HISTORY OF TODD COUNTY, KENTUCKY edited by J. H. Battle. 1884. Reprint 1979 with new material. Hard back. 373 pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, % Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., P. O. Box 738, Easley, S. C. 29640. $30.00.

Todd, birthplace of Jefferson Davis, head of the Southern Confederacy, was formed in 1819 from Christian and Logan. At present day it is bordered by these two and Muhlenburg on the north. It is situated on the Tennessee line on the eastern border of Southwest Kentucky. Very interesting reading occupies the first half of this volume and is interspersed with HUNDREDS of surnames. Twenty lined but blank pages are placed in the middle for the new owner to write in "historical events occurring subsequent to the publication of this work". Following this are special biographies of persons living in the various precincts. EWG.

1860 FEDERAL CENSUS OF COFFEE COUNTY, TENNESSEE compiled by Betty Anderson Bridgewater. 1980. Soft back. 170 pp. Indexed. Order from Coffee County Historical Society, P. O. Box 524, Manchester, Tennessee 37355. $11.00.

The compiler assures the reader that this Federal Census record varies somewhat from that usually published since a considerable effort was made to augment the information contained in several ways. It was compared with schedules for slaves, mortality, taxes, and agriculture; it was found that many names were very different. It is suggested that the enumerator had poor vision and atrocious handwriting! So in a special column, after the householder's name, often appears notice that one should also check one of the other aforementioned schedules. EWG.

BIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARIES MASTER INDEX: FIRST SUPPLEMENT. Edited by Miranda C. Herbert and Barbara McNeil. Gale Biographical Index Series Number 1. Order from Gale Research Company, Book Tower, Detroit, Michigan 48226. Soft back. $72.00.

This is the first of a series of paperbound updates to Biographical Dictionaries Master Index 1975-76. Emphasis of the works indexed is on living persons who are prominent in the United States and Canada. However, all names in an indexed work are listed in BDMI whether living or deceased, whether American or not. There is no need to consult the work itself if the desired name is not shown by BDMI and its supplements, since it has been editorial policy to index every name found in a particular book. Years of birth and death are included as found in the source works. Among books indexed by BDMI are works on persons in the theater, music, politics, business, civil rights, literature, law, finance, and industry. EDS.

MARRIAGE AND DEATH NOTICES FROM THE LUTHERAN OBSERVER 1831-1861, AND THE SOUTHERN LUTHERAN 1861-1865 by Brent H. Holcomb. 1979. Hard back. 233 pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, % Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., P.O. Box 738, Easley, S. C. 29640. $22.50.

The Lutheran Observer published marriage and death notices for members of the Lutheran and German Reformed churches from many states for thirty years. It was published in Baltimore. The Southern Lutheran, the only Lutheran Newspaper published in the Confederacy, was published in Charleston and Columbia, S. C. A typical excerpt shows the significant information given. "Died, from the effects of his wounds received in the battle of Manassas, 30th of August, 1862, Mr. James Albert Pendleton, son of James W. Pendleton, deceased, and grandson of A. Humrick-house, of this place, in his 18th year, in Company A 2nd Regt., Virginia volunteers under Capt. Rowan, Shepherdstown, Jeff Co., Va., Nov. 24, 1862". EWG

HISTORY OF THE DUGGIN AND RELATED FAMILIES OF CANNON COUNTY, TENNESSEE, by E. Dean Butler. 1979. Soft back. 98 pp. Order from the author, 3434 McKenzie, Memphis, Tennessee 38117. $7.00

The author began his search primarily to trace the descendants of Prestley Lester Duggin and his wife, Mary Louisa Hancock, of Cannon County, Tennessee. However, to acquaint the descendants with a more thorough history of their heritage, information available regarding the parents and grandparents of these two is also presented. Thus, the story begins in Virginia with Mary Louisa Hancock's grandfather and in North Carolina with James S. Duggan's grandfather. The author is most eager to have readers contribute information which could enlarge his storehouse of knowledge about this family. In his introduction he analyses the characteristics of these early settlers with the confidence of a native. - EWG

HISTORY OF TENNESSEE, Goodspeed Publishing Co. 1887. Reprint with new index. 1979. Hard Back. 766 pp. Order from Southern Historical Press, % The Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr. P. O. Box 738, Easley, S. C. 29640. $32.50.

This volume is a general history of Tennessee with topics ranging from the geographical to the political, and in time from the prehistoric to the 1880's. Of special interest is the discussion of land grants from England, Virginia and North Carolina. The military history of Tennessee is covered in detail. There are two chapters devoted to the War between the States. Federal and Confederate regimental sketches are included, giving place of organization, officers and battles each regiment was in. Biographies of some of the early leaders of Tennessee are included. Among the many statistics, there is a chart of the population of Tennessee by counties for the decades 1790-1880. For those who are new to research in Tennessee, this would be a good book to gain general knowledge of the state. EDS

PIONEER FAMILIES OF NORTHWESTERN NEW JERSEY, by William C. Armstrong. 1979. 616 pp. Hard Back. Indexed. Order from Hunterdon House, Lambertville, N. J., 08530. $25.00.

This work was originally a weekly series in the HACKETTSTOWN GAZETTE beginning in 1934. William C. Armstrong edited the column but many of the articles were contributed by others. This book brings all the series together with an every-name index of ninety pages. As the title indicates, the area of concentration is northwest New Jersey and the genealogies include much more than names, dates and

In conclusion are genealogical notes on some two dozen families. EWG.

THE DUKE FAMILY by Evelyn Duke Brandenberger. 1979. Hard Cover. Over 483 pp. Indexed. Order from Evelyn Duke Brandenberger, 5411 Ariel St., Houston, Texas, 77096. $37.50.

The Duke story is introduced with a survey of the family in England and of some early Duke colonists to Virginia. Thomas Duke, the first of this family in Virginia, and wife, Mary Barham, had sons John and Henry. From these four the author traces the Duke line from the early 1600's in Virginia southward into North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Texas, and to other states. There is an index of those people with the name of Duke and a separate index of allied surnames. Included are short early histories of the Green family of Virginia and the Myrick, Tomlin, Turner, and Burchett (Birchett) families showing their relationship to the Duke family. The book contains names associated with hundreds of allied lines. HLB.

PROBATE RECORDS OF SOUTH CAROLINA. VOLUME THREE. JOURNAL OF THE COURT OF ORDINARY 1764-1771 by Brent H. Holcomb, C.A.L.S 1979. Over 141 pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, % The Rev. S. Emmett Lucas, Jr. P. O. Box 783, Easley, S. C. 29640. $20.00.

This is the latest volume in a series of probate records which are of great value to searchers in South Carolina. Mr. Holcomb's first volume was an index to the inventories of estates in that state. The second is a transcription of the Journal of the Court of Ordinary 1771-1775 and abstracts of Letters of Administration which are dated from 1775-1821. This third volume is also a transcription of a court journal which was kept for the years 1764-1771. The probate records in this volume contain information on family relationships, administrators, locations of property and other genealogical material. There is a list of marriage licenses for Dec. 1765 and 1766 in the back of the book. The index includes Parishes and some place names. These records are from all parts of South Carolina and are an excellent source for researchers in this period in South Carolina. EDS.

SOME FARRAR'S ISLAND DESCENDANTS by Alvahn Holmes. 1979. 418 pp. Indexed. Hard back, Order from Miss Alvahn Holmes, 5015 Boxhill Lane, Baltimore, Md. 21210, or Mr. James S. Farrior, 5820 Criner Rd. S. E., Huntsville, Ala. 35802. $27.50.

This is a genealogy of the descendants of the Virginia Farrars and is the second volume to be published on the family. The first volume THE FARRAR'S ISLAND FAMILY AND ITS ENGLISH ANCESTRY ends with the sale of Farrar's Island in 1727. This volume begins with the sale and "gives an account of many branches as they emigrated to different states". Each branch of the Farrar family is considered in separate parts in order to keep families together. Allied family lines are also included. Some of these lines are given in detail. The book is documented with most of the sources quoted. There are pictures and some illustrations. EDS

CHESTER COUNTY, SOUTH CAROLINA MINUTES OF THE COUNTY COURT - 1785 - 1799 by Brent H. Holcomb, C. A. L. S., and Elmer O. Parker. 1979. Hard Backs. 354 pages. Indexed. Order from the Southern Historical Press, c/o Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr. P.O. Box 738, Easley, S. C. 29640. $25.00.

Chester County is one of only eleven South Carolina counties which have minutes of the county court extant. The county court system was abolished in 1800, and all counties became districts. The co-authors have transcribed verbatim all of the minutes from this court which include names of many people which were omitted from the 1790 census. The book contains a map of the original land grants on Rocky Creek, lists of deeds, probates, tavern licenses, road overseers, minor court cases, and bastardy bonds. The letters appearing behind some of the names have been identified as a clue to the location of the person, i.e. TC-Turkey Creek, FC- Fishing Creek etc. This volume is a welcome addition to South Carolina publications. HLB.

HISTORY OF TRIGG COUNTY, KENTUCKY by William Henry Perrin. 1884. Reprint with new material 1979. Hard back. 293 pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, % Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., P.O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640 $27.50

Although white men were believed to have been in Trigg County by 1778, the county was not formed until 1820 from Christian and Caldwell counties. A portion of land between the Tennessee and Cumberland Rivers contained a fine quality of iron ore, therefore the county became noted for several large iron furnaces. The early records are quite good; for example, Perrin lists the twenty-nine marriages which occurred in the first two years. As in his other histories, this one is full of interesting anecdotes of life in early Trigg, and is laced with names. The middle portion holds blank pages for additional material to be added, and extensive biographical sketches follow. EWG

THE FAMILY OF JOHN MASSIE 1743- c. 1830, Revolutionary Patriot of Louisa County, Virginia. Compiled by Mavis Parrott Kelsey, M. D., and Mary Wilson Kelsey. 1979. Over 241 pages. Indexed. Order from Dr. Mavis Parrott Kelsey, No. 2 Longbow Lane, Houston, Tex. 77024. $35.00 pp soft cover, $40.00 - hard book.

The name Massie is of Norman origin, and this family is from Cheshire, England. There were several of this name, Massie or Massey, in early America. Jeffery Massie was in Massachussets in 1631. Among the first Massies in Virginia are Alexander in Accomac County in 1633, and J. Joseph in Brunswick County. The author's line originated in New Kent County with Capt. Charles Massie, born about

1576 in Middlesex, England, who had at least three sons: Alexander, Peter, and Nicholas. One Peter, probably of this family, came to America and patented land in New Kent County. There is evidence of eight of his children: John, Thomas, Charles, Lucretia, Sarah Penelope, Cecelia, George and William. The author mentions several early Massie families in Virginia, since his predecessors intermarried several times into the same families. Excursuses of the families of Baker, Walton, Harris, Burrus, Clopton, Overton, Booth, Mills, Keener and Bollinger are included. The Massies migrated to the Carolinas, Kentucky and Texas. HLB

ABBEVILLE DISTRICT, SOUTH CAROLINA MARRIAGES 1777-1852. Editor The Rev. S. Emmett Lucas, Jr. 1979. 69 pp. Soft back. Order from Southern Historical Press, c/o Rev. S. Emmett Lucas, Jr. P. O. Box 783, Easley, S. C. 29640. $12.50.

This compilation of marriages from Old Abbeville Court House records is an alphabetical listing by groom and bride. Their names are taken from the book Abstracts of Old 96 and Abbeville District, S. C. by Pauline Young, and more data on these persons may be obtained from that book. The dates given are not necessarily the year of the wedding, but they do indicate that these persons were married to each other at that particular date. Since there are no marriage records in South Carolina until after 1900, this book will be helpful for finding marriages in the old Abbeville District during this time period. These marriages should give researchers "a beginning" in locating ancestors in this district. EDS.

THE CABELL-GRAVES CAMP OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS AT DANVILLE, VIRGINIA 1888-1896. Reproduced for the Anne Eliza Johns Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, Danville, VA. 1979. Soft back. Over 250 pp. Not indexed. Order from Mrs. Ellie F. Holton, 203 Arnett Blvd., Danville, VA 24541. $6.95

On April 10, 1888 some 100 Confederate Veterans met in the courthouse at Danville to organize a Confederate Camp. Membership was open to those living in Danville and surrounding counties in Virginia and North Carolina. The name was chosen to honor two fallen comrades, Col. Joseph Robert Cabell of VA and Lt. Col. John A. Graves of NC. Throughout the years, programs describing their war experiences were presented. Resolutions of respect for deceased members, decoration of the graves of Confederate dead, and collection and preservation of material from the War Between the States were objectives of the camp. There is a muster roll of the 18th Regiment, Companies A and B, and the minutes in this book contain many names. HLB

ROBERTSON COUNTY'S HERITAGE OF HOMES by Deborah Kelley Henderson. 1979. Hard back. 96 pp. Order from Robertson County Antiquities Foundation, 403 N. Pawnee Dr., Springfield, TN 37172. $11.00 TN residents add 6% sales tax.

This is a lovely little book containing pictures and descriptions of more than 60 historic homes in Robertson County. One can only wish to have been along with the author and her husband as they catalogued them. Many genealogical gems may be found in the description and history of the homes...perhaps the state and county of the original owner before he moved to Robertson County...perhaps the wife's maiden name, marriage date, children, second marriage...or an occupation. There is a section devoted to homes on the National Register of Historic Places. Included in this part are "Wessyngton", built by a cousin of George Washington, "Pitt Distillery and Home" where sour mash whiskey became world famous, and "Woodard Hall", built in the late 18th century by Thomas Woodard. If you like old homes and family history, you will like this book. EWG

DEATH RECORDS FOUND IN MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE - 1866

Contributed by Elizabeth R. Nichols & Mary L. Nazor

Listed in the Memphis City Directory for the year 1866 were 8 newspapers, 2 funeral homes and 4 cemeteries. Sources of information presented here are; Elmwood Cemetery original record books (the only 1866 cem. extant), J. F. Holst & Bro. funeral home books (also original records) and microfilm of contemporary newspapers. The last two are holdings of the Memphis Public Library & Information Center. Due to old, hard to decipher handwriting, faint film, missing issues, etc., it is not presented as complete, but as a supplement to any previously compiled material.

To simplify and conserve space the following codes and abbreviations have been used:

Memphis Daily Commercial	C	Memphis Daily Appeal	AP	Holst Funeral Home	H

FAMILY GATHERINGS

Compiled by Jessie Taylor Webb

The TERRELL - WILLIS - GARLAND puzzle. From Mr. Homer C. Cooper, 145 Pendleton Dr., Athens, Georgia 30606.

JOEL TERRELL (1692-1758) of Hanover Co., VA married SARAH OXFORD. Did they have one or two daughters?

1. (unknown) TERRELL, born ca 1718/19 married Edward GARLAND, born ca 1710/16 and died before Feb. 1752. The widow Garland was mentioned in St. Paul's Vestry Book in 1751. Their children:

Thomas Garland - born 1738

Nancy Garland - born 1740

Mary Garland - born 1742

Elizabeth Garland - born 1744

Peter Garland - born 1746

Ann Garland - born 1748

Edward Garland - born 1750

Sarah Garland - born 1752

2. SUSANNAH TERRELL, born 1721, married before 1754 STEPHEN WILLIS who was born in 1725 and was of Hanover Co., VA. They had five children.

1. GEORGE WILLIS, born 1754, died 1827 in Wilkes Co., GA, where he settled ca 1784. Family tradition says his wife was SUSANNAH BAKER, born 1757, died 1843 in Wilkes Co. Can anyone document this information?

2. JOEL TERRELL WILLIS, born 1756, lived in King and Queen Co., VA in 1809. Was he the Joel T. Willis, Notary, who died in Mobile Co, AL in 1819?

3. ELIZABETH WILLIS - born 1758.

4. STEPHEN WILLIS, born 1760, died 1820 at Red Oak, Brown Co., OH where he settled after living in Pendleton Dist., SC. He married in 1782, MARTHA WHAREY, born 1761, died 1846 in Granville, Putnam Co., IL.

5. SUSANNAH WILLIS, born 1762. Her descendants say her middle name was Terrell, that she married SAMPSON HARRIS and settled somewhere in Georgia.

JOEL TERRELL (1726-1774), a son of Joel and Sarah Oxford Terrell, settled in Charlottesville, VA. about 1750 and his home was at Market and Fifth Streets where the City Hall now stands. His wife was ANNE LEWIS (1733-1835), a centenarian. After JOEL'S death, ANNE married STEPHEN WILLIS, born 1725, as his second wife and they moved to Rutherford Co., N.C. JOEL and ANNE were parents of 10 children:

1. MARY TERRELL, born 1755, died 1843 -m- Capt ROBERT ADAMS, died about 1790, of Bedford Co., and Campbell Co., VA.

2. ANNA TERRELL, born 1756 -m- ROBERT HACKETT of Rutherford Co., N.C. He was drowned about six weeks after their marriage.

3. SUSANNAH TERRELL, born 1758 -m- ALEXANDER GORDON and settled on Cloud Creek, Oglethorpe, GA.

4. RICHMOND TERRELL, born 1760, died 1856 -m- in 1782 CECILIA DARRACOTT and lived in Wilkes Co. and Newton Co., GA.

5. JOEL TERRELL, born 1762, died 1819, -m- MARTHA WILLIAMS, born 1775, and lived in Campbell Co., VA., also Wake Co., N.C. where he was granted a Revolutionary War Pension, and in Rutherford Co., N.C.

6. FRANCES TERRELL, born 1764, -m- in 1790 CHISHOLM GRIFFIN, born about 1759, died about 1804, of Rutherford Co., NC.

7. WILLIAM GARLAND TERRELL, born 1766, died young.

8. WILLIAM LEWIS TERRELL, born 1768, died young.

9. PETER HIGGINS TERRELL, born 1770, died about 1791.

10. JANE GARLAND TERRELL, born 1722 (sic) (1772?), died young.

Since the name of the elder daughter of JOEL TERRELL (1692-1752) is unknown, the one who married EDWARD GARLAND, Mr. Cooper wants to know if the SUSANNAH TERRELL, born 1721, was married first to EDWARD GARLAND and had eight children, was widowed and then married secondly STEPHEN WILLIS, born 1725, and had five more children.

PARADISE RIDGE - Once a Lawless Region - Information from Mrs. Kathryn F. Henneberg,
127 Oxford Rd. N.E., Atlanta, GA 30306

A long lazy pike winds its way from Nashville to a remote spur of the Cumberland Mountains which divide Robertson from Davidson Co, TN. In 1815 after John Robertson with his hardy pioneers blazed the trail to Nashville, BILL PARADISE and his brother crossed the mountains from North Carolina. One brother settled on the ridge and the other in a cove at its foot.

It was still a wild section when the KNIGHT family moved in. There were three divisions of this family each headed by a stalwart son named William. "BLACK BILL", the oldest, lived a wild and disordered life near the top of the Ridge where he farmed, raised an orchard and cultivated strawberries. He acquired his unique sobriquet from the fact that he never wore a shirt even in winter, and unusually black hair covered his body. "RATTLESNAKE BILL" led an isolated life collecting snakes, tanning their hides and selling them for pocket books and belts. PETER KNIGHT, a War of 1812 soldier, came to the Ridge in 1817 and fathered "GENTLEMAN BILL" who was still living in 1909. In middle age "GENTLEMAN BILL" was as skillful as an Indian with his bow and arrow, which he used for shooting fish along Sycamore Creek. It is related that in the 1880's he visited Oklahoma and so astonished an old Indian chief with his marksmanship that he was given headrights to a share in Indian lands.

Other early settlers were the REASONOVERS and the ADCOCKS. JAMES TIGUE and his companion, Peggy, came in 1816 and their child was soon born on the Ridge. The best known point on the Ridge is Crocker Springs settled by ELIJAH LANCASTER CROCKER, an old New England sailor turned educator. Ex-Governor MURPHY J. FOSTER of Louisiana, one Mississippi Governor and Judge WILLIAM HART were among his pupils. Hogs running loose on the Ridge belonged to anyone, but as law and order came, they were the cause of several killings and endless lawsuits. Judge RIDDLE of Davidson Co. threw many such cases out of court declaring that Paradise must fight it out among themselves.

ZIMMERLEE's store is still located at a point known as Devil's Elbow where there is a fine spring. Men still congregate there for gossip as they did in years gone by for chicken fights and other dark crimes. One such crime was the murder of the entire ADE family. Three sets of arrests produced only circumstantial evidence of the culprit that wiped out this hard working, fairly well-to-do family. Sheriff BORUM of Davidson Co. was more successful in the capture of WASH HAINES who murdered ED MANLOVE in a tempestuous raid. Today's men are too busy cultivating delicious strawberries, making boxes for them, marketing their product, for such earlier crimes.

In 1909 the Ridge was in the public eye during the COOPER-SHARP trial for the killing of Senator EDWARD WARD CARMACK. This was the birthplace of Judge WILLIAM HART of the Davidson County Criminal Court, and the home of four members of the Jury: FRUTIGER the philosopher, HYDE the man of honor, KNIPFER who looked as if he had swallowed a capsule of pain and SCHUPP the German.

Mrs. RICHARD K. GARRETT tells us the first Post Office on Paradise Ridge, established about 1880, was known as Ridge Post until 1902. It was located where EUGENE BAXTER lived in more recent years.

One of the older landmarks on the Ridge is the Forest Grove Methodist Church, four miles from Joelton on the Springfield highway. Mrs. LUCY HOBBS gave an acre for a church which was built in the 1870s, and she gave another acre for a cemetery. JIM COOPER, Sr. was appointed architect, and liberal donors of both time and money were CAGE WILKINSON, GIL REASONER and ANDREW DRAKE. Many in the community denied the necessities of life to their families to build this place of worship.

This one room log structure served as a school during the week and a place of worship on Sunday. Hard times befell the church in 1883 when they had no preacher except a beloved circuit rider, JAMES D. CRAWFORD, who held a revival there. This proved to be a turning point in the life of the church, and it was restored to the regular circuit. Names appearing on the deed of the church were WILLIAM A. KNIGHT, WASHINGTON AGENT (sic.) BILBESH M. REASONER, J. REASONER, JOHN HENRY MYERS and WHITEFIELD PITTS.

CHILES - MOORE Families - Information from Mrs. Marvin Lee Moore, 1123 Elmdale Place, Dallas, TX 75224

Abstract of will of PAUL CHILES, Sr. of Giles Co, TN - being of sound mind and memory - all my lawful debts to be paid. All property, real and personal, to be equally divided between my nine children or their legal heirs: FRANCES CARUTHERS, NANCY MOORE, JOHN CHILES, PAUL CHILES, SARAH COLLINS, HENRY CHILES, ANN HICKS, LUCINDA JONES, ROWLAND CHILES. Exc - F. M. KERSEY to be paid for his services, to give bond but no security. 13 Feb 1877 Witness: J. C. MOORE and JNO. R. MOORE.

AUSBURN R. MOORE born 22 October 1811, died 26 May 1858, married about 1831/2 NANCY CHILES born 25 May 1810, died 15 April 1888. Both buried in Diana Cemetery near Brick Church, Giles Co, TN. AUSBURN R. MOORE was in Anderson Co, TN in 1831 at an estate sale of WILLIAM LAMAR, along with several known sons of JAMES MOORE and SUSANNE EPPERSON MOORE. In the 1830 census of Anderson Co, TN, JAMES MOORE had one son living in his household who would have been the correct age for Ausburn. The continued use of the names Austin, James and Joseph down this family line leads one to believe that AUSBURN R. MOORE was a son, grandson or nephew of the Rev. Soldier JAMES MOORE and wife, SUSANNE

AUSBURN R. MOORE bought land in Giles Co, TN in 1837 and in 1840 he had two sons and two daughters. The 1850 census of Giles Co, p. 1012 #1441 shows his family. After Ausburn's death in 1858, his widow Nancy was in the 1860 and 1870 census of Giles Co, TN. She was still living in 1880 but her name was not found in the census. The 1860 census #1073-1073 shows NANCY MOORE's family including Osborn (Ausburn) age 21 (he married in 1861 NANCY E. YOUNG).

The Moore Family Bible contains the following records.

TENNESSEE OBITUARIES FROM HOLLY SPRINGS (MISSISSIPPI) REPORTER*Contributed by R. F. Simpson, Jr.*

Aug. 31, 1882 - OBIT - In memory of Mrs. Sarah S. Powell who died in Marshall Co. on June 18, 1882 age 77 years. She was married to Thomas Powell in Rutherford Co., Tenn. in 1826 and moved to Marshall Co. in 1836 where she spent most of the remainder of her life. She joined the Methodist Church in 1842 and remained a member until her death. She was mother of 12 children; six of them gone before her to that house not made by hands.

Oct. 6, 1887 - OBIT - By a letter received here Wednesday we were pained to learn that Mr. John B. Hicks died near Conyersville, Tenn. at the residence of his son-in-law Mr. R. G. Kirby on Sunday morning last at 5 o'clock. Mr. Hicks had been in feeble health for a long time and was so much so when he left here early in the summer with his daughter Mrs. Hooper that his friends felt he could never rally. He was a native of Greenville Co., VA whence his parents emigrated to Henry Co., Tenn. when he was a small boy. From there he came to Marshall Co., Miss. where he married a Miss Hatchell and remained until after her death. He then went to Memphis where he was a member of the firm of Hicks, Anderson & Co. and Hicks, Terry and Co. until the war (Civil War) when he moved back to Marshall Co. where he remained until Majr. Hooper came with his family to this place when he accompanied them and has continued a member of their household ever since. He joined the Methodist Church a little more than a year ago. He was buried in the family burying ground near where he died and where his parents and other loved ones have long slept the sleep of the just. He was born in 1811 and was near 77 years old. SUTPHEN

Contributed by: Mrs. Charles F. Vanecek,
1115 N. Lime St., Burbank, CA 91505

In 1966 "Ansearchin'" News published a record of a Coffee County, Tennessee cemetery found near Tullahoma. Three of the stones were markers for members of the Lasater family and the fourth was reported as a member of the Sailphen family. Mrs. Vanecek has written to say that the latter surname should be SUTPHEN. She gives further information on the Sutphen family.

John S. Sutphen married Matilda W. Chrisman, daughter of David and Jemima, in Williamson County, Tennessee on 13 June 1833. He bought land in the area of this cemetery on 14 February 1835, but is thought to have been there earlier. He signed a bill for a slave that was hanged in 1833. The Sutphens moved to Texas in 1850, after the birth and death of their infant son on 10 January 1850. The marker in Coffee County is for this infant. John S. and Matilda are buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Nacogdoches, Texas.
