for the use of our members.

We hope you had a pleasant and profitable "searchin" summer.

Sincerely,

Katherine M. Young

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Again, our Staff thanks one of our erudite, hard-working members for many of the records contained in this issue. Mr. Jonathan Kennon Smith, Certified Genealogist, has gone into both Benton and Fayette Counties, Tennessee to secure these data for you. The value of original records cannot be overstated, and Mr. Smith has our sincere appreciation for his efforts in your behalf.

In addition to the assistance Mr. Smith has given us, he has just completed A History of Benton County, Tennessee to 1900, 153 pages, maps, illustrations and an abbreviated index. These books are not for sale, but they are available in several southern state libraries. Our hearty congratulations to him for having accomplished so serious a work.

Aside from our pleasure in receiving many new subscriptions to "Ansearchin'" News, we have been most gratified by the letters received from our readers commending our society on its publication. We are attempting to bring you the finest genealogical records available.

 ANNOUNCEMENT ***

The Texas State Genealogical Society, Ft. Worth, Texas, announces a convention to be held on November 5-7, 1970, in Houston's Shamrock-Hilton Hotel. Mrs. Edna Perry Deckler, Editor of Stirpes, promises to send a complete program in September. This should be an outstanding fall meeting.

 GIFT PUBLICATIONS AND NOTES OF INTEREST ***

MID-WEST GENEALOGICAL REGISTER, Vol. V, June 1970-#1, has been received by our librarian. Mr. Virgil Pangburn, Editor, 2911 Rivera, Wichita, Kansas 67211, has published the Huddleston Family Bible; Shrock Family Bible and many interesting Kansas data.

GENEALOGICAL LINEAGE OF PRISCILLA JONES MACON LEIPER (Macon, Fitzhugh, Ashton, Washington Families), by Esther Agnes Leiper Shumaker. Harper Leiper Studio, Houston, Texas, 1969. 73 pages. Illus. Order from Mrs. Shumaker, 418 North Avalon, Memphis, Tennessee 38112. $14.50.

Upon first opening this genealogy, one can readily discern that it is imminently a labor of love. The book represents untold hours of work, with its carefully and thoughtfully arranged lineages (graced with numerous illustrations). Mrs. Shumaker pays tribute to her mother's worthy ancestry, as well as she gives an account of the lady's lineal descendants and her own ascendants. She furnishes the lineages of many Virginia families, including the Ashtons, Ayletts, Battailes, Fitzhughs, Gerards, Ironmongers, Macons, Martiaux, Popes, Reades, Smiths, Tabbs, Tuckers, Warners, Washingtons and many others. The compiler has expended much effort in giving the evidences for her lineages as well as the patriotic services (very thorough) of her forebears and an engaging account of the Virginia Washingtons and their Sulgrave Manor heritage. The compiler has incorporated within the main corpus of the genealogy, the direct descents (through her mother) from Charlemagne, the numerous Magna Carta Barons, Knights of the Garter, and other European notables, including the medieval crusaders. Mrs. Shumaker expressed the sentiment regarding her labors, that "All efforts in compilation were prompted by the religious hope that the young might revere and build character in consideration and care, using the past as a foundation for the future."

AN ETYMOLOGICAL DICTIONARY OF FAMILY AND CHRISTIAN NAMES, by William Arthur (1857), 300 pages, hard cover, index. Re-published (1969) by Gale Research Company, Book Tower, Detroit, Michigan 48226. $9.50.

This volume contains a comprehensive study of family and Christian names, which provides the semantic derivation of twenty seven hundred family names and five hundred Christian names secured from the English, Saxon, Dutch, Danish, German, Welch, Gaelic (Celtic), Cornish-English and other languages. The introduction is a documented essay which includes a concise history of surnames; treats biblical names and their significance; the early functions of names; sobriquets and nick-names; types of names (descriptive, local, official). Many cross-references are given which aid the reader in tracking down the various forms and corruptions of a particular name. The author gives credit to the sources of information in order to corroborate and complement his own research.

GENEALOGY OF THE DODSON (DOTSON), LUCAS, PYLES, ROCHESTER AND ALLIED FAMILIES, by S. Emmett Lucas, Jr., (1959), 241 pages. Order from Georgia Genealogical Reprints, 405 Virginia Way, Vidalia, Georgia 30474. Paper cover $10.00 or hard cover $12.50.

Another fine book has arrived from the workshop of the Reverend Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., which can be epitomized by his statement, "It is my belief that, no matter how distantly related we are to each other, we should try to keep in closer contact and kindle the family relationship that we are a part of and so often neglect." The genealogy of these four families was secured from the records of marriages, births, deaths, correspondence, visits, tombstone inscriptions, Bible records and early census records. If a descendant or researcher does not find the person for whom he is looking in this book, it is possible that he may do so in the Supplement to The History of the Dodson-Dotson Family of Southwest Virginia. Both books are of the same superior workmanship which is characteristic of the author.

DADE COUNTY PIONEERS, 1840 & 1850 Census, by Paul R. L. Vance, (1970), 94 pages, soft binder, index. Order from the author, Box 578, Marietta, Georgia 30060. $7.50.

Dade County, Georgia was formed from Walker County on Christmas Day, 1837. The majority of the early settlers of the county came from East Tennessee after the removal of the Cherokees to Oklahoma. Lookout Mountain on the east, Sand Mountain on the west and the Tennessee River on the north made this an isolated community. The 1840 census was taken less than three years after the formation of the county. The author, to compensate for the inaccuracies inherent in census taking, has checked subsequent census records, as well as early court records, for clarification. Mr. Vance points with pride to his ancestors and those of his wife who were among the early settlers of Dade County.

CHURCHYARD LITERATURE, by John Robert Kippax (1877), 213 pages, hard cover, index. Re-issued (1969) by Singing Tree Press, Book Tower, Detroit, Michigan 48226. $9.50.

It is in this choice collection of American Epitaphs that an insight may be gained into the thoughts and beliefs of early America. The necrological gleanings of the author are carefully classified according to type of epitaph: admonitory, devotional, laudatory, ludicrous, satirical, etc. One chapter is used for the inscriptions on the tombstones of such eminent personages as Washington, Jefferson, Harvard, Lincoln and others. Obsequies of various nations, ancient and modern, are noted. (This book is cited in Sonnenschein, The Best Books.)

WORK FAMILY HISTORY 1690-1969, compiled by Von Gail Hamilton (1970), 592 pages, hard bound cover, index. Order from the compiler, P. O. Box 936, Park City, Utah 84060. $20.00.

This volume covers twelve generations of WORKS in America. It would seem that no compiler in a lifetime would be able to do the labor necessary to complete such a work of art. Well organized, systematic in its presentation, this book should be a tremendous genealogical asset to people interested in the Work and allied families. This book may serve as an inspiration to all who have dreams of establishing their own family histories.

HISTORY OF DETROIT AND WAYNE COUNTY AND EARLY MICHIGAN, by Silas Farmer (1890), 1028 pages, hard bound, index. The Third Edition, Revised and Enlarged, has been republished (1969) by Gale Research Company, Book Tower, Detroit, Michigan 48226. $17.50.

This is a superb work on local and general history with authentic details on the founding and progress of early settlements, government officials, clergy and pioneers. It covers the events of the Territory and State, of which Detroit has been at different times the capital. The research is classified under twelve different heads, arranged in eighty chapters. A Supplement includes: Annals of Detroit; French Farms or Private Claims; City Charters; Amendments and Special Laws. Interest is not restricted to Michigan; therefore, historians as well as genealogists will enjoy this book.

THE MELUNGEONS (THEIR ORIGIN AND KIN), by Bonnie Ball (1969), 71 pages, soft cover. Order from author, P. O. Box 62, Haysi, Virginia 24256. $2.00.

The earliest colonial records tell us that there were people of mixed racial backgrounds to be found in the mountains of Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, North and South Carolina. The racial mixture apparently was Indian, Caucasian and Negro. "Melanger," the French word for mixed races became "Melungeon" in the eastern mountains. The family names and language were English. These people were recorded in the census as Free Colored but the Melungeons usually called themselves Indians (of one derivation or another). The author explored the possible relationship of the Melungeons with the Lost Colony of Raleigh on Roanoke Island and other theories of the origin of these people. Many fascinating traditions, narratives, anecdotes, statistics, nicknames, interviews and first-hand stories about the Melungeons are related. Some interesting conclusions have been made and a summary is added to conclude the story.

THE MARCH OF THE SAGES, compiled by Mrs. Bonnie (Sage) Ball (1967), 575 pages, hard back, index. Order from the author, P. O. Box 62, Haysi, Virginia 24256. $15.00.

The purpose of the book is to serve as a family history of the descendants of James Sage, a Revolutionary soldier from Grayson County, Virginia. The features are: Allied families; other Sage lines; unidentified Sages; documentary records; Sage records from England and many photographs. A very interesting story is told of the capture of Caty Sage as a young girl and her life with the Indians. As with many pioneer families, this one has migrated into almost every state of the union. The book is well written.

AMERICAN AND BRITISH GENEALOGY AND HERALDRY, compiled by P. William Filby, (1970), 184 pages, hard cover, index. Order from the Order Department, American Library Association, 50 East Huron, Chicago, Illinois 60611. $10.00.

A selected list of books containing over eighteen hundred titles comprises this bibliography. It will be a handy reference for genealogists, individual researchers and librarians. Many annotations indicate helpful features or limitations of specific books. Its coverage includes regional and ethnic groups of the United States (except Alaska), Canada and Great Britain.

HUNT - THE HUNTS OF TENNESSEE, compiled by T. Vance Little (1969), 61 pages, soft cover, index. Published by Vee El Ancestral Studies, P. O. Box 3277, Nashville, Tennessee 37219. $5.00.

In this compilation of material on the Hunt Family from the 16th district (northern part) of Williamson County, Tennessee, the lineage of Gersham Hunt is traced back to Ralph Hunt who was born in England, 1613, and who died in New York, 1677. It contains valuable footnotes; appendices; both census and marriage records; tombstone inscriptions; will abstracts; references from The Tennessee Roster, D.A.R. and a miscellanea consisting of brief records of the Memucan Hunt, Sion Hunt and Lowrance families.

WILLIAMSON 101, compiled by T. Vance Little (1970), 197 pages, soft cover, index. Published by Vee El Ancestral Studies, P.O. Box 3277, Nashville, Tennessee 37219. $15.00.

The title of this book is taken from the fact that tombstone inscriptions from 101 cemeteries in the 16th, 17th and 18th districts of the northern part of Williamson County, Tennessee form a nucleus for the publication. Seventy two or more pioneer families have relatives buried in this area. Historical and genealogical data which have been included are marriage, census and Bible records. The roll of Company "B" of the Twentieth Tennessee Regiment was used as one of the sources for gathering a wealth of statistics.

THE BROYLES FAMILY TIES, Vol. II, by John Kenneth Broyles, Sr., (1970), 133 pages, soft cover. Order from the author, 415 West Rockwood Street, Rockwood, Tennessee 37854. $7.50.

Volume II, of The Broyles Family Ties, contains a list of contents and a summary of Volume I; additional marriages; census records; cemetery records; abstracts of wills; complete family lines; miscellanea and additional information. This is a very well prepared book.

CHURCH SITE DESIGNATED "LANDMARK"

Contributed by Georgia Belle Crawford (Mrs. William L.)

The location of the oldest United Methodist congregation in Texas, McMahan's Chapel, near Bronson, was designated a denominational "landmark" by the United Methodist General Conference in May, 1970. It was named in 1833 for Samuel Doak McMahan, a Tennessean who had moved to Sabine County, Texas.

The congregation was organized in September 1833, by the Rev. James Porter Stevenson, son of Rev. William Stevenson, who began his ministry in Middle Tennessee. He continued it in Southeast Missouri and was later founder of Methodism in Arkansas. He was the first Protestant preacher in Texas and one of the first in what is now Oklahoma. The son, James, preached in East Texas while he was pastor across the state line in Louisiana.

Since it was against Mexican law to organize a Protestant church in Texas, Stevenson organized a Methodist "society." There have been three buildings on the site, and the church has continued its identity and work across the years.

This church is now officially established as a "landmark" and an unofficial shrine.

NOTE: There are many other markers in Belmont Cemetery, but we have selected for publication only those born before 1870 unless a relationship is shown. (Editor.)

In Cole's Antique Shop at Val Verde, Texas; between Alamo and Donna, Texas, I found a tombstone! Mr. Cole received the tombstone unknowingly in a truckload of merchandise and being a most honorable man does not feel quite right about having someone's tombstone! The stone is in excellent shape and is broken off neatly at the base. It reads: "In Memory of Frances E. Medearis, wife of John T. Medearis and daughter of Henry and Frances Dean. Born Mar. 28, 1833 in Bedford City, Tenn., Died Oct. 31, 1859 in Sevier City, Arkansas while moving to Texas. Age 26 yrs., 7 mos. and 3 days." Mrs. C. L. Neill, Box 103, Pharr, Texas 78577.

OBITUARY

The Randolph Recorder, Randolph, Tennessee, October 1834

Died, in this place, on the 10th last, M. B. Patton, a few hours after landing from the steamer Tobacco Plant from- below- Mr. P. resided lately a short time in Vicksburg and was from there last, on his way up the river; it is supposed his connexions were either in this state or Kentucky. His clothing, money, etc. are in the hands of Dr. J. M. Slaughter, of this place, and will be delivered to his relatives when called for.
