THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Members and Subscribers:

The Society receives numerous questions by mail. We would like to use this page to answer as many of them as possible in order to conserve paper and postage. The following are the subjects about which we receive most of the inquiries.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are $6.00 per calendar year, and cover four quarters--Spring, Summer, Fall, and Winter. Subscribers, who send in money at any time during the year, receive all issues for that year. Not all subscribers are members of the Tennessee Genealogical Society, as membership in the Society is limited to the Memphis Metropolitan area.

BACK ISSUES may be ordered for an entire year for $6.00; single quarters are NOT sold.

QUERIES are free to subscribers, but are limited to one per year, 50 words per query. Additional queries may be published if space permits.

TABLES OF CONTENTS, showing what has been published in back issues, are free upon request with self-addressed, stamped, 4½ x 9½ inch envelope.

SURNAME INDEX is voluminous. Requests for information from this file (with SASE) must be limited to FOUR surnames per request. Information includes names and addresses of those working on the same line.

The Society does NOT do research.

SURNAME INDEX OF 1967 SEMINAR is out of print. Surname Index for 1969 is in plentiful supply.

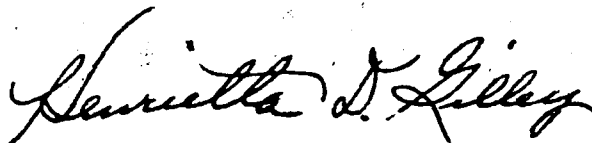

FIVE GENERATION CHARTS (sample in this issue), filled out and returned to the Society, may result in contact with someone working on your line. We do NOT furnish blank charts.

A SELF-ADDRESSED, STAMPED ENVELOPE must be included in correspondence with the Society if an answer is expected.

"ANSEARCHIN'" NEWS COVERS can no longer be sold separately. One cover is furnished with the first issue of every Volume.

We hope this will be helpful information for readers.

Sincerely,

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

"ANSEARCHIN'" NEWS begins its twenty-first year of publication with a new editor; but, fortunately for all concerned, the former editor, Augusta Brough, is still serving as Associate Editor. Her fine work, along with that of previous capable editors, has maintained a standard of excellence and produced a steady growth in the number of subscribers. We are grateful for the hours given by our volunteer staff and our contributors, and we trust that the magazine will continue in its fine tradition. It is our desire to print what you want to read, so if you have a request for information from a particular county, we would be glad to hear from you.

TISHOMINGO COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI MARRIAGE BONDS AND MINISTER'S RETURNS 1842-1861

Compiled and indexed by Thomas P. Hughes, Jr. and Jewel B. Standefer 1973.

Soft covers. Over 217 pages. Order from Mr. Thomas P. Hughes, Jr.,

4140 Chanwil Avenue, Memphis, Tennessee 38117. $15.00

Old Tishomingo County, Miss. was erected Feb. 9, 1836, from lands ceded to the U.S. Government by the Chickasaw Indians, on April 15, 1832. Eighty-six sections of land from Tippah County were added, and this new territory was divided into Tishomingo, Alcorn, and Prentiss Counties. The courthouse at Corinth, county seat of Alcorn County, houses many of the records of Old Tishomingo County. Some miscellaneous records are still in the old courthouse at Iuka, the original county seat. The grooms are arranged alphabetically, and the brides indexed separately. A list of ministers and/or officials is included.

THE ROMANCE OF THE LONDON DIRECTORY by Charles Warerling Bardsley, London, 1879.

Republished by Gryphon Books, Ann Arbor, Michigan 1971. Hard covers. Over 162 pages. Not indexed. Order from Gale Research Company, Book Tower, Detroit, Michigan 48226. $12.50.

Charles Bardsley was a leading authority in the 19th century on nomenclature. The origins of English surnames was prepared by a diligent examination of the London Directory for the earliest form of a surname. Various forms and conceptions of all types of personal names are discussed. The book deals with individualization and localization, divisions of London surnames, early pet names, the Bible and nomenclature, occupational names, and nicknames. Many historical sidelights on the development of English surnames are in the survey.

Company, Book Tower, Detroit, Michigan 48226. $13.50.

The book has many photographs and drawings of famous buildings, monuments, and scenes of Old New England. The author takes the reader over historic roads and brings to life early homesteads in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and New Hampshire. Towns described are Boston, Lexington, Concord, Tynesborough, Lynn, Andover, Byfield Parish, Hampton, Portsmouth, Jamaica Plain, Plymouth, Newport, Providence, as well as many other localities in the three colonies. This collection of legends and chronicles of 17th and 18th century authors and travellers makes an intriguing story.

Gale Research Company, Book Tower, Detroit, Michigan 48220. $13.50.

The chapters of the book arranged by towns, localities, and villages treat the lore of such places as Stockbridge, Saybrook, Lyme, Norwich, Sag Harbor, New Haven, Lenox, Litchfield, Shelter Island, and Tyringham. Chief landmarks and historical events are listed in each chapter.

CATALOGUE OF THE GENEALOGICAL AND HISTORICAL LIBRARY OF THE COLONIAL DAMES OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK compiled by Miss L. Green, 1912. Republished by Gryphon Books, a division of Gale Research Company, 1971. Hard backs. Over 518 pages. The Catalogue is alphabetized. Order from Gale Research Company, Book Tower, Detroit, Michigan 48226. $28.50.

Approximately 7500 items are listed alphabetically by the authors of the works or by surnames of families. There are many subject listings and numerous cross-references.

RECONSTRUCTED CENSUS 1774-1810 OF BERKELEY COUNTY, VIRGINIA (now West Virginia) by Max W. Grove, 1970. Soft covers. Over 110 pages. Indexed. Order from Mr. Max W. Grove, 50 Bonifant Road, Silver Springs, Md. 20904. $7.50.

This is the first issue of a quarterly magazine dedicated to local and genealogical history. The information for this book has been taken from five different sources, none of which is an actual census. The index covers about 30 years of Berkeley County history. The inhabitants are listed both by surname and given name. The publication has a Rent Roll and several lists of tithables. Berkeley is now in West Virginia.

THE 1820 CENSUS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR BERKELEY COUNTY, VIRGINIA by Max W. Grove, 1968. Soft covers. Over 80 pages. Indexed. Order from American Museum, Mr. Max W. Grove, 50 Bonifant Road, Silver Springs, Md., 20904. $5.00.

This book is number 3 in a series of 10, spanning 1780-1890. The census for Berkeley County (now West Virginia) is divided into sections for Martinsburg, Darkesville, Middletown (Gerrardstown) and the rest of the county. A large part of Morgan County was taken from Berkeley County in 1820. Therefore, part of the 1810 census will not be in the 1820 census as Berkeley County.

THE 1810 CENSUS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR BERKELEY COUNTY, VIRGINIA by Max W. Grove, 1967. Soft covers. Over 89 pages. Listings are alphabetized. Order from American Museum, Mr. Max W. Grove, 50 Bonifant Road, Silver Springs, Md. 20904 $7.50

This book is the second in a series of 10, spanning 1780-1890. The book contains an 1809 map of Berkeley County (now in West Virginia). Morgan County, Virginia was formed in 1820 from Berkeley and Hampshire Counties. This census will, therefore, contain a large portion of what is now Morgan County.

SUPPLEMENT TO LIVELYS OF AMERICA 1972 compiled by Dr. John F. Valentine, 1973. Hard backs. Over 200 pages. Indexed. Order from Mr. A. D. Lively, President, National Association of Lively Families of America, Route 1, Box 71-b, Butler, Alabama 36904. $8.00.

The supplement makes corrections of errors in printing and in facts presented in Livelys of America, makes deletions where appropriate, provides additional information, and provides a personal name index for both the Supplement and the original publication.

WILLIAM BEAN PIONEER OF TENNESSEE AND HIS DESCENDANTS by Jamie Ault Grady, 1973. Hard covers. Over 350 pages. Indexed. Order from Jamie Ault Grady, 4404 Holston Drive, Knoxville, Tennessee 37914. $12.50.

Jamie Ault Grady has put together a tremendous genealogy of the famous William Bean family of Tennessee. William Bean built Bean Station, the famous crossroads of the Daniel Boone Trail into Kentucky (Wilderness Trail) and the New Orleans-Baltimore stagecoach road (Rutledge Pike). From Russell Bean, the first white child born in Tennessee, and his six brothers and sister, has descended the famous Bean Family of Tennessee. Bean Station was in old Washington County. This is a rich, historical and factual genealogy of this great East Tennessee family.

CORRECTION!

THE MIDDLETON FAMILY (INCLUDING MYDDELTON AND MYDDLETON) by Beth Bland Engel was incorrectly listed in the last issue of Ansearchin' News. We regret this error. Mrs. Engel is the editor of a new quarterly, The HUXFORD GENEALOGICAL QUARTERLY, which will continue the publication of the work of Judge Folks Huxford of Georgia. Best wishes to her in her new endeavor!

THE FILE BOX
by Jerry Blair (Mrs. W. R.)

Would you like to know more about some of your forebears? We recommend the book by Governor Gilmer called GEORGIANS reprinted in 1926 by the Americus Book Company of Americus, Georgia. It contains sketches of some of the first settlers of Upper Georgia and is written in a chatty entertaining style. In Gilmer's introduction he states that the first part of his book is an account of the settlement made by a number of Virginia families on Broad River, Georgia, immediately after the Revolutionary War. He gives an unvarnished story of many of these settlers whose descendants are now spread over the entire nation and especially the Southern states. Some of the families mentioned and written up in detail are: Harvies, Clarkes, Meriwethers, Taliaferros, Gilmers, Mathewes, Barnetts, Crawfords, Johnsons, Jordans, and McGehees. Practically every family has descendants living in Tennessee today. All emigrated from Virginia to Broad River in Georgia at different times from 1783 to 1790. The second part of the book describes the settlement made by North Carolinians into that part of Georgia which is now included in the counties of Wilkes and Lincoln. Many were prominent among the southern people in the struggle for independence. He mentions as particularly distinguished Clarke, Dooly, Hart, Jack, and Dabney. These sketches were drawn chiefly from the author's intimate social knowledge of his kinfolks and neighbors. Most libraries (genealogical) will have a copy of this book. Original copies are available in the Birmingham Public Library and the Alabama Archives Library in Montgomery, Alabama.

A reader sends in the following list of persons who give as their birthplace the state of Tennessee in the 1850 Lowndes County, Alabama Census Schedule:

In a recent letter, Mrs. Beck has added information of the Randle-Roper Family. "Sarah Alice (Randle) Manly was the daughter of Peyton and Lucy Roper Randle of Montgomery County, North Carolina. The Randle family was prominent in the history of Montgomery County from the beginning - were, as a matter of fact, instrumental in forming the county (from Anson), and were allied by marriage, politics, and business with the grandparents of Gov. Isham Harris of Tennessee. James Roper Randle, the first mayor of Paris, Tennessee, was a brother of Sarah Alice Randle Manly, and he married Sarah Hogan, a granddaughter of Richard Manly, Sr."

GRISSOM (GRISHAM) FAMILY OF HENDERSON COUNTY, TENN.
from information submitted by Deward Kizer Grissom

Mr. Deward K. Grissom is descended from Wilson Cager Grisham, b. N.C. 1802, who married (1824) Christina Smith, b. N.C. 1802. They were married in Lauderdale County, Ala., and came to Henderson County, Tenn. within the year. In early records the surname was frequently spelled "Grisham". According to some authorities, this was done intentionally to designate the Southern Whig branch of the family. Absalom Grissom was the son of Wilson C. and Christina S. Grisham.

Edited by Betsy F. West

GSA reference: Jonathan Tipton W-1098 BLWT-36523-160-55 - applied from Overton County, Tennessee

Affidavit of Major Jonathan Tipton, dated October 29, 1832:

Major Jonathan Tipton is a resident of Overton County, Tennessee, aged 82 years, states he entered the service of the United States as a volunteer and served, as follows: February, 1777, he was commissioned 1st Magr in Washington County, then the State of North Carolina, now Tennessee, the place of his then residence; he took command of the companies commanded by Captain Gibson and Capt Trimble; he was placed under the command of Colonel Carter and was engaged in guarding the frontier of North Carolina; that Colonel Carter was shortly thereafter promoted to command of General and he continued under the command of General Carter until 1780; he commanded an expedition against the Indians and had battle at the mouth of Flat Creek on Chucky River. He was then placed under the command of General Campbell and marched to Kings Mountain and was in that battle, he thinks it was fought in the fall of 1780; General Isaac Shelby, General John Sevier, General Cleveland were also in the battle, with all of whom affiant was acquainted. He was then placed under the command of General Sevier and marched to the head of Boyds Creek, where the army met a large body of Indians, with whom an engagement took place. He was wounded in that battle in the left arm. He marched against the Indian Towns, then marched to the aid of General Greene in Southearts (?) line under General Sevier and joined General Greene's army at Santee river and remained there until the capture of Cornwallis in September, 1781. He was acquainted with General Green, General Marion, General Mayham, General Sumpter, General Lee, Colonel Morgan, and Colonel Valentine Sevier. He was there discharged in the latter part of September, 1781, and his discharge was signed by Generals Green and Marion. He continued to serve in the army of the United States as Majr from the time he first entered until he was discharged; his discharge, with various other papers, was stolen from him about 10 years ago, but he can prove his services as stated herein by Abraham Sevier and _____.

Questions and Answers: Major Tipton was born in Frederick County, Virginia, in 1750, and there is a record of his age at his son's in Bunkum (Buncombe) County, North Carolina, "in my father's old Bible;" he was living in Washington County, then N.C., when he volunteered, where he continued to live 17 years after the war, and then moved into Bunkum County, North Carolina, and lived there about 27 years, then moved to Overton County, where he has lived ever since. He was commissioned 1st Majr and the commission was signed by Richard Caswell, stolen from him, with the other papers, at Babbs in Green County, Tennessee. People in present neighborhood who can testify as to his character for veracity and good behaviour, services, etc.: Smith Ferrell, Abraham Sevier, Steven Lowell, Jacob Dillen, Esq., attorney at law, Joseph Griffin.

Then follow the affidavits of Smith Ferrell and Abraham Sevier, of Overton County, Tennessee, who state that they have known Major Jonathan Tipton for upwards of 60 years, and Smith Ferrell states that he served under Major Tipton for "near" two years and states positively that he served his country in the Revolutionary War faithfully.

Family Notes by Augusta Brough:

William Rogers spent some time in Henry County, Tenn. while on his way from N.C. to Shelby County, Tenn. He married Ann Brown and they had four children: Cullen, Theophilus, Frances and Magelbra. Cullen's wife was Elizabeth Jernigan. It is said by relatives that some of their children went to Texas. The Cullen Rogers family Bible appeared in Mid-South Bible Records, Vol. I, published by Fort Assumption Chapter, DAR, Memphis, Tenn. Mrs. Brough is descended from Magelbra Rogers, who married Nancy B. Staten. Their daughter Roxanna married Thomas Allen, Jr. The Rogers family lived close-by the Coles, and Irene Cole married William T.

Allen, grandson of Magelbra. Records of this marriage and their children's names appear in the Roxanna Rogers and Thomas Allen (Jr.) Bible, also published in Vol. I of Mid-South Bible Records.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

CORRECTION

"Ansearchin'" News has received a letter from Mrs. P. B. Price, of Austin, Texas, with reference to the Moores family as published in Vol. 20, No. 2, page 89, and Vol. 20, No. 4, page 153. Mrs. Price adds that Goodspeed's History states that John B. Luster, son-in-law of James B. Moores was editor of the Carthage Mirror. She also noted that the information was obtained from the back of the Smith Co. Marriage Book, not the Lawrence Co. Marriage Book, as printed. We appreciate Mrs. Price's interest.

THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Members and Subscribers:

WHAT THE MASTER SURNAME INDEX IS The MASTER SURNAME INDEX is one of The Tennessee Genealogical Society's efforts to aid you in your family research. The Index contains more than 25,000 cards, representing individuals found in the family trees of our members and subscribers. Our file is not restricted to any particular locality, but covers families who lived in various European countries and in every state of the United States.

HOW TO USE INDEX Members and subscribers may request information from this file by writing to The Tennessee Genealogical Society, Post Office Box 12124, Memphis, Tennessee 38112. Requests are LIMITED TO FOUR SURNAMES PER REQUEST. A SELF-ADDRESSED, STAMPED ENVELOPE MUST accompany each request. ONLY MEMBERS AND SUBSCRIBERS MAY USE THIS SERVICE.

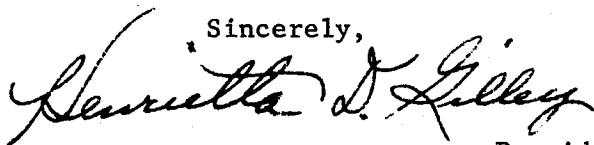

WHAT YOU RECEIVE Information sent you from this file includes data from the card and names and addresses of those working on the same line. WE DO NOT DO FAMILY RESEARCH. The only information we can send you is the data on the cards in the Master Surname Index.

SEND IN YOUR CARDS You can help make this file more effective by sending us a 3 x 5 inch file card for EACH member of your family tree to be added to this Master Index. Cards should be typed or printed.

WHAT TO PUT ON CARDS Please follow the outline of a sample card below in preparing your cards. Each card should contain at least one date and one place, even if they are estimated or guessed. This will enable us to determine that a person who lived in one area in the 17th century is a different person from someone (with the same name) who lived in another area in the 19th century.

We hope that you will find this Index helpful, and also that you will share your family information by sending in cards on your family.

Sincerely,

President

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

'Tis the season for vacations, and genealogists are no exception to the rule. So while you're back home visiting Tenn.-connected relatives, remember "Ansearchin'" appreciates your copying and submitting family cemetery and Bible records. We do have a policy of publishing only pre-Civil War dates, except in cases where the persons concerned are descendants of the earlier dated persons. All family records submitted, no matter how late the date, are filed in our library for future reference; however, search there is the responsibility of the individual.

And speaking of files, the Breckinridge Co. (Ky.) Public Library has a RESEARCHER'S INDEX of persons willing to share information on historical or genealogical topics. Counties included are Breckinridge, Grayson, Hancock, Hardin, Meade, Nelson and Ohio in Ky., and Crawford, Harrison and Perry in Indiana. Anyone can be listed by sending name, address, and list of interests (please specify county) to Researcher's Index, c/o D. L. Bolin, Breckinridge Co. Public Library, Hardinsburg, KY 40143. If reply is requested, please send SASE. Family records for research files are most welcome.

PITTSYLVANIA COUNTY VIRGINIA ABSTRACTS OF WILLS 1786-1800

Compiled and indexed by Thomas P. Hughes, Jr. and Jewel B. Standefer. 1973. Soft covers. Over 141 pages. Order from Thomas P. Hughes, Jr., 4140 Chanwil Ave., Memphis, Tennessee 38117. $11.00.

The abstracts found in this publication were carefully copied by Kathleen Booth Williams from the original Will and Deed Books of Pittsylvania County, Va. The compilers have retained the colorful vernacular of the times and all the misspellings. The earliest record of a will was ca. 1768. The names of Testators and those of all persons mentioned, relationships, places of residence, locations of land and former places of residence are faithfully reproduced.

THE HOUSE OF CRAVENS by Ruth H. McConathy. 1972. Hard covers. Over 372 pages. Indexed. Order from Hallmark Services, P.O. Box 566, Charlottesville, Va. 22902. $15.00

The volume is an historical and genealogical work on both the English and American lines of the Cravens family, dating from the 12th century to the present. Allied family histories have been followed as far as possible, such as Cabell, Davis, Earle, Field, Fry, Goodrich, Hallmark, Harrison, Hopkins, Lightfoot, Rives, Settle, Slaughter, Thornton, Townsend, Walker, Wright and many others. Material on these families has been gathered from libraries, county records & cemeteries in New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Virginia, Kentucky, and the Carolinas. This is a very elaborate and thorough genealogical record.

OLD STONE FORT by Alexander Kocsis, edited by Betty Anderson Bridgewater 1973. Soft covers. Over 55 pages. Indexed. Order from Mrs. John R. Bridgewater, Pres. Coffee County Historical Society, P.O. Box 524, Manchester, Tenn. 37355. $5.50.

"Old Stone Fort" is an historical and archeological find of extreme rarity and good luck. That such a scholarly exposition was preserved and returned to cir-culatation is fortunate. The Coffee County Historical Society is to be commended. The genealogical information concerning the Kocsis, Calcote, Overton and Anderson families and the biographical section should interest many people as well as Alexander Kocsis' story, theory and description of the 'Old Stone Fort' and its builders, the 'Turtle Nation'.

THE HUNTER FAMILY OF BEDFORD COUNTY, VIRGINIA by Judge Walter M. Hunter 1973.

Hard backs. Over 258 pages. Indexed. Six illustrations. Order from Hunter Book Fund, 546 Old Academy Road, Fairfield, Conn. 06430 $15.00.

Judge Hunter died in 1969, but his book was prepared for publication by Dorothy Ford Wulfeck, Genealogy Editor for the Va. Gazette. The book was one of those intended to furnish material on early families of the South. It begins with a record of Alexander Hunter, Regulator leader of N.C. His son, Samuel, a distinguished soldier of the War of 1812 and an early figure in Texas History, was given special emphasis. Also noted are Pleasant Hunter, who established the family in Central La., the 1955 family reunion which was held at Eden Plantation in La., and allied families of Ketcher, Daniel, Ford, Prince, and Barry (Berry).

THE MCCLENDON'S, THE MACLENNON, MACKCLENDEN, MCCLENDON AND MCLENDON, a family history of the McClendon family as compiled by T. A. McClendon 1973. Hard covers. Over 418 pages. Indexed. Order from T. A. McClendon, 3301 Pacific Ave., Stockton, California 95204. $11.00.

Genealogists have reported that records have been found showing that John Macklennon of Scotland was the father of Dennis Sr., the emigrant who came to N.C. early in January 1696. Dennis' wife, Elizabeth, came with him. She was the mother of Brient, Dennis, Francis, Thomas, and probably of Isaac and Jacob, believed to be older brothers. From North Carolina the McClendons moved with the tide of immigration through the southern and western states and finally throughout the nation. The author has recorded 13 generations of family history, a notable accomplishment.

SCOTTISH BURGH AND COUNTY HERALDRY by R. M. Urquhart 1973. Hard covers. Over 224 pages. Indexed. Order from Gale Research Co., Book Tower, Detroit, Mich. 48226. $28.50.

The book contains an analytical table of contents, footnotes, drawings, appendix, bibliography, reference notes and a map of Scotland. The author has based his study on official files, correspondence with town and county clerks, local histories, newspapers and private enquiries. A record of some Scottish tradition is found in the first two parts, in which sixteen essays treat the history and development of the Burgh system and the counties with attention given to their heraldic achievements. Part three contains a detailed study of the coats of arms of 177 of the 201 Burghs and all 33 of the county councils. The 24 seals used by the 24 non-armigerous Burghs are also discussed. The author has produced a very descriptive and useful publication.

A project originally intended as a search for early Mart and related family death dates was expanded by Larry Mart into a regional genealogical effort. Someone should thank Mr. Mart for his book. Newspapers he searched were The Democrat and Herald, The Herald of Freedom, and The Clinton, which were published on Friday of every week at Wilmington, Ohio. The original newspapers are in the Courthouse in Wilmington. They contain four pages, with the first two generally covering national news. Pages three and four generally reported local news and advertisements. There is no set page for the death and obituary notices.

THE NUTT FAMILY THROUGH THE YEARS, 1635-1973. By Merle C. Nutt. Hard covers. Over 271 pages. Indexed. Order from Dr. Merle C. Nutt, 2115 West Edgemont Ave., Phoenix, Arizona 85008 $10.00.

The Nutt family is of English extraction from the counties of York, Kent, Sussex, Gloucester and London and vicinity. The name originated from the baptismal name of Cnut, originally Canute, and has many variations in spelling. James Nutt (ca 1631) came to America from England and settled at Dover, New Hampshire ca 1635. Miles Nutt settled in James City County, Va. in 1636. Many others of the name arrived thereafter. This family has produced members who contributed much to the formation of the nation, and the author has well marked their efforts.

The name Bledsoe originated in England, Bedfordshire and Northumberland. The first Bledsoes came to America in 1639 and established themselves in Virginia. George Bledsoe lived in Northumberland County, Va. in 1674. His will is recorded in the Culpeper Co., Va. Will Book A - 1749-1770. The Bledsoes emigrated to North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia, then onward to the Southwest and westward. This vigorous family's name is found among those who developed the new land. Many, many genealogical references are contained in this work.

MAJOR FRANCIS WRIGHT AND ANN WASHINGTON WITH ALLIED FAMILIES by Anne Read Ritchie. Soft covers. Over 336 pages. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Anne Read Ritchie, 13360 S. E. Oatfield Road, Milwaukie, Oregon 97222 $12.50.

This biography is one of the most fascinating family stories the reviewer has ever had the pleasure of reading. He recognizes the tremendous amount of research necessary to compile this record, and its extensive probe into the genealogy of the Royalty of England and of Europe is amazing. The author has traced the branches of her family through well-known American ancestry back to England and to several Royal families which intermarried with the Royal families of Europe. This is a family history which contains much colonial and English genealogy.

His parents were Isaac and Peachy Norvall Hudson. His 7 brothers and sisters were all born in Ala. He married 1st Ruth Julia McDaniel Dec. 10, 1844; to them were born 4 children. NEBRASKA PIONEER, WILLIAM BUTLER, Ancestors and Descendants by Melda Haynes Shippey 1973. Hard backs. Over 166 pages. Indexed (general and place name). Order from Polyanthos, Inc., Cottonport, La. 71327 $15.00.

He and his wife, Jane Starr Butler, left St. Lawrence County, New York in 1855 to settle and farm in Summit Township, Marion County, Iowa, where was listed in the U.S. Census for 1860. The Colorado gold rush occurred about this time and William got the 'fever'. He went to Colorado and staked a claim, then returned to Iowa and set out to the gold fields with his family. For some reason he stopped on the way and filed claim for land in Nebraska, where he reared a family of 11 children. The author has a chapter in her book for each of these children and their descendants. About 45 allied families are listed, including over 2000 persons and 740 place names. The author has included a selected Bibliography, an appendix with Butler and Starr pedigrees, wills, estate inventories, and other important records relating to this pioneer family and the many related families.

THE FILE BOX

A reader sends in some early Catholic records of baptisms at Memphis in 1839: Children of Basil and Catherine (Spaeh) Rapp; Michael and Mary (Murphy) Leonard; Patrick R. and Henrietta Bordley; and William and Pauline (Phipps) Prince. The sponsors were Francis Scheller, Balina Prince, Catherine Calfield, P. McKeon, and Sophia Phobus. Father Clancy married Eugene Magevney and Mary Smyth on May 31, 1840, in perhaps the first Catholic ceremony in Memphis. It took place in the Magevney home, which still stands on Adams Avenue, near St. Peter's Church.

Father McAleer's first recorded baptism was that of Mary, the first child of Mr. and Mrs. Magevney, who afterwards became a Dominican Sister. The date was February 24, 1841. Other baptisms in the same year were of the children of Edward and Drusilla (Cherry) Read; John and Margaret (Clancy) Conagham; Thomas and Catherine (McCabe) Hogan; James and Mary (Gorman) Green; William and Margaret (Brady) McKeon; James and Mary (Warfel) McNamee; John and Margaret (Poland) Burke; and James and Annora (Hooligan) Nugent. The sponsors were Joseph A. White, Catherine Shaller, William and Mary (Dunn) English, James Kennedy and wife, Mary Larkin, William Bradshaw, Mary Conaghan, Patrick McKeon, Patrick Farrell, Michael Gaffney and wife, James and Mary (Quinn) O'Brien, Robert Burke, Mrs. Michael Kiely, and a Mr. Jones.

In 1842, parents of children baptized were: Frederic and Margaret (Bonninger) Udwig; Michael and Bridget (Handlon) Power; William and Mary (Quinlan) Irwin; Michael B. and Margaret (Murphy) Martin; Francis and Bridget (Foley) Coffey; John and Bridget (O'Connor) Burke; M. and Mary Agnes (Snyder) Miller; and Rudolph and Elizabeth (Armstrong) Davis. Godparents were Patrick Golden, Mrs. Davern, Thomas Costigan, Bridget Powers, Denis Kerby, Mary McCarthy, Thomas McKeon, John McMahon, Mary Haley, Bridget Archer, John Carroll, Joseph C. and Mary Ursula Snyder, Michael McNamara, Ann Reagan, and Peter Connolly and wife.

On October 29, 1841, Father McAleer received a deed from John Claybrook: "... deem it a pleasing duty to record . . . the magnanimous fact that the Church lot was in part donated to our Bishop for the Catholic congregation worshipping at Memphis, by the acting agent (Mr. Claybrook) of the heirs of Judge Overton's estate, the nominal price required by the agent being five hundred dollars, which our Protestant brethren very generously paid." (Records of St. Peter's) Henry and William Irwin had the contract for the woodwork; the firm of Hickman and Austin received that for the masonry. D. Morison was the architect. Simultaneously with the church, which faced on Third Street, Father McAleer built a rectory which stood at the rear of the church and fronted on Adams Avenue. Hardly had the church been completed than it was realized that it was much too small. In the CATHOLIC TELEGRAPH of Cincinnati, December 18, 1852, we read: "The Catholics of Memphis, Tennessee, are about to erect one of the most splendid edifices west of the Alleghanies . . . It is to have two towers, each one hundred feet high, surmounted by a chime of bells." (From records donated to the Tennessee Archives by Catherine Magevney Hamilton.)

Among the most noted additions to the Catholic community in Memphis was a nephew of Bishop Miles - Dr. George Murphy, a successful physician. The Catholic Advocate of January 24, 1846, notes his marriage: "Dr. George Murphy of Memphis, Tennessee, to Miss Mary Ann McManus of Bardstown, Kentucky, in the latter place on January 15."
