OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

Many times items of general interest to our subscribers are sent to our office, but because we are a quarterly publication, the event has come and gone before we mail our next issue to you. Nonetheless, some of the ideas and information are worth passing on to others. Such an example comes from the Mobile Genealogical Society of Mobile, AL.

This organization has sub-divisions of special interest groups, persons who are re-searching the same area. The Tennessee Chairman, Pamela Corley, sent us a list of Mobile members who are searching in our state and the names of the families they are interested in. At a Regional Fair held in Mobile last March, Pamela had a table for Tennessee searchers which served as a contact for others working in Alabama and Tennessee, possibly on the same family. This is a method of meeting new correspondants, maybe even cousins. If you are interested in trying this idea, Pamela J. Corley, P.O. Box 402, Satsuma, AL 36572 may be able to give you some pointers.

Another special interest group is "Pal-Am", Palatines to America. This organization promotes the study of German immigration to North America, and publishes a quarterly journal to help members share findings with others. The 14th National Conference of Pal-Am will be held June 22-24, 1989 at Marian College in Indianapolis, IN. Maralyn Wellauer of Madison, WI will speak on subjects related to the theme "Into the Old Northwest." For information write Palatines to America, Box 101P, Capital University Columbus, OH or call Paul Peak at 303-773-2555.

If you have a FEATHERSTONE line, you have a new champion. Gene Hyden, editor of the Heydon-Hayden-Hyden Families, has established a new publication for Featherstone lines. All spellings of this name will be included in the material he prints on a quarterly basis. Volume I, No. 1 was published in January and is an attractive 5x7 computer-generated booklet. Write Mr. Hyden, 7911 Yancey Dr., Falls Church, VA 22042 for information.

Another family group has scheduled a reunion. The BURKHALTER family will gather on Saturday, August 19th in Prattville, AL; anyone interested may receive further information by sending a SASE to Andy Burkhalter, 115 Shirley Dr., Hendersonville, TN 37075. Andy's Burkhalter-Stevens-Downs lines were in South Alabama ca 1800/30.

Conferences, Seminars, Fairs and Workshops are exhilarating and informative ways to further our favorite hobbies, and genealogists have excellent opportunities for that experience in these two events:

St. Louis Genealogical Society Fair - 17 June 1989 - Sunset Hills, MO
American Family Records Assn. Conference - 21-22 July 1989 - Independence, MO

The 20th annual St. Louis Society Fair will feature Arlene Eakle and Daniel M. Schlyter, both of Salt Lake City, as speakers. Their subjects are related to the general theme of the Fair, "Ancestral Routes to Missouri." For more information write to the Society at 9011 Manchester Road, Suite 3, St. Louis, MO 63144.

The American Family Records Association Conference theme is "Breaking Through Stone Walls - Where Do I Go From Here?" Two nationally renowned speakers, Arlene Eakle and Marsha Hoffman Rising will offer instructions and suggestions for solving that problem. Write the Association at 311 East 12th St., Kansas City, MO 64106 for registration forms.

THE TENNESSEE CONFERENCE FEMALE COLLEGE - COLUMBIA, TENNESSEE

A small, tattered and stained pamphlet, which was published in Nashville, Tennessee by Cameron & Co., News Office, Cherry Street in 1860, brings to life one of the early church-related schools. A copy of the thirty page catalogue was given to this society by Doloris Tillman.

The Tennessee Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South had established a "Female College" in Columbia, Maury County, Tennessee in 1843, and when this "Annual Announcement" was published, it had been under the leadership of Dr. Jared O. Church for sixteen years. It was reported in the conference minutes under various names, Columbia Female Institute and Columbia Female Seminary, perhaps because another Tennessee Conference Female Institute was established at Huntsville, Alabama.

"Tennessee Conference Female College is under the patronage of the Tennessee Conference, and has a charter of the most liberal Collegiate privileges. It is located on a beautiful eminence, in the suburbs of the flourishing town of Columbia, and accessible from all points by Turnpikes and Railroads. The Tennessee & Alabama and the Tennessee & Alabama Central Railroads pass through Columbia, which, on this account, becomes one of the most accessible towns for schools in the State. The cars are passing several times daily, so that persons are not detained longer than they may wish. The character which Columbia sustains for intelligence, refinement and morality will ever, as heretofore, render it a most desirable place for the Education of young Ladies."

Although it was affiliated with the Methodist Church, the college did not require its students to be members of that denomination. "In this particular, we allow students of other denominations to attend their own church, in company with some member of the Faculty, and for the purpose of having the whole matter conducted in perfect order, we have pews rented for these pupils. There is connected with the College a regular system of Bible instruction, in which every member of our school and Faculty is engaged. This exercise is conducted in the College Chapel every Sabbath evening, and because of its great regularity we can assure our good patrons that their daughters are making very desirable acquirements in Bible knowledge. In the ratio of our present movements, more than one hundred thousand scripture verses will have been committed by the pupils of the College, during this scholastic year."

Dr. Church was "Professor of Moral Sciences and Belles Lettres", as well as being the president. Mrs. Church's name is followed by A.M. indicating that she, too, had earned a degree. Prof. J Rud Adam was Principal of the Music Department and Teacher of Vocal and Instrumental Music, assisted by his wife in the latter class. Miss Celeste M Vallad was also a teacher of instrumental music. There were two mathematics teachers, Miss Susan A Smith and Miss Sarah Jackson. Miss Mary E. Ingerson was teacher of Languages, and Miss Georgia A. Randle taught Intellectual Sciences. Art was not neglected as Miss Seline A. Clark taught Painting and Drawing, Oriental, Grecian and Water Colors. The faculty was completed by Miss Mary Carnahan, English Literature, and Miss Arrabella H. Clark, Teacher of the Preparatory School. The staff also included Mrs. Catharine Lathrop, Matron, and Mrs. Mary Morgan, Head of Domestic Department.

TENNESSEE CONFERENCE FEMALE COLLEGE

The college consisted of two main buildings: the Education building and the Residence. The Education building held recitation rooms, a chapel and a "large Corinthian Hall." The Residence was the home of Dr. and Mrs. Church and probably Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Harwell, as well as the 150 boarding students. Mrs. Eliza N. Church is listed as Governess and Mrs. Amanda Harwell as Adjunct Governess. J.M. Harwell is named as Financial Secretary. The necessary "dependencies", such as kitchen, storage and laundry houses were discretely hidden behind buildings and lattices, and the whole wooded lawn was surrounded by a wide board fence.

Remembering the date of this publication, 1860, we find this timely remark particularly interesting: "We have for years publicly and privately advocated the propriety and necessity of employing Southern Teachers for, and using Southern Text Books in all our schools, and as far as possibly we have carried out this principle. For the future, we shall be more rigid in this particular, if not entirely exclusive."

Every effort was made to consider the whole college as a family and to offer the atmosphere of ideal home life, "and parents and guardians may be assured that every want will be supplied with utmost promptness." The health of the young ladies was of prime concern, but there had been no case of "protracted illness - indeed, twenty dollars will pay all our medical bills in this department." This was in part due to the healthy location and the nine acre campus which was "amply sufficient for healthful exercise, and at the same time giving an opportunity to the Faculty for all proper supervision." The dormitories were supplied with "good wardrobes, featherbeds and clothing for the same, to any desirable amount. Faithful servants are on hand at all times to supply the necessary amount of fuel, so that no young lady shall be compelled to say that she is uncomfortable."

Parents of today's college students will relate to the dress code established by the Governess of girls who wore ankle-length, bell shaped skirts with several petticoats. "We urge upon the parents the propriety of outfitting their daughters with plain, substantial clothing, retaining all gaudy and costly decorations and jewelry at home. Such things are a source of great trouble to the Faculty and injury to the pupil...we have found that it is utterly impracticable for young Ladies to make purchases of goods, while at school, on credit. We find, in many instances, that their bills are much higher than their parents or guardians expected ...If the credit system is allowed by any parent, he alone must bear the responsibility."

Advice for winter clothing continued: "Parents will allow us to urge upon them the absolute importance of providing their daughters with several pair of woolen hose and two or three pair of leather shoes - home-made preferable - a good supply of flannel and worsted dresses."

This seemingly idyllic spot was supervised by a Conference Visiting Committee which was made up of the following Methodist ministers: A.L.P. Green, D.D., J.F. Hughes, Lewis C. Bryan, Ferdinand S. Petway and Isaac Milner. The Board of Trustees included:

FAMILY GATHERINGS

Prepared for publication by Mary Louise Graham Nazor

ARE YOU A DESCENDANT OF LANDON CARTER HAYNES? - Submitted by Rebecca C. Thomas,
P.O. Box 225, Johnson City, TN 37605

If so, the Tipton-Haynes Historical Association wants you to contact them. The Association is responsible for restoring the Tipton-Haynes house just outside Johnson City, TN. It is hoped the house restoration will be completed in 1990, the 125th anniversary of the Civil War conclusion.

In 1944 the State of Tennessee purchased the house and 17 and 1/2 acres. According to the Tennessee Historical Quarterly, V. 5, 1946, p.369-73 a stone monument was erected on the land. On one face is recorded that James Needham and Gabriel Arthur were the first English speaking men to tread the soil of Tennessee in 1673; Daniel Boone took the same trail in 1760 and William Bean made the first permanent settlement 1768-69. The second face, looking towards Johnson City, tells of John Tipton moving from Shenandoah Co VA 1783-84 and building a two-story log house. Tipton was born 1730 Baltimore MD and his family moved to Virginia in 1750; he died Aug 1813. The third face of the monument looks towards the residence. Jacob Tipton, son of Col. John, was killed when Brig. Gen. John Sevier fought the Indians in 1791; John Tipton Jr. fought under Gen. Jackson in the battle of New Orleans 1815 and died 1829. The fourth face is about Landon Carter Haynes; it faces Asheville and his birthplace.

Landon Carter Haynes was born 2 Dec 1816 in Elizabethton, Carter Co TN, son of David Haynes and Rhoda Taylor, daughter of Matthew Taylor and sister of Gen. Nathaniel Taylor. Landon was the grandson of George Haynes, Revolutionary soldier of Virginia. Landon's father purchased the Tipton homestead in Washington Co near Haynesville; after the Civil War and during reconstruction the town name was changed to Johnson City. He was named for Gen. Landon Carter, son of Col. John Carter who was chairman of the Watauga Court.

After being educated at Washington College in East Tennessee, Landon read law in the office of Thomas A.R. Nelson and was admitted to the bar in 1840. In 1847 he was elected to the lower house of the legislature from the district composed of Johnson, Carter, Sullivan and Washington Counties. In 1849 he represented Hawkins, Washington and Greene Counties and was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives. On 24 Oct 1861 he was elected to the Confederate Senate and served until the close of the war.

In the 1860 Washington Co TN census Landon C. is 44, wife Ellenor/Ellen M. 40, Robert M. 19, Joseph 17, Ann Helen 15, Mary Alice 12, Landon C. (Jr.) 11 and David H. 9. Following the Civil War, Landon C. Haynes moved his family to Memphis, TN where he formed the law firm Haynes, Heath & Lewis (Robert R. Heath and Augustus M. Lewis). His first mention in the Memphis City Directories is 1867. After the daughter Helen married 28 Feb 1867 Francis D. Stockton, lawyer, the firm became Haynes & Stockton.

Landon died 17 Feb 1875 Memphis, TN and was buried in Elmwood Cemetery but in 1905 he was exhumed and re-interred in Riverside Cemetery in Jackson, TN. Names of the family disappear from the Memphis City Directories after 1878 (the biggest Yellow Fever year) and appear on the 1880 census in Madison Co TN, Jackson. Living there are Robert W. Haynes and his family - Drucie P. 36, Nillie 8, Landon C. 5 and Robert P. 2; and in the household of David H. Haynes are Rachel 17, Eleanor M. 60, Hellen H. Stockton 32; Alice B. 11, Landen H. 9, Maggie O. 7 and Francis D. Stockton 4.

Landon C. Haynes Jr., Joseph Haynes and Francis D. Stockton do not appear on the 1880 TN Census Soundex. Landon C. Haynes Jr. married Gertrude S. Pillow in Shelby County and the bond was dated 4 Apr 1876.

It is the hope of the Tipton-Haynes Historical Association that this search will locate and identify direct descendants of Landon Carter Haynes. (This is not the Landon Carter Haynes who was a professor at Tusculum College in Greenville, TN.) Descendants may have additional information on his life and career and be willing to attend the grand opening of the restored house. Contact: William P. Bailey or Rebecca C. Thomas, P.O. Box 225, Johnson City, TN 37605.

WILLIAM LUCAS' VIRGINIA WILL CHALLENGED IN TENNESSEE - Contributed by Harry M. Cleveland, 2064 Montreat Drive, Memphis, TN 38134

BILL OF COMPLAINT 20 OCT 1827, CHANCERY COURT MINUTES, CARTHAGE, SMITH CO TN
 The bill of complaint of Jacob BURRUS and Susannah, his wife; Daniel HAMMOCK and Polly, his wife; Brice MARTIN; William Martin; Joseph CLEVELAND, administrator of Martha Cleveland, deceased of Smith County; Archelous HUGHES and Nancy, his wife of Henry Co TN and Joseph G. WALLER, administrator of Elizabeth Waller of Virginia.

Humbly praying beg leave to show to your honor that on the 20th of May 1813, William LUCAS of Orange County Virginia made his last will and testament and sometime shortly thereafter, perhaps in that same year, he departed this life and the said will was duly proven and recorded with a codicil thereto dated the 9th of August of the same year and letters testamentary granted to Robert CAVE and John Lucas, the executors named therein.

The testator died seized and possessed of a very considerable estate both real and personal and left a large family of children and grandchildren. It will be seen by reference to the will...that it was the habit of the testator when his children married or left him to lend them a portion or portions of his property holding the right in himself and which he afterwards disposed of at his own will or pleasure. His daughter Sarah Lucas intermarried with Joseph Martin and complaintants Susannah, Polly, Brice, William, Martha, Nancy and Elizabeth are the issue of that marriage and were all living at the testators death except Elizabeth. In the will William Lucas states that he lends Rachel Martin 3 negroes during her life and after her de-cease negroes go to Sarah's children and also lends to Rachel and her husband Brice one half of a 400 acre tract of land during their lives. Rachel had intermarried at an advanced age being upwards of 40 years old against the will and consent of her father. They went to live at a considerable distance from the old man, say about 200 miles, his opposition was not such as to prevent her visiting him, which she and her husband occasionally did, but he did not do anything for them until about 7 years after their marriage. She is now a very old woman perhaps between 75 and 80 years old, living in Henry Co VA, never having had any issue. Joseph and Sarah Martin lived in the same county. During this time the slaves have had several children, of which some are in Rachel's possession and one in possession of Nancy Martin, now living in Overton Co TN. Brice, a widower when he married the said Rachel, had 2 children, Joseph and William, by a former marriage. William married Nancy and after moving to TN died. Slaves are now in possession of Thomas SMITH who married a daughter of William Martin. (William Martin, who died intestate 1817/18, left the following heirs: wife Nancy, Brice, John, Thomas, Joseph and Unity who married Thomas Smith.)

Your complaintants are advised and believe that they are in great danger of losing the bounty and bequest of their grandfather under this management of the life estate and setting up of interests wholly inconsistent with and in opposition to their remainder. To the end therefore that the said Nancy Martin of Overton Co TN and Thomas Smith of ___ Co TN together with Rachel Martin of Henry Co VA be made defendants to this bill and severally answer the same, particularly let them set forth and discover the names, ages, descriptions and value of the said negroes and to enjoin them from selling them...

Another bill of complaint in the nature of a bill of review was filed 10 Nov 1829. Depositions were taken from Brice Edwards, Susan C. Waller and James Edwards in July term 1829. Rachel Martin died in Virginia 1828 since the filing of the original bill of complaint.

Bradley carried out all the legal requirements, but he, his wife & children have been "ejected by suit in the Federal Court in support of which suit they endeavored to prove that my spring was one the army laid(?) at on the tour to Nickajack which many will disprove as the rout the army went is not within two miles of my spring, and there are several springs in the neighborhood immediately on the trace aforesaid"...Bradley stated that he understands that the Act of 1808 requires "old Grant holders" to pay for the labor of people they dispossess. Nevertheless, when his petition was referred to the Land Committee, it was "Reported unreasonable." 1 Oct 1813 (2 pages)

"Gentlemen we congratulate you upon hearing the energetic measures you have adopted in raising a military force sufficient (through Divine providence) to scourge those savage barbarians who have so wantonly massacred our Brethren on the waters of the Mobile...The crisis of affairs...call forth...decisive measures...We therefore...call your attention to the late conduct of Joseph ANDERSON & William B GILES, two of the late Senators in Congress, the former from the State of Tennessee, the latter from the State of Virginia...We believe said senators are highly reprehensible for their voteing for a recall of GALLATIN, one of our Envoys Extraordinary to the Court of Russia, whose distinguished Talents is well known to all our Countrymen, shows their nefarious conduct in the first place. Then voting against the Embargo proves their diabolical intentions to thwart the Government, the only measure were it persued to have cleared our waters of the Enemies fleet. We moreover are induced to believe from the voting of said Senators, that they have wickedly and corruptly received from the Court of St. James such emolument of reward as have caused their defection and apostacy." DESCENDANTS OF JOHN SPRINGS (SPRINGSTEEN) AND SOPHIA GASSAWAY OF MECKLENBURG COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, Including Genealogical Briefs of the Springsteen and Storm Families by Max Perry. 1988. Softback, 8½x11. 281 pp, indexed. Order from the author, 2000 Harvard St., Midland, TX 79701. $32.00

In 1650 Casper Springsteen died in the province of Groeninger, Holland, leaving a widow and four children. In 1652, this courageous widow, Gertrude Springsteen, and her children, Barbara, Johannes, Melchior and Casper, emigrated to America to avoid a second revolt of the Hollanders against then-ruling Spain. They settled in New Amsterdam and bought land from the Indians. By 1766, one of the descendants, John Springs and his wife Sophia Gassaway, had migrated to Mecklenburg Co., NC. This book is a compilation of their descendants who moved from North Carolina into the Tennessee counties of Robertson, Maury and Shelby; twentieth century descendants have spread all over the South and Southwest. This detailed account is easy to follow and contains data on allied lines of Berry, Black, Dodds, Edwards, Hood, Moore & Roach.

A HISTORY OF THE DYER, TENNESSEE COMMUNITY, The People and Their Work compiled by Dyer Heritage '86 Committee. 1986. Hardback, 8½x11. 256 pp, not indexed. Order from Turner Publishing Co., P.O. Box 3101, Paducah, KY 42002-3101. $50.00

Not to be confused with the county of the same name, Dyer community lies in neighboring Gibson County, about seven miles northwest of the county seat of Trenton. Although it has been said that the history of the town began when the railroad came through in 1858, there was a small business community on the site much earlier. James Bobbitt of Warren County, NC had bought a tract of land in 1830 on which he and his family settled, the Reed family members were also early settlers. For a time, the settlement was called Bobbittsville before it became Dyer. This publication tells of the progress made from those early days up to the present, of organizations & churches, of businesses past & present, and of family histories, many with pictures.

DEED ASSTRACTS OF WARREN COUNTY KENTUCKY, 1797-1812. 1985. Hardback, 6x9. 147 pp, indexed.
DEED ABSTRACTS OF WARREN COUNTY KENTUCKY, 1812-1821. 1986. Hardback, 6x9. 204 pp, indexed.
SUMNER COUNTY TENNESSEE DEED ABSTRACTS, 1806-1817. 1989. Hardback, 6x9. 176 pp, indexed. All by Joyce Martin Murray, 2921 Daniels, Dallas, TX 75205. Each book $25.00 + $2.50 shipping and handling per order (Texas residents add $1.75 sales tax per book).

The importance of land records should not be overlooked in genealogical research. Far from being limited to land owners, deed books may yield the names of heirs, witnesses, neighbors, agents or attorneys for absentee heirs or relatives. Lawsuits may be recorded in cases where land is involved. Personal property and slaves may have to be sold to satisfy debts. These records are placed in a deed book. Warren County, KY records begin after the formation of the county in 1796 from Logan County. At that time the southern boundary ran along the Tennessee state line, which was disputed territory until 1820. The earliest deed records begin 7 Mar 1797 when the County Court Clerk gave bond for his office. In 1799 part of Warren County was taken from Warren. The compiler abstracted records for the first volume from Kentucky State Archives microfilm of Deed Books A1, B2, C3, D4 and E5, which extends through Feb 1812. Complete names are capitalized in the abstracts, and a full-name index is provided.

The second volume of Warren Co KY Deeds includes Books F6, G7, H8 and I9 continuing into May 1821. During this period other counties were formed from part of Warren County - Allen County (1815) and Simpson County (1819). This volume, in addition to a full-name index, contains a slave index, and a place-name index.

Due south of original Warren Co KY lay Sumner Co TN which, by 1806, was greatly reduced in size from the large area it originally covered. The compiler has abstracted deed books 4, 5, 6 & 7 from Tennessee State Library and Archives microfilm covering the years 1806-1817. As in the preceding Kentucky volumes all names are capitalized for easy reference; the dates reflect the recording date of the deeds, hence you will find many deeds of much earlier dates. Also, there are references to North Carolina, Virginia and Kentucky connections. The index has a full-name, slave and place index which gives much information on geographic proximity of families and former residences.

THE LEGACY OF ADAM FISHER ( -1757) by James S. Fisher. 1985. Hardback, 8x11x2. 680 pp, pica print, indexed. Order from Piscator Publications, 908 N. Madison, Jackson, MS 39202. $25.00

Fisher, the 18th most common name in feudal England, can be a difficult name to research. It has been reported that at one time in Augusta Co., VA there were 17 Jacob Fishers. Other families of the same name were native to Holland and Germany. The Adam Fisher of this book was of German origin and came to America c1741 with his wife and one son, Abraham. He settled on the Schuylkill River near Philadelphia, where sons Jacob, Daniel and Adam Jr. were born. Abraham (b c1730) settled in Rockingham Co., VA; Jacob went to Franklin Co., VA before settling in Frederick Co., MD; Daniel went to Augusta Co., VA; Adam Jr. lived in MD, PA, KY and finally in Clermont Co., OH. In the Introduction the author outlines three Fisher families who were trying to establish claim to a European fortune in 1891; the sorting of those three lines should clarify the problem of so many Biblical names being repeated time and again. The index of 9204 names includes 84 allied families.

BOTETOURT COUNTY VIRGINIA, WILL BOOK A, 1770-1801 by Ann Chilton. 1988. Softback, 8½x11. 71 pp, indexed. Order from Mountain Press, P.O. Box 400, Signal Mountain, TN 37377. $18.00

Botetourt County Virginia was formed in 1769 from Augusta County; these wills are the earliest since the county's formation. Botetourt became the parent county of Alleghany, Bath, Craig, Fincastle, Montgomery, Roanoke and the grandparent of many other southwest Virginia counties. Therefore this early record becomes important to all researchers of that area. This book contains not only the names of testators, but also many names of persons who took the inventories or were witnesses, appraisers and sometimes executors who were not family members. Legatees are usually listed by name and relation. Those looking for persons who lived in Augusta Co before 1770 and later in Botetourt and her progeny will find these records very beneficial.

VAN BUREN COUNTY HISTORICAL JOURNAL, VOL. VIII by Van Buren County [TN] Historical Society. 1988. Softback, 8½x11. 108 pp. Order from the Society, P.O. Box 126, Spencer, TN 38585. $8.00

This journal forms a focal point for descendants of Van Buren Co., TN pioneers who have moved westward. Never heavily populated, the county, nonetheless, claims many loyal sons and daughters who have contributed well-told stories of their heritage. Rich with illustrations, this volume of the Journal features a history of the family of Sam Hitchcock (b 1869), including photos and charts. There are chapters on the families of Solomon Dodson, Samuel Miller, and Samuel Monroe Mills. Other topics of interest are: pictures of the Thos. A. Head family; the "Trail of Tears", final chapter of Indian history in Tennessee; pictures of Civil War Veterans; the Battle of Perryville, KY; Old Union Cemetery; and various Bible records.

BANNER OF PEACE AND CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN ADVOCATE, Abstracts of Marriages, Deaths And Other Notices 1843-1853 compiled by Margaret B. Scoggins. 1988. Hardback, 8½x11. 169 pp, indexed. Order from compiler, P.O. Box 473, Poplar Bluff, MO 63901. $22.50; MO residents add 5.725% tax.

This newspaper, published in Lebanon, Tennessee from 1843-1853, covers all types of news from national events to religious notices. The compiler has abstracted from a microfilm at the Tennessee State Library and Archives. The southern states, especially Tennessee, received most of the coverage, but other states from New York to California were mentioned. In the marriage and death notices all names and dates, plus other genealogical references, have been extracted. For the year 1843, almost all names & dates have been included, even those in a list of corresponding editors, quotes from a Cincinnati paper on a fire and explosion, lists of persons who took in stray livestock, property sold at Sheriff's sales etc. A full name index contains over 3500 names, and the entire book is printed on acid free paper.

MY THREE SONS, Vol. II, Harville-Sitton and Allied Lines compiled by Betty Sitton Reed. 1988. Softback, 9x11. 519 pp, indexed. Order from compiler, 6133 Mary Elizabeth Cove, Bartlett, TN 38134. $35.00

Mrs. Reed has spent thirty years researching her family history, which begins with the present generation, her three sons, Bruce, Clay and Chris Reed and their families. It continues back through ten generations. The Harville/Harwell line migrated from England and settled in Virginia; it included Samuel Harville, Sr. Revolutionary War soldier of Brunswick County Va. John

Sitton, the progenitor, came from England and settled in Hingham, Massachusetts in 1638, as did allied lines of Wilson and Young. This volume includes wills, deeds, pictures, census and marriage records, etc. These families migrated south to Georgia & west to Mississippi, adding other surnames to the family; among them Howard, Ross, Skillman, Hise, Bickerstaff, McClure.

Ms. Rose has abstracted from records in the National Archives, Washington D.C., data covering Rose families all over the United States. Over 400 files were examined, and information may include: age (when given); places of residence and enlistment, draftee, volunteer, or substitute; when and where discharged; physical description; affidavits; marriage and death records. The abstracts cover principally War of 1812, early Indian Wars and the Mexican War.

Nicknames Past and Present, a collection of well-known names and suggestions of unusual possibilities for little-known ones. Ms. Rose has stressed the importance of nicknames in research, especially in the older records. There are over 1100 listings which are alphabetized and fully cross-referenced.

HISTORY OF CARROLL COUNTY, TENNESSEE: VOLUME ONE - 1987 by Carroll County Homecoming '86 Historical Book Committee. 1986. Hardback, 8½x11½. 488 pp, not indexed. Order from Turner Publishing Co., P.O. Box 3101, Paducah, KY 42002-3101. $49.00

This history contains more than two hundred pages of family histories, many of them identifying ancestors prior to the settlement of Carroll County (a few going back to the seventeenth century). Numerous photos show family groups, couples, and individuals. Pertinent genealogical information will also be found among the church, school, and club histories. Names of the first Justices of the Peace for Carroll County appointed 14 Nov 1821 are given; of the ten men named, four have descendants who have contributed their family history. They are: Banks Burrow, Edward Gwin, Thomas Hamilton and Mark Roberts. County Court Records for 1822 give innumerable names of early settlers. Surnames include: Arnold, Busey, Crockett, Dougherty, Ingram, McCorkle, Stockbird, Zerikor and many more.

VALENTINE AND RELATED FAMILIES by Edra K. Harllee and Opal K. Hollis. 1988. Hardback, 8½x11. Ca 156 pp, indexed (100 pages not numbered or indexed). Order from Opal K. Hollis, 4003 Tealwood Dr., Austin, TX 78731. $35.00

Descendants of John Valentine, who came from England to Massachusetts in 1675, will find this book very beneficial. It includes a narrative history, based on documented research: wills, deeds, census records, Bible records, newspaper articles, county histories, coats-of-arms, charts, and photographs, tracing the English ancestry of the Valentine/Vollentine family and documenting them in America from Boston, Massachusetts to Nansemond Co VA, Gates Co NC, the Tennessee counties of Sumner, Stewart, Weakley & Obion; from there later generations moved to Old Nacogdoches Dist TX as early as 1844. Allied lines: Crum, Ezell, Eure, Klutts, Jones, King, Lee, Sebastian, Thomas and Whitesell.

This handy guide greatly facilitates research of the Civil War and its participants in that it gives the exact location of records, both state and national. The author traveled to each of the Confederate and border states to determine exactly what Confederate records are to be found in each state's archives and library. A brief history of the state's role in the war is followed by a list of the units from that state for which the National Archives has filmed service records. Location and hours of each state archives are given, as well as days it will be closed and any special procedure or service of a particular research facility.
