THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Members,

I hope each of you had a very pleasant summer and enjoyed it to the utmost! Lillian (Mrs. L.B.) Gardiner toured Europe with her sister in June. Lillian's 1965 tour abroad was for genealogical research, so she devoted this tour to sight-seeing and relaxing. Mr. Jonathan K. Smith also toured Europe, but concentrated on extensive research in history and genealogy. Betty (Mrs. Henry N.) Moore had a genealogically profitable trip in Henderson, Nelson and Washington counties, Kentucky in July.

It was my pleasure to go "Ancestor Searching" with our Editor, Mrs. Charlotte "Dee" Edmondson Elam, in Aberdeen, Monroe County, Mississippi, recently. We found the Evans Memorial Library abounding with historical and genealogical material under the charge of Miss Lucille Peacock, librarian, who was so gracious and helpful to us. Dee was elated to find a large portrait of her great-great-grandmother Nancy Moore (Mrs. Wm. H.) Ragsdale (1797-1863) in said library. She was able to take Polaroid snapshots of the portrait and has had one reproduced as a beautiful miniature. Miss Peacock referred us to cemetery and other records which were of great help in locating data about Dee's Walton-Moore-Ragsdale-Edmondson lines as well as the Pollard and Whitfield families in whom I was interested. Kind cooperation and assistance were given to us in the Monroe County Courthouse. All the Marriage Books except one are intact. Deeds, Wills, Administrations and Inventories are complete, indexed and in good condition. Xerox copies are available at the courthouse. We had a field day going through the files (boxes) downstairs.

Virginia (Mrs. Berry B.) Brooks returned from the first American Assembly of the "Descendants of the Most Noble Order of the Garter of Windsor Castle" which convened in Atlanta, Georgia, on May 15-16, 1968. Guest speakers were the Very Reverend Robin Woods and Mrs. Woods of Windsor Castle. He is the Dean of St. George's Chapel and Registrar of the Order. Virginia was appointed a Councillor of the Order in the American Assembly to attend Queen Elizabeth's Garter Service in June, 1970. Virginia is a descendant of King Edward III, founder of the "Most Noble Order of the Garter."

Our appreciation is extended to Mr. Jonathan K. Smith, our Book Review Editor and Director of Research, who brought us many interesting thoughts and illustrations of various types of maps at our July night meeting. We "trailed" ancestors from the highlands of Scotland to the mountains and highlands of Virginia, the Carolinas and Tennessee. We learned how to look for and locate place where our forefathers lived by the use of Range and Township maps which can be ordered from State Archives and from the Supt. of Government Documents in Washington, D.C. It was an interesting topic and program. We are grateful and fortunate to have Jonathan in our midst.

Study Group meetings met with Mrs. Fred Dawson, Mrs. Henry L. Moore and Mrs. L.M. Dent in May, June and July, respectively. Much study and sharing of material was done, and I want to thank each hostess for her kind hospitality. Also, for Betty Moore's generosity in sharing her library with us.

The Regular Business Meeting will be held on October 21, 1968 at 7:30 p.m. at the Pi Kappa Alpha House, 577 University Blvd. Special business will be discussed that night, and it should be of interest to each and every member. Let's have a full house! Looking forward to seeing you at that time, I am

Sincerely yours,

Margaret Inabinet Ericksen

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Summer is a good time to prowl through all sorts of interesting places. We hope all of our readers have had a profitable summer and have found many records of value, and we also hope that they will share those records with us.

Wilena Roberts Bejach (Mrs. L.D.), 43 Belleair Drive, Memphis, Tennessee 38104, found the following marriage license pasted in the window of a local antique shop: "What God Hath Joined Together Let No Man Put Asunder - This certifies that the Rite of Holy Matrimony was celebrated between Camillus Houston of Loda, Ill. (Iroquois County) and Anna Hays of Bulkley, Ill. (Iroquois County) March 15, 1868 at Paxton (Ford County) by J.D. Glenn, M.G. Witness, William Hays."

Mrs. George T. Hawley, 923 High, Topeka, Kansas 66606, also sent a marriage record found in a Bible which was brought to the Kansas State Historical Society to copy. This was on a loose page from another Bible: "Francis Berry and Esther Day was married by Tulance Lane a Justice of the Peace Jefferson County East Tennessee Jan - 29 - 1812." The first name of the officer is very dim and could be Tidance or Quitance or Qudance.

We have not received news of many new books and publications this summer. The few notes below indicate searchers have been busy compiling rather than publishing.

THE FRANKLIN FIREPLACE is a new family quarterly devoted to the Franklin surname. Each issue will contain about 25 pages. The price is $3.00 per year and may be ordered from Betty Harvey Williams, 410 Eighth Street Terrace, Warrensburg, Missouri 64093.

THE STUDEBAKER FAMILY is being published by The Studebaker Family National Association, Route 1, Tipp City, Ohio 45371. Write them for more information.

Our Director of Research, Jonathan K. Smith, has just returned from a research trip to England, and reports he found an interesting book that he recommends to our subscribers. It is THE RECORDS AND COLLECTIONS OF THE COLLEGE OF ARMS, by Anthony R. Wagner, Richmond Herald. The price is about $2.00, and it may be ordered from College of Arms, Queen Victoria Street, London, England E.C.4.

HISTORIC EBENEZER, the history of one of the oldest Presbyterian Churches in Middle Tennessee, has been compiled by Virginia W. and Charles C. Alexander, and includes early family records from the session Books, biographical sketches, and the tombstone inscriptions from the cemetery. Order from Mrs. Paul McAnally, Route 1, Columbia, Tennessee 38401. The price is $2.00.

A new hobby, antique, genealogy and recreation paper for Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana is now being published. It is the TRI-STATE TRADER, edited by Willard Heiss, P.O. Box 18301, Indianapolis, Indiana 46148.

Genealogical Enterprises, 6073 Woodview Drive, Morrow, Georgia 30260, offers the 1850 census of Bibb and Richmond counties, Georgia at $35.00 each.

Mrs. William R. Parkes, 316 S. Columbus Avenue, Louisville, Mississippi 39339, has written a weekly genealogical column called "Family Trees" which has appeared in the JACKSON DAILY NEWS since 1963. It is presently being expanded to other newspapers.

Mrs. Sue C. Hughey, Box 10503, Denver, Colorado 80210, offers a circular family-tree wall chart to record seven generations. It is 31 inches across and made of ragboard. The cost is $6.95, postpaid.

THE BOOK CORNER

The principal purpose of our book reviews is to share with our public some of the more worthwhile features of those books that have been given to us for examination. We are interested in relating pertinent facts about these books, but not being excessive in any detail. Criticism as such falls outside our scope and intent. Genealogical studies are still "young," and as yet there are no definite criteria for writing or compiling genealogical works that are acceptable to all persons. We would ask that those genealogical compilations sent to us for review be accurate, neat, and what they purport to be.

GUIDE TO PRINTED BOOKS AND MANUSCRIPTS RELATING TO HERALDRY AND GENEALOGY

(By George Gatfield, 1892. Reprinted by the Gale Research Co., 1400 Book Tower, Detroit, Michigan 48226. 646 pages. Price $19.50.)

A great service has been done for the genealogical public with the reprinting of this extremely valuable reference book. It covers English and foreign historical and genealogical research areas, including sections covering heraldry, pedigrees, royalty, British Isles resources, wills and parrish records of England, Crusaders, and numerous accounts of continental Europe, including France, Denmark, Spain and Switzerland.

The substance of the book is a vast collection (over 17,500) of books, periodicals, and manuscripts available about the subjects just enumerated. It reduces years of fundamental searching by the discerning genealogist by providing him with a list of prepared sources to investigate.

An entry in this book would read, for instance:

"NOBILITY AND GENTRY: A genealogical and biographical history of the dormant and extinct peerage of England, from the Norman Conquest, by Sir T.C. Banks. Lond. 1812, 80 (Only one volume published.)"

INDEX TO AMERICAN GENEALOGIES (By Joel Munsell's Sons, Publishers, 1900. Reprinted by the Gale Research Co., 1400 Book Tower, Detroit, Michigan 48226. 460 pages. Price $18.00.)

Having run through a fifth edition, this research tool remains very popular. Its attractions are the 60,000 references to more than 10,000 families found within its covers. Almost any genealogy that was printed prior to 1900 will be found in this book.

Cross-indexed by design, the titles of many books are listed, furnishing the genealogist with information concerning those families on which he wishes to have more data. A volume basic to any genealogical collection!

BIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARIES AND RELATED WORKS (By Robert B. Slocum. Published by the Gale Research Co., 1400 Book Tower, Detroit, Michigan 48226. 1056 pages. Price $20.00.)

This monumental international bibliography, edited by Robert Slocum, the associate catalog librarian at Cornell University, promises to be one of the greatest publications of its kind in our era. Its scope and delightfully presented facts almost stagger the imagination.

The book is divided into three main sections: Universal Biography (including portrait catalogs, collective biographies, etc.); National or Area Biographies (including lists of biographical dictionaries published in 108 countries); Vocational Biography (including those persons found to be famous or noteworthy in a wide variety of human endeavors, such as technologists, artists, writers, educators, etc.)

Any thorough-working genealogist can use this book's contents to good advantage. He might, for instance, discover a biographical sketch of an elusive ancestor of his who was a physician in Caen, France, in the Seventeenth Century. The genealogical possibilities offered through this research book seem limitless.

An entry will read, for example:

"1211. Chambers, Robert, 1802-1871. A biographical dictionary of eminent Scotsmen, originally edited by Robert Chambers. New ed., rev. throughout and continued by Thomas Thomson. London, Blackie, 1870. 3 v. front., part, 25 cm. 1855 ed."

The Gale printers have offered this invaluable book to the public at what seems to be an extremely fair price.

GREENE AND JERSEY COUNTIES, ILLINOIS, VOL. II (By Jean M. Maire, 2717 Ector Road North, Jacksonville, Florida 32211. 39 pages. Price $4.00.)

A handy book, quite interesting, and for anyone with ancestors in these Illinois counties, a very real research aid. The authoress has chosen to incorporate into her book early marriage records, early residents and their places of nativity (a particularly fine feature), court records and a Civil War Roll of Honor.

A well-bound and clean compilation, the entries are listed alphabetically under each topic.

MISSOURI PIONEERS (By Miss Nadine Hodges, Mrs. John Vineyard and Mrs. Howard W. Woodruff, 1968. 124 pages. Order from Mrs. Howard W. Woodruff, 7231 Sycamore, Kansas City, Missouri 64133. Price $5.00.)

A well-bound, conscientiously compiled collection of Missouri genealogy, including the early marriage records of Gasconade County, original land patents of Boone County, assessors' list for 1821 for Ray County, Will Book A for Hickory County, land claims of the Missouri Territory, etc. This book is literally filled with thousands of early Missouri pioneers whose names are in the general index.

THE COUNTRY DOCTOR AND THE SPECIALIST (By Dr. Fred L. Adair, 1968. 215 pages. Order from Fred L. Adair Award, Adair Charities, Inc., P.O. Box 65, Maitland, Florida 32751.)

A wonderful autobiographical sketch written by a noted gynecologist, Dr. F.L. Adair, blending his life's account with that of his father, Dr. Lyman J. Adair of Iowa. The contrasts in the medical practice of the periods in which these two physicians were most active are clearly and well written. The numerous offices held by the writer are explained and show his persistent efforts for improvement in the field of family care and gynecology.

DEAN, MATLOCK, HALE, GAHR FAMILIES IN TENNESSEE AND MISSOURI (By Melba Wood, Box 204, Route 2, Godfrey, Illinois 62035. 21 pages, 1968, Price $3.00.)

This is a family chronicle that shows much promise for a more detailed and more carefully prepared format for the future. As it stands, the mimeographed genealogy gives considerable information on the known descendants of Nicholas Hale of Virginia, Zachariah Matlock of East Tennessee, Moses Dean of North Carolina, and Valentine Gahr of Saxony.

1850 MORTALITY SCHEDULES OF ARKANSAS (Published by Mrs. G.B. McLane and Capitola H. Glazner, Hot Springs, Arkansas 71901. 64 pages, 1968.)

This compactly neat volume is useful to genealogists, Arkansas historians and social scientists. The census enumerators of 1850, 1860, 1870 and 1880 were required to take certain information about those persons who had died a twelvemonth before each census was taken: name of decedent, age, sex, place of birth, month of death, cause of death, county in which death occurred.

In this very useful genealogical tool, the compilers have completely alphabetized the 1850 mortality schedules for Arkansas in a most acceptable manner. They have carefully entered all of the categorical data found on a deceased person, as for example:

"Aaron, James W., 3/12, m, Ark., August, hives, 12 days, Independence."

J. Cook a private of Co. F, 3 & 5th Mo Reg having applied to me for a certificate whereby he may be detailed in the Q.M. department I certify that I have examined said soldier & find that in consequence of lumbago and dislocation of his ankle, and connected with his age (he being 50 years old) is in my opinion unfit for duty in the field & I recomend that he be detailed in the W.M. department as he will be quite an efficient man in that position.

(Copy obtained from the Archives, Nashville, Tennessee)

To the Honorable the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee -

THE PETITION of sundry Inhabitants of Knox County humbly sheweth That their Local situation is such as renders it very inconvenien_ for them to attend the usual place of holding Courts, General Musters, Elections EtCa, some of us having at least from 25 to 40 miles to travel & generally very bad Roads, having sundry large Water-Courses, and Ridges to cross, Your Petitioners humbly conceive that their Grievance might be much alleviated by a division of Knox County in the following manner Viz BEGINNING at the Cross Mountain Where the Knox Line intersects the Indian Boundary Line, Thence with that Line to the River Clinch, Thence _____ Big Valley on a Ridge that divides the waters of Big Buffaloe from those of Little Buffaloe to the Chesnut Ridge, Thence along the extreme height of said Ridge to where the lower Line of the Survey of Henderson ____ crosses the same, Thence along that Line to the Top of the Copper Ridge, Thence along the extreme height of said Ridge to the Mouth of Beaver Crrek & Thence to any point on the Tennessee that you in your wisdom may think proper, Thence along the Indian Boundary Line to the place of Beginning

TENNESSEANS IN TEXAS

(Abstracted by Miss. Barbara J. McNamara)

B. F. YERBY, farmer, Brandon, Texas is one of its earliest settlers in Hill county. He was originally from Wilkinson county, Mississippi, born November 1, 1820, and is a son of William and Elizabeth (White) Yerby, the father a native of Virginia and the mother of Baltimore Maryland. When a young man the elder Yerby belonged to the United States navy, and spent much of his life as a seafaring man. He came to Mississippi in 1808, bore the title of Colonel among the old army and navy officers. His death occurred 1824. Mrs. Yerby was the daughter of Captain Joseph White, of Baltimore, a sea captain, who died on his vessel. At one time his vessel was captured and destroyed by the French, but he returned home, built another one, and he and his two sons sailed away in this, and were never heard from afterward. Of the nine children of Colonel and Mrs. Yerby only one besides our subject is now living, a sister residing in New Orleans when last heard from. Agricultural pursuits have been B. F. Yerby's calling in life. In 1886 he came to Texas, located his home in Hill county. Mr. Yerby was married to Miss Catherine S. Gildart, who was born December 9, 1826, and who was a daughter of Judge Francis Gildart, of Tennessee. Judge Gildart was of English descent, and one of the prominent men of his day. He was a lawyer by profession, and served as Judge for twenty-five or thirty years. When he first settled in Mississippi he followed farming for some time, but finally abandoned that and confined himself to his law practice. He came to Texas in 1867, located first in Burnet county, but moved from there to Austin, where his last days were spent. Mr. and Mrs. Yerby had seven children, one of whom died in infancy. The others were named as follows: Cornelia C., died when seventeen years of age; Mary J., married W. J. Rochelle, a farmer of Hill county; Alice C., married C. W. Riley (deceased), and she is now residing in Hillsboro; Louise married H. Beatty, and now resides near home; John J. is a cotton buyer, of Hillsboro; and Elizabeth is the widow of R.K. Finch, and resides on a farm in Hill county. The mother of these children died July 4, 1860. (p594-5)

A. MASON, of Hill Co., was born in Tenn. May 3, 1842, a son of J.E. and Mahala Mason, natives of Va. and S.C. respectively. The parents both died in Tennessee, the father in 1879, and the mother in 1889. They had eight children, our subject being the fourth child, and the only one living in Texas. The latter remained with his parents until coming to Texas in 1867, settling first in Ellis Co. Two years later he removed to this county. He is now residing at Irene, for the purpose of schooling his children. In 1861 Mr. Mason enlisted in the Confederate army in Co. C, 23rd Tenn. Regiment. He was married, in 1870, to Miss Betty Graham, who was born Sept. 13, 1845, a daughter of William and Sally Graham, natives of N.C. The parents came to Texas in 1853, first settling in Washington Co., and later in Hill Co., where the father died in 1881. The mother is still living, at the age of eighty-nine years, and makes her home with her son. Mr. and Mrs. Mason have had seven children, namely: Robert, born July 23, 1871, is at home; John F., born Oct. 3, 18__; Joseph F., Dec. 15, 1876; N.K., Dec. 29, 1880; S.M., Sept. 3, 1883; Charles A., Jan. 17, 1886; and Hettie, July 8, 1888. (p598)

THOMAS F. MASTIN, of Hill Co., was born in Huntsville, Madison Co., Ala., in 1851, a son of Gustavus L. and Mary E. (Fearn) Mastin. The mother is a daughter of Dr. Thomas and Sallie (Shelby) Fearn. The father was a member of the Confederate Congress, from Huntsville, Alabama, and was one of the leading scientific physicians of the State. The paternal grandfather of our subject, Francis T. Mastin, was a native of Virginia, an early settler of north Alabama, a merchant and planter by occupation, a large slave-owner, and a Captain of the war of 1812. His wife was formerly Miss Arabella Hogue, of Virginia. Mr. Mastin came to Ala. (Madison Co.) in a very early day, and reared a family of six children, namely: William, a prominent member of the bar at Huntsville, Alabama; Frank, deceased, was the wife of Dr. Edmund Irby, also of

Huntsville; James H., a prominent merchant, president of the bank, and now retired to private life; Gustavus L., deceased, the father of our subject; C.H., a prominent Physician of Mobile, Ala. Gustavus L. Mastin, father of our subject, was born in Va. in 1815, and afterward removed to Ala. with his father. In 1880, at the age of 65 years, Mr. Mastin died. He and his wife reared a family of six children, viz.: Arabella; Thomas F., our subject; Francis T., a real-estate agent of Huntsville, Ala.; Gustavus L., a planter of Madison Co.; Sallie, deceased, was the wife of Eugene Bruckner, of Atlanta, Ga.; and James H., a commission merchant of Huntsville. The maternal grandparents of our subject were natives of Ala. and Tenn., and Mrs. Fearn was a descendant of the old Shelby family of the latter State. The paternal grandparents were natives of England, France and Scotland. T.F. Mastin was educated at the University of Va., at Charlottesville, was appointed Secretary of the Supreme Court of Ala., which position he held seven years. Mr. Mastin was admitted to practice in all courts of the State in 1877. In 1883, he resigned his position and went to Huntsville, Ala. In 1886, he sold out there, and moved to Hill Co., Texas. Our subject was married in 1878, to Miss Mary I. Bate, of Tenn., and a daughter of ex-Governor, and the present Senator, W.B. and Julia (Peete) Bate, natives of Tennessee and Alabama. Mr. and Mrs. Bate are the parents of four children: Mary I., wife of our subject; Jennie, deceased at the age of twelve years; Belle, who died at the age of five years; and Susie, wife of O.W. Childs, of Los Angeles, Calif. The grandfather of Mrs. Mastin, James H. Bate, was a native of N.C., and was a prominent planter of Tenn. The grandmother, nee Amanda F. Weatherred, was born in Kentucky, of English and Scotch-Irish parentage. Mr. and Mrs. Mastin have two children: William B., born Nov. 18, 1879; and Mary E., born May 1, 1882. (p599-601)

JACOB O. INGLE, one of the pioneer settlers of Johnson and Ellis Cos., was born in Lincoln Co., Tenn., Feb. 21, 1816, a son of Peter and Jane (Odom) Ingle, natives of Ga., The parents came to Tenn. and were among the first settlers of Lincoln Co., The father moved from Tenn. to Ala. in 1816, settling in Jefferson Co., near Birmingham where he resided eleven years. He then removed to Walker Co., where he remained until his death, November 14, 1849. The mother of our subject died in Dec. 1816. THE BOOK CORNER (Continued from Page 120)

Anson and Wake counties in North Carolina, of Pickens County, Alabama, and Marshall County, Mississippi. Besides being a valuable compilation of Harris abstracts, these neatly bound volumes contain much witty humor in some of the oldest Harris anecdotes.

MISSISSIPPI RECORDS: MONROE COUNTY, VOLUME 2 (Compiled by Mrs. Elizabeth C. Jones, Aberdeen, Mississippi 39730. 131 pages, 1968.)

The compiler has completely abstracted the wills of Monroe County for the 1860-1885 period. Each entry is identified by Testator, book of record, date, and then follows a good abstract of the instrument. The Deed Books have been searched for all Deeds of Gift, and these usually show the family relationships. A third section contains abstracts of deeds naming grantor and grantee and the residence of each. The book has two indices with a very few mistakes and omissions. Otherwise this mimeographed book of abstracts is an extremely fine secondary source.
