OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

Welcome to another year of genealogical records which we hope will reveal your most elusive ancestor, or at least give you clues by placing a given person in a certain place at a definite time. That's the "name of the game", and we invite you to submit your player via Bible records, cemeteries, family land records, powers of attorney etc., all previously unpublished, of course, and having some Tennessee connection. We must reserve the right to edit because of limited space and so much valuable information. I shudder to think of all the records lost because of fire, storm, or accident.

By the time you receive this issue, the National Genealogical Society's Third Annual Conference will be only a few days away. On April 13-16, genealogists will be gathering in Ft. Worth at the Americana Hotel. Reservations should have been made already for the hotel, but I imagine the lecture sessions could squeeze in "just one more". You could write N.G.S. Conference, P.O. Box 18062, Ft. Worth, TX 76118, or call the headquarters at the Americana Hotel, 817-870-1000.

We welcome another organized group to the ranks of West Tennessee societies...The Obion County Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 241, Union City, TN 38261. The goals of this group are to preserve local records through ancestor files on cards, charts, obituaries and local Bible records. Their plans include publishing a newsletter.

Another bit of news is that The American Society of Genealogists has changed its mailing address to P.O. Box 4970, Washington, D.C. 20008. Orders for their publications Genealogical Research, Methods and Sources, Vols. I & II should be sent there.

BRIDGES researchers Alert! Wanda James, 3225 Tena Ruth Cove, Memphis, TN 38118 has three sets of photocopies of Civil War Records which have proved not to be hers. She will send them to anyone who will send $1.00 for postage. They are for A. Bridges, A/Alexander, and A. S. Bridges.

A PORTER Plan is being formulated by two members of that family. James S. Porter writes that Porter information and family charts are being collected by Homer W. Porter, 6354 Elder Grove Dr., Dallas, TX 75232. Write him for details, and don't forget to send S.A.S.E.

Don Vincent, 936 No. Skyline Dr., Tacoma, WA 98406, writes that his newspaper column, Sharing the Past, is now published in the Richland Mirror, Richland, MO. Don's goal is to reconstruct the lost records of Pulaski Co., MO from its first families (1840).

BOOK REVIEWS

By Herman L. Bogan, Eleanor W. Griffin, Wanda C. James

JOHNSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE WILL BOOK #1 1827-1860 by James L. Douthat. 1982. Soft back. 20 pp. Indexed. Order from author, 2504 Kell Rd., Signal Mountain, TN 37377. $6.00.

Tucked into the farthest northeast corner of the state, Johnson County was formed from Carter in 1836; however the first settlement in this beautiful mountain area was made about 1770, or somewhat earlier, near the point where the Roane Creek emptied into the Watauga River. The first court met in 1836, but the first recorded will (that of Thomas Johnson of Carter County) had been written in 1827. Some of the early names are: Ward, Johnson, Wilson, Warren, Arendill, Robinson, Wright, Brown, Cole, Heath, Wagner, Dugger, Shull and others.

SAMUEL WRIGHT HANNAH AND DESCENDANTS by Curtis A. Hannah Jr. 1982. Soft back. 70 pp. Order from Mr. Hannah, 4058 N. Oketo, Norridge, IL 60634. $25.00.

Samuel Wright Hannah, born in Green County, Tennessee in 1816, can be traced to Monroe County and Bradley County in Tennessee, then on to Texas and back to Arkansas by 1858. By 1863 he was dead, a result of bushwhacker activity during the Civil War. The people portrayed here are all descended from him by either blood or marriage. Wonderfully clear copies of original records and many fine old photos (from tintypes) have survived to be presented here.

EIGHTEENTH CENTURY PIEDMONT NORTH CAROLINA MAPS by Fred Hughes. 17 counties. 23" x 29" (Guilford 23" x 25"). Order from The Custom House, P.O. Box 549, Jamestown, NC 27282. Single maps $4.00. Whole series $62.00.

An exciting and completely new approach to history, these beautiful maps display roads, mills, Churches, schools, military routes, battle sites, Indian trails and many thousands of pioneers of Piedmont North Carolina. The maps give information compiled from the original source material, such as land grant records, deeds, wills, etc. Most of the people, more than 30,000, predate the 1790 census. More than 90% of this information has never before appeared in print. A master index is being prepared and will eventually be published. Counties now available: Davie, Guilford, Montgomery, Randolph, Rockingham, Stokes, Surry and Yadkin. Counties to be published spring 1983: Anson, Davidson, Lee, Moore, Piedmont, Richmond, Rowan, Stanly, Wilkes.

THOMAS WILLIAMS AND HIS DESCENDANTS by Rebecca Williams Harris. 1982. Soft back. 177 pp. Indexed. Order from author, 2396 Corning Ave., Memphis, TN 38127. $8.50.

Thomas Williams of North Carolina came to Dickson County, Tennessee about 1810 and moved west to Fayette County, Tennessee somewhere around 1829. The author provides family charts, fascinating family stories and court records - all dealing with Thomas and his descendants. If you are of this line, she hopes to fill in gaps for you; at the same time, she asks for additional information from her readers.

HICKMAN COUNTY, TENNESSEE COURT RECORDS 1814-1829 compiled by Olga Dotson. 1982. Soft back. 171 pp. Indexed. Order from compiler, Hickman County Courthouse, Centerville, TN 37033. $12.00.

This publication consists of abstracts of deeds, land grants, plats, bills of sale, and many other interesting items. These records have been copied and abstracted over a period of several years and many are no longer to be found in the courthouse. Many of the records are loose leaf, and most are in bad condition and are very hard to read. Consequently, this work is a valuable researching aid to everyone interested in Hickman County, Tennessee.

GRUNDY COUNTY, TENNESSEE COUNTY HISTORY SERIES, Volume 31 by James L. Nicholson. 1982. Hard back. 134 pp. Indexed. Order from Memphis State University Press, Memphis, TN 38152. $12.50.

As part of the continuing state project, Nicholson in readable, free-flowing style, traces the history of Grundy County from pre-county times up to the present. He speaks of its mountain people (naming names), churches, soldiers, occupations, pastimes, specific families, special incidents, authors, schools, countryside, and other topics. Very interesting reading for those from Grundy County and also for those who are not.

DEED BOOK 2, AMELIA COUNTY, VIRGINIA DEEDS 1742-1747 compiled by Gibson J. McConnaughey. 1982. Soft back. 99 pp. Indexed. Order from Mid-South Publishing Co., P.O. Box 188, Amelia, VA 23002. $10.50.

This book contains deeds for both the present day counties of Prince Edward and Nottoway. Some delightful references abstracted refer to "possession obtained by Wm. Principals, their relatives, neighbors and witnesses create a very early census for Amelia County.

INVENTORY OF KENTUCKY BIRTH, MARRIAGE AND DEATH RECORDS 1852-1910 (revised edition) compiled by Jeffrey Michael Duff. 1982. Soft back. 71 pp. Order from Public Records Division, Department for Libraries and Archives, P.O. Box 537, Frankfort, KY 40602. $5.00.

Kentucky kept no birth, marriage or death records prior to 1852. In this year a new law required all clergy and other persons who performed marriages to keep a register and likewise all individuals who attended births and deaths. The inventory is a guide to these records which are available for research. It is not a name index, but rather descriptions of records by county and year.

This third volume of McIntosh Genealogy is compiled from family records throughout the United States and Canada, as well as from county histories, manuscripts, state vital records, etc. The material is printed on acid free paper and is completely indexed in three ways: by McIntosh given names; by allied family names; and by geographical locations.

Especially fascinating is the Americanization of Huguenot surnames. Some illustrations and portraits are included, and more than 3,000 names are found in the index. Five blank pages at the end of the book are reserved for a personal family register.

CANNON COUNTY, TENNESSEE HISTORY SERIES, Vol. 8 by Robert L. Mason. 1982. Hard back. 134 pp. Indexed. Order from Memphis State University Press, Memphis, TN 38152. $12.50.

This book is more than a statistical account of the past. Mason's CANNON COUNTY is chock full of names. Especially enjoyable is his description of the early settlers' lifestyle. He deals with the county's soldiers (names included) and stories of their feats; he discusses the different communities within the county and the churches found in those communities. Uncle Dave Macon from the Grand Old Opry claimed Cannon as his home.

FRANKLIN COUNTY, ILLINOIS CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS, TYRONE TOWNSHIP by Chloe Davis and Ruby Henderson. 1982. Soft back. 122 pp. Indexed. Order from Chloe Davis, Box 442, Rt. 1, Mulkeytown, IL 62865. $14.95.

The authors felt that it was important to record, preserve and publish the tombstone inscriptions in known cemeteries, some of which date to the early 1800's. Physical location and physical condition of cemetery is given where possible. Some war veterans' service records were researched and included with tombstone information. The authors welcome corrections and additional information. Some of the cemeteries are: Cook, Silkwood, Mulkeytown, Naylor and Ward.

Part One of the book concentrates on Key families from Massachusetts to the Shenandoah Valley. Part Two covers the Simpson-Shinn lines and other related branches from England and Adams County, Pennsylvania to other states.

These volumes are filled with treasures for the Weakley County, Tennessee researcher. Vol. III contains an 1880 map which defines civil districts and gives approximate locations of churches, post offices and schools, many of which are now defunct. A list of state senators, representatives, and sheriffs begins with the year 1825. An index to the County Court First Minute Book 1827-1835, occupant entries 1827-1833 and partial land entry claims 1838-1885 are included. There is a list of Confederate and Federal Companies formed in Weakley County followed by a list of men who served in the military from the Revolution through the Spanish American War. Book Reviews (continued)

SPENCE'S HISTORY OF HICKMAN COUNTY, TENNESSEE reprinted 1981 by Edward and Olga Dotson. Soft back. 224 pp. Indexed. Order from authors, Hickman County Courthouse, Centerville, TN 37033. $17.00.

Spence's History, originally published in 1900, gives a vivid description of much of the early history of Hickman County and contains a wealth of information on many of the pioneer families of the county. Since the courthouse burned in 1865 and destroyed most of the county records, the book is a primary source material. A chapter on each of the fifteen districts describes the territory physically, names the people who settled there, and is full of anecdotes. There is also much material on the early militia, soldiers and Confederates.

THE EARLY YANDELLS OF NORTH CAROLINA AND SOME OF THEIR DESCENDANTS 1737-1982 by Velma Nancyann Yarbrough. 1982. Hard back. 499 pp. Indexed. Order from author, Rt., 4, Box 202, Shawnee, OK 74801. $42.00.

Starting in the 1760's the early Yandells of North Carolina began to make their presence a matter of record in the deeds and court records of Mecklenburg County, North Carolina. They were four brothers: Andrew, James, William and Samuel, born circa 1738-1755. This comprehensive study gives hundreds of sources of information for the four main family groups, as well as for a relative, Samuel Yandle of Union Co., NC. The book is 8x11 inches, clearly printed on quality stock, and illustrated with copies of documents, family pictures and charts...truly a treasure.

DAILY ACCOUNT JOURNALS OF STIRLING FORD, M.D. AMELIA COUNTY VIRGINIA 1829-1830-1831 abstracted & compiled by Gibson Jefferson McConnaughey. 1982. Soft back. 160 pp. Indexed. Order from Mid-South Publishing Co., P.O. Box 188, Amelia, VA 23002. $13.50.

These abstracted journals add information for a period where data is hard to find, and they contain records not generally found in ordinary county records. They mention names of plantation homes, overseers, governesses, ministers and other physicians, in addition to giving their medical histories. Dr. Ford made a number of personal observations that reveal much about his patients' character and personality. He treated members of families and their slaves and mentions social customs, the weather and mode of payment for his medical services. Added footnotes give many spouses' names, dates of marriages, and owners of homes that are mentioned in the accounts. Dr. Ford's practice extended to Powhatan & Cumberland Counties, Richmond & Petersburg.

GENEALOGY OF THE LECKRONE-LACKRONE-LECKRON-LEKRONE-LeCRONE-LaCRONE-LECRON-LEGRON-LeKRON FAMILY by Mary Leckrone Mills Black. 1980. Hard back. 300 pp. Indexed. Order from author, P.O. Box 156, Brethren, MI 49619. $30.00.

The Lecrons were dissenters (those who had a different faith from that of the rulers of France) and so being persecuted they fled into the Palatinate of Germany. The author has researched beginnings in Europe with the genealogy of the descendants of Alexander Lecron and continues with the Valentine Legron family; the family line of Michael Lecron who came to America in 1884; Daniel LeCron who came to America in 1741 and his descendants; Jakob LeCron who came to America in 1741 and his descendants; and Johann Leonardt LaCrone who came to America in 1753, settling in York, Pennsylvania.

BIOGRAPHY AND GENEALOGY MASTER INDEX, 1981-82 Supplement edited by Miranda C. Herbert and Barbara McNeil. Hard back. 2,052 pp. Order from Gale Research Co., Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226. Three Volume Set $225.00.

The eight volumes published in 1981 contain an index to persons listed in biographical sources. This year's supplement offers names added to new editions of those books, as well as over a million citations from an additional 140 biographical dictionaries. Each entry indicated the individual's name, dates of birth and death (when available) and source of information. A sample of the source books used includes various books of Who's Who, Celebrities of the Century, Encyclopedia of the American Revolution, The Civil War Dictionary, Dictionary of American Medical Biography, Dictionary of Indian Biography, and the dictionaries from which names were extracted cover such varied subjects as art, diplomacy, cabinetmaking, Methodism and many more. Libraries will find these books extremely helpful to patrons, and genealogists will have a comprehensive source at their finger tips.

1880 CENSUS OF ROCKWALL COUNTY, TEXAS WITH NOTES compiled by Walterine H. Sharp and Sandra Haney Tedford. 1982. Soft back. 109 pp. Indexed. Order from SEARCH-N-PRINT, P.O. Box 777, Farmersville, TX 75031. $12.50.

The 1880 census is particularly valuable since it was the first to record the birthplaces of the parents of the persons listed on the census. This volume also includes the mortality schedule and the index to Confederate Pension Applications of persons residing in Rockwall County at the time of their application. Another section is entitled "Notes": of the 546 households listed on the census, approximately 420 are included in the notes, which are a compilation of vital records found by the compilers.

HISTORY AND GENEALOGICAL DATA OF THE POYNOR, BURNS, MEADOWS, SUDBERRY AND CONYER FAMILIES by Marion Joyce Poynor. 1982. Hard back. 157 pp. Indexed. Order from the author, Rt. 8, Box 269, Columbia, TN 38401. $15.25.

This is a history of five middle Tennessee families whose lives were closely connected by marriage. The genealogical data were collected over a period of twenty years, using census and military records from state and national archives, deeds and marriage records, cemetery inscriptions, family Bibles, interviews and correspondence. Each chapter of the book is a genealogy of one of the five families and includes photographs and stories of traditional events.

NEW JERSEY CATHOLIC BAPTISMAL RECORDS FROM 1759 TO 1781 compiled by Janet Drumm Dirnberger. 1981. Soft back. 62 pp. Indexed. Order from E. Simmons Books & Etc., 2242 West Bay Area Blvd., Friendswood, TX 77546. $7.50.

The original baptismal registers were kept by missionary priests and were written in Latin in German script. The records in this book were translated by Rev. Joseph Flynn from the original in old St. Joseph's Church in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Ms Dirnberger has indexed these early records alphabetically by surname and listed the location (county) where the baptism was performed. The date of birth, recipient of baptism, date of baptism, parents and sponsors is given under each surname entry.

FINCHER IN THE USA 1683-1900 by Evelyn Davis Fincher and Ann Wilson Fincher. 1981. Hard back. 626 pp. Indexed. Order from A Press, Inc., P.O. Box 8796, Greenville, SC 29604. $26.85.

Francis Fincher, a Quaker from Worcester, England, came with his family and servants to America to escape religious persecution. They arrived in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on July 28, 1683, where he was a First Purchaser from William Penn and an elected member of the Pennsylvania Assembly. The descendants of this man, one of six known Fincher immigrants, are traced here. Also included are five other Fincher lines and unconnected Fincher names from Chester County, Pennsylvania to Orange County, North Carolina, Union County, South Carolina, and other states.

CONNECTICUT RESEARCHER'S HANDBOOK compiled and edited by Thomas Jay Kemp. 1982. Hard back. 755 pp. Order from Gale Research Co., Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226. $42.00.

The handbook is arranged in two major parts. The first covers works about the state in general, all arranged under 32 specific categories. The second part treats each of Connecticut's eight counties and more than 150 individual cities and towns. By focusing on specific towns and counties, researchers are provided with key sources of genealogical and historical information, including cemeteries and cemetery records, census records, church records, land, military, probate, school, tax, vital records, newspapers, etc.

COOPER FAMILY HISTORY 1730-1982 by Thomas R. Bryan and Christine Cooper Ellenberg. 1982. Hard back. 192 pp. Indexed. Order from A Press, Inc., P.O. Box 8796, Greenville, SC 29604. $26.85.

This is the history of the Cooper family, descendants of Reuben Cooper I, a Welshman who moved to Delaware prior to the Revolutionary War. Two of his descendants served together in the Revolution under General Greene and settled in the Ninety Six area of South Carolina after the war. Today there are family members found in all the southern states as well as the eastern seaboard. Included are accounts of some lines descending from Charlemagne, Alfred the Great and William the Conqueror.

OLD ROADS AND GENEALOGY?

The Virginia Highway & Transportation Research Council has given the genealogist a marvelous tool for his trade - a series of books which give the history of early county roads and the people who were assigned to work on them. This series, Historic Roads of Virginia, is edited by Nathaniel Mason Pawlett, Faculty Research Historian for the project, which is a joint effort of the Dept. of Highways and the University of Virginia. The original idea was to compile a history of Albemarle County's roads, but it soon became evident that, in order to begin that task, the parent counties must be researched. Thus the series was begun in 1973.

Every genealogist who has tried to read the faded, yellowed, spidery pages of old documents will appreciate the abstracted and edited material in this series. Here in clean, clear black and white is a record of persons who were appointed to keep up the roads as early as 1728 in Goochland County, 1742 in Louisa and 1744 in Albemarle County. Many lists of persons who were petitioning for new roads are found in the Road Order Books. This puts a given person at a fairly specific place at a definite date, for example:

"9 April 1744 O.S. (Old Style) Page 102

On the Petition of Mosias Jones Willm Thompson James Merideth Robert Thompson for a Road to be laid off etc. it was Ordered that David Mills & John Cooke should view the same....." from Louisa County Road Orders 1742-1748

"18 June 1728 Old Style, p.9

William Mayo and Allen Howard Gent. are appointed to agree with Sarah Atkinson for keeping ffery one year of a Court day to set over foot people only to court....." Goochland County Road Orders, 1728-1744

The Road Order books are indexed by Personal Names, Bridges, Churches, Fords, County Government, Ferries, Houses, Mills, Mountains, Plantations, Quarters, Rivers and Creeks, Roads, Signposts, Road Surveyors Gangs and Miscellaneous.

The histories, while not giving as many names, contain detailed maps and pictures of buildings, houses and roads. Reading these volumes gives one the setting in which these ancestors lived. Genealogy cannot be separated from history.

Virginia (and Mr. Pawlett) has charted the way for the rest of us. Each county of Tennessee could add immeasurably to appreciation of its past with such a series.

These publications, although out of print, will be produced to order with payment in advance. Order from: Historic Roads of VA,

MINUTES OF NEW HOPE BAPTIST CHURCH

Decatur County, Tennessee

Contributed by Freda R. Cox

717 Cedar Drive

Knoxville, Tennessee 37919

New Hope Baptist Church is located on Beacon Road about two miles outside Decaturville, Decatur County, Tennessee. The church was organized September 25, 1842. Although the church minutes do not indicate that he was ever a member of the church, John S. SULLIVAN deeded six acres to the church for a building site (deed registered January 1848). In February 1851 the church traded one acre and 80 poles of land to William Griffin for an equal amount.

Only a few graves are in the small cemetery at the church because the ground is considered unsuitable for burying. Some of the members were buried at the Presbyterian Church nearby (formerly called the Campgrounds).

These minutes were filmed by the Southern Baptist Convention. The copy belonging to the church was made available for transcription by the present church clerk, Myracle WARD. Although the minutes continue intermittently to 1928, those entries past October 1886, after the death of L.P. Moore (church clerk from December 1853), are very difficult and in some cases, impossible to read. Only those bits of information felt to be of interest to the genealogist are included here.

The church usually met once a month on Saturday and Sunday following. When the pastor was absent, the church would appoint a member of the church to sit as moderator protem. Sometimes he would preach, sometimes he would have "prayer and praise", but in almost every meeting, no matter who presided, the church would "set in conference, invite visiting brethren and sisters to seats with them, open the door for reception of members, and call for the reference." Some of these substitute moderators later became pastors. After January 1851, another item was added to the service when they "called for the peace and harmony of the church." Usually the response was "all at peace."

The church would occasionally alter the time of the month or time of day for meeting in response to a need for change. Many winter months the church did not meet "because the house was too open" or on account of "rain, snow, or cold, bad weather."

In appointing committees to "bear the church letter and offering to the association", an extra person usually was appointed "in case of failure."

Following are lists of pastors (or moderators), deacons, and church clerks and the earliest dates they served.

Moderators:

It is doubtful that the list of names which follows the church covenant is of charter members only. There are multiple listings for some members, such as James LOMAX, No. 5, "expelled", and No. 38, "restored"; and Malinda LOMAX, No. 8, "Excom.", No. 40, "restored", and No. 85, died". It appears that the church clerk added to the list as people became members or other events took place. So one should not assume that all these people were members of the church at the time it was organized.

FAMILY GATHERINGS

Prepared for publication by Jessie Taylor Webb and Mary Louise Nazor

HALL RECORDS AND ADAMS BIBLES - Contributed by Mrs. A. B. Thompson
1024 Beechwood Dr., Bastrop, LA., 71220

The earliest record of brothers, John and Hillard/Hilliard HALL appears on the Roane Co., TN tax list for 1805. Hillard is found in Haywood Co., TN in 1830 with his sons John, Alden, Robert H., William, and possibly Jeremiah. In 1844 William and Alden purchased land in Tippah Co., MS from John ALEXANDER of Haywood Co., TN. This land had been a dowery.

Alden (Aulden) Hall was born c1800 in Tennessee and married Rhoda Ann GREEN (?).

Their children were:

1. Amy Hall - married Washington COX (?)
2. Newton Green Hall - born 1829 TN; married Sarah Jane ROBINSON 1850 in Tippah Co., MS (grgrandparents of Mrs. Thompson). They returned to Tennessee after 1850 but were back in Tippah County by 1870. In 1880 they were in Alcorn Co., MS. He served in the CSA and died in Poinsett Co., AR in 1884.
3. Jermiah Hall - born 1831; served in CSA
4. Alden Carroll Hall - born 1834 TN: m P. Elizabeth HALLEY on 6 Jan 1860
5. Ephriam J. Hall - born 1837; m Paralee BROCK on 21 Jan 1858
6. Daniel Bass Hall - born 1839; m Ellen GAY on 29 Dec 1869
7. Mary Elizabeth Hall - born 1841/2; m David Oliver BROCK
8. Martha Jane Hall - born 1843/4

Mrs. Thompson does not have information on the deaths of Alden and his father, Hilliard, but she thinks that John and Hilliard were possibly sons of Zachariah Hall, who is listed on the 1845 Tippah County State Census.

The following information was sent to Mrs. Thompson by Mrs. Carlis Adams, Rt. 2, Box 171, Rison, AR., 71665:

The bible of an ADDAMS/ADAMS family of Smith (later Macon) Co., TN was found in the home of Mr. Gilliam Fuqua and copied by Mrs. Thompson.

John Adams - born 27 Sep 1791 in North Carolina married Elizabeth A. ?, born 3 Sep 1799 in North Carolina. They were parents of W. (Wm) Thomas L. Adams, born 11 Jun 1835, who had the following children:

1. Charles F. Adams - born 2 Aug 1855
2. Sarah E. Adams - born 3 Dec 1856
3. Santifoe ? Adams - born 3 Dec 1858
4. Dorothy (Dratha) Adams - born 9 Aug 1860
5. Harding Adams - born 23 Sep 1862
6. John Wm. Adams - born 11 Mar 1865
7. Andrew J. Adams - born 24 May 1867
8. Martha C. Adams - born 19 Jul 1869
9. Thomas Joshua Adams - born 25 May 1872
10. Allen Adams - born 10 Oct 1874

The pages were loose and missing from this bible, so there could have been other children. Mrs. Thompson was told other children were Catherine "Pattie" (married first, Lason JENKINS, second, Frank HUTSON/HUDSON), Elvira and Surville Adams. One wonders if Catharine "Pattie" might have been the Martha C. listed above, Elvira the Sarah E., and Surville the indistinct Santifoe as recorded above.

JAMES S. WARREN - EARLY SETTLER OF HICKMAN CO., TN - Contributed by Mrs. Richard H. Gilliam, Jr., 1708 Red Oak Road, S.E., Huntsville, AL, 35801

Mrs. Gilliam has used, A History of Hickman County, Tennessee by W. Jerome D. Spence and David L. Spence (published in 1900) as the basis of her research. She has added information from census and family records to piece together her family story.

James Stuart/Stewart WARREN was born c1760-70 and died c1844 in Hickman Co., TN. He was married in Halifax Co., VA on 15 Dec 1794 to Catherine BRANDON who was born c1775. She may not have been his first wife. Before taking up land grants in 1816, 1823 and 1825 in the First District of Hickman Co., he lived in North Carolina and Robertson Co., TN in 1806. All three of the grants were made by Governor William CARROLL from Murfreesboro, TN and were in the general vicinity of Haley Creek, Gray's Bend in the Duck River and adjacent to property owned by Thomas GEE, heirs of Elijah WALKER, Joe HAIL, William CASH, Jonathan F. ROBERTSON, John MORGAN and O. LEWIS. Census records give conflicting information on the states in which their following ten children were born:

1. John W. Warren - born c1792 NC; married Jemina ?
2. David B. Warren - became County Court Clerk of Hickman Co.; married Nellie PEERY, daughter of George Peery
3. Malinda Warren - born c1802 NC; married Zachariah TOTTY
4. Sina Warren - born 5 Feb 1804 Caswell Co., NC; died 7 Apr 1848: she was the first wife of Pleasant WALKER (1804-1870) whom she married 21 Dec 1826 in Hickman County; both died there. He was a native of Rockingham Co., NC and became County Court Clerk and a member of the legislature from Hickman Co. They were parents of Emiline Warren, who married a SHIPP: Catherine

THE ELLIS CLAN - Sent by Mrs. Joe Ericson, 1614 Redbud St., Nacogdoches, TX 75961

From Eagle Creek, Wayne Co., TN, Solomon ELLIS wrote a letter to his son, Joshua, and wife, Artimisa. It was dated 14 Sep 1839 and was full of family news. "The resistless hand of death" had taken his two previous wives but he was well satisfied with the "widow lady, Mary COGGIN", whom he had recently married. Times had been hard, but the crops were good that season with corn in abundance at $1 per barrel and wheat dull at 50 cents a bushel. His son, Templeton, "still lives with Mc-MURRY", and son, John "is still in Giles Co." At last report son, Franklin, was in Arkansas, "but rumor has it that he was one of the unfortunate sufferers in Texas with FANNING (sic) and his army." (Note: Records show a J. E. Ellis with Fanning at Goliad. Perhaps this should have been J. F. for James Franklin Ellis.)

Solomon Ellis was born c1770-80 and married his second wife, Nancy POWELL, on 4 Mar 1821 in Maury Co., TN. They moved to Wayne Co., TN in 1832 where Nancy died 17 Mar 1838. Solomon's son, Joshua Newton Ellis, was born 1810-20 and was married in either Tennessee or Cole Co., MO about 1830 to Artimisa BROWN, daughter of Henry and Ruth SMITH Brown.

Joshua went to Texas on a scouting expedition soon after the birth of their first son. He filed a claim for 640 acres on 21 Sep 1833 but returned to Missouri and lived there until 1845/6. At that time he went with several related families to Peter's Colony in Denton Co., TX. A son was born to Joshua and Artimisa soon after their arrival in Texas, but both parents died of unknown causes in 1847. The children had to be split up and Edward Smith Ellis lived in the household of his aunt and uncle, William Ransom LOVING. Three of the children lived with their grandmother, Ruth BROWN, and the remaining three were in the household of another aunt and uncle, Samuel Loving. In 1850 these families moved to Ft. Worth, Tarrant Co., TX. Ruth Brown had the distinction of being one of the first two white women in Ft. Worth, and Samuel Loving was the first carpenter in that city. The children of Joshua and Artimisa Ellis were:

1. Edward Smith Ellis - born 1832 MO; married c1856 in Ft. Worth, TX to Julia Ann HOWARD, born 14 Dec 1839 MO., daughter of James and Elizabeth Howard.
2. Hulda Merrill Ellis - married Louise WETMORE
3. James Franklin Ellis - born 28 Apr 1838 MO; married 1860 in Ft. Worth, TX to Delilah Jane ASBURY, daughter of Jeremiah Asbury.
4. S. E. (Josephine) Ellis - married W. R. SAWYER
5. M. (male) Ellis - born 1843 MO

6. Jasper Ellis - born 1845 MO

7. Merida Green Ellis - born Apr 1847; married 1868, Margaret "Jinkie" DARTER, daughter of Francis and Mary Darter.

Family tradition says that Edward Smith Ellis (son of Joshua) was a teacher at Old Ft. Worth and that Julia Ann had been his pupil. About 1870 Edward Ellis moved his family to Menard Co., TX, but in 1882 he became ill while on a picnic at the ruins of the Old Spanish Fort and died from "an attack of acute indigestion." The widowed Julia Ann and her children drove their cattle and moved all their belongings to Snyder, TX where they lived until her death 25 Jun 1902. The fifteen children of this union were: James N. Ellis, born 1857, married Alice BURNETT; William R. Ellis, born 1859, married Mary Elizabeth BRADFORD; Richard Ellis; John G. (Jack) Ellis, born 1869, married Luceal GAY; Jasper Ellis; Franklin Ellis, born 1872, married Velma THOMPSON; Smith (Doc) Ellis, born 1875, married Martha Jane PRUIT; Joe Ellis; Merida Ellis, married Birda Ray GRANTHAM; Edward L. Ellis, born 1866; Mary Maud Ellis, born 1867, married Joe RINEHART; Serena May Ellis, born 1863, married Wm Thomas BAZE; Julia Ann Ellis, born 1871, married Thomas Maxwell MAPLES; Ruth Ellis, died young; Joseph Ellis, born 1882.

James Franklin Ellis (son of Joshua) enlisted in Co. H., 17th Reg., Texas Cavalry on 8 Mar 1862, and served in the Confederate Army until discharged on 24 May 1865. He was engaged in the general mercantile business with William J. BOAZ in Ft. Worth. Boaz & Ellis closed that business in 1875 and became engaged in the lumber trade. They later purchased banking interests and Ellis built and owned the famous Ellis Hotel of early Ft. Worth. He died 23 Jan 1899 and Delilah Jane died on 16 Oct 1899. Both are buried in Pioneer Rest Cemetery, Ft. Worth, TX. The five children born to them were: William Jasper Ellis; Henry Merrill Ellis, who died in infancy; Jerry Franklin Ellis, who married Anna TIDBALL; James Merida Ellis; and Fannie Alta Ellis, who married L. H. DuBOSE.

Merida Green Ellis (son of Joshua) enlisted in the Confederate Army in February 1862 when not yet 15 years of age and served until the close of the war. For several years afterwards, he was engaged in the mercantile and farm implement business in Tarrant Co., TX. In 1882 he sold out to his partner and invested largely in land on which the city of North Fort Worth was later built. He was one of the founders of the original stock yards there. In 1891 he laid out what is now known as the "M. G. Ellis Addition." Five children were born to Merida and Margaret. They were: Minnie Ellis, born 1870, married J. W. LYNCH; Rosie J. Ellis, born 1874, died 1937, married H. C. McCART; Merida G. Ellis, Jr., born 1877, married Aline BLACK; Bessie Ellis married H. K. McCOLLUM; and Elmore Ellis, who died in infancy.

CONDLEY/RHEA/RAY RECORDS - Contributed by Mrs. Ross B. Johnson, 240 Quay St.
Lakewood, CO., 80226

William CONDLEY, the son of a native of Ireland, was born in North Carolina but later moved to Halifax Co., VA where he farmed until his death. His son, Anderson Condley, born in 1792, married Elizabeth COBB, born in 1794, a daughter of Ambrose Cobb; all were natives of Halifax Co., VA. Anderson and Elizabeth moved to Giles Co., TN where they both died. The eldest of their six children was Elisha Thomas Condley who was born in 1814 in Halifax Co., Va and emigrated with his parents when he was 16. He was married in 1837 in Giles Co. to Elizabeth BECK who was born there in 1823. Elisha then moved his family to Hickory Co., MO where he became a successful hardwood merchant. He was a member of the Christian Church, a Democrat and a past master of a Masonic fraternity. He and Elizabeth were parents of:

1. Ann E. Condley - married V. S. WILLIAMS
2. Calvin M. Condley - died of smallpox aged 21 in St. Louis while serving in the Federal Army
3. Mary Condley - married John B. IHRIG
4. Beverly Condley - died aged 4 years
5. Martha Unica Condley - married Eli Thomas RAY

Jordan Lorenza Rhea (spelled Ray in most records) was born c1825 in Tennessee to parents who were born in Virginia. He was married c1843 (possibly in Sumner Co., TN) to Elizabeth Jane MASSEY who was born c1825 in Wilson Co., TN, daughter of Eli M. and Mary DAVIS Massey. He settled with relatives and friends in the area of North Prairie near Cross Timbers in Hickory Co., MO. He died c1890 and Elizabeth died c1889 at Fristoe, Benton Co., MO. In the 1850 Wilson Co., TN census, Jordan was living in the 19th Civil District. Family records indicate the family lived in Sumner Co., TN during the period of 1843-50. The 1860 Census of Hickory Co., MO gives their children as:

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1. Eli Thomas Rhea/Ray - born c1843 | 5. Malinda J. Ray - born c1853 TN |
| 2. Archibald H. Ray - born c1844 TN | 6. Martha E. Ray - born c1855 TN |
| 3. Mary A. Ray - born c1848 TN | 7. Elizabeth S. Ray - born c1857 MO |
| 4. John F. Ray - born c1850 TN | 8. Charity H. Ray - born c1859 MO |

By 1870 the Jordan L. Ray family is listed in Benton Co., MO with the addition of Jordan Lorenza, Jr., born 1868. Charity was not listed in this census.

SURVEY BOOK A, SHELBY COUNTY, TENNESSEE
 Abstracted from microfilm of the original
 by Jean Alexander West

It has become evident that many of the landholders here were absentee owners, but some entries are called "occupant entry", which indicates that the owner lived in the area. Several of the entries include the words "an Act of the General Assembly of the State on December 30th 1829, providing for the relief of the occupants south and west of the Congressional Reservation line..." This Act stated that all who were bona fide residents might have any amount of land upon which they had settled or "made improvements", as much as 200 acres and no less than 25 acres, unless prior claims had precluded it. For further information on this law, see Records of the General Assembly of Tennessee, 1829, Chapter 22, Section 2.
