OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

Announcements of several new tools of our trade have come to this office recently. One of major importance is the resumption of census microfilm rental by the National Archives and Records Service. Individuals will not be able to order microfilm directly, but they may request their public libraries to order film from the company which has contracted to handle the rentals. For details, ask your librarian to write Census Microfilm Rental Program, P.O. Box 2940, Hyattsville, MD 20784.

Another good tool might be a correspondence course in genealogy. Brigham Young University offers Independent Study Programs with courses designed for home study. Write BYU Department of Independent Study, 206 HCEB, Provo, UT 84602 for a brochure.

Do you need research in Ireland? The Farset Genealogical Society has been formed to "forge stronger, more personal links between Ulster and her children..search will be carried out by trained teenagers, under supervision." Each member will be assigned a researcher who will carry on regular correspondence, handle queries, send a surname interest list and magazine and various pertinent lists. The annual fee is $40.00. Your family details & fee may be sent to Deirdre Speer BA, Farset Genealogical Soc., Ainsworth Community Centre, 117 Mayo St., Shankill Rd., Belfast BT 13 3AZ, N.Ireland.

There are three opportunities for seminar/workshops. American Family Records Assn. and Univ. of MO at Kansas City will host Paul Anderock and Nettie Shriner-Yantis at a conference on July 22 & 23 - "New Technology in Genealogy". The address for further information is AFRA - UMKC Gen. Conference, 435 Haag Hall Annex, 5100 Rockhill Rd., Kansas City, MO 64110. The MO State Gen. Assn. and The Gen. Soc. of Central MO will hold a joint Conference on Missouri Records the week of August 8-13 at Columbia. They offer five libraries for research, exhibits and vendors booths, programs on MO history, conferences with four experts in various areas, and a photographer to copy old pictures on the spot. Write to MOSGA, c/o Gen. Soc. of Cent. MO, P.O. Box 26, Columbia, MO 65205 for details.

The third seminar is sponsored by the Ellis County (TX) Gen. Society on 24 Sept 1983. It will be held at the Waxahachie Country Club, Waxahachie, TX and is limited to the first 150 registrants. Lloyd D. Bockstruck, of Dallas Public Library & Samford Univ. faculty, will speak on Colonial & Federal Land Records and Research in KY. Write ECGS Workshop, P.O. Box 385, Waxahachie, TX 75165 or call Oran Brown 214-937-4432.

The GOODLETT Reunion (always the 1st Sunday in July) will be over by the time you receive this issue, but you might like to contact the chairman for future plans. She is Mrs. B.H. Rowe, 204 Fairpark, Henderson, TX 75652. Remember, send SASE.

Donald L. Hamrick, Jr., Star Route, Box 102, Wilburn, AR 72179 is writing a book on the HAMRICK family & requests your Hamrick family information for inclusion therein.

BOOK REVIEWS

By Herman L. Bogan, Eleanor W. Griffin, Wanda C. James

EARLY ADVENTURES ON THE WESTERN WATERS, VOLUME II by Mary B. Kegley. 1982. Hard back. 515 pp. Indexed. Order from Kegley Books, P.O. Box 134, Wytheville, VA 24382. $33.50. ($34.78 in VA).

Truly a worthwhile sequel to Volume I, this excellent book contains information never before published - the first land entry book of Fincastle-Montgomery Counties and also the Commissioners' Records in regard to the settling of the land claims in the New River watershed of southwestern Virginia in the 1780's. Also included are marriage bonds and ministers returns for 1777-1830, a section on the social life on the Western Waters, and 64 family sketches; these are founding families of what is now Pulaski County, Virginia. As genealogical reference books go, this is of superb quality.

PREWITT-PRUITT RECORDS OF TENNESSEE by Richard A. Prewitt. 1982. Soft back. 212 pp. Indexed. Order from the author, 801 S. 5th, Grimes, IA 50111. $12.50.

County by county, the author shares with us all the Prewitt records he has found in Tennessee. The first Pruitt to reside in what is now Tennessee was William Sr. and family. He was in the Yadkin Valley in Rowan County, North Carolina in 1761. In 1767 he and son, Martin, joined Daniel Boone on his trip into Kentucky where they camped nine months on the Kentucky River. By 1770 he is living in Botetourt County, Virginia near Abingdon on the Holston River, the area formed into Fincastle County in 1772 and into Washington County in 1776-77. He followed the new settlements into East Tennessee from Virginia as early as 1779. By tracing this family, the author has shown us the typical migration into that area at that time.

NACOGDOCHES ARCHIVES 1835 Entrance Certificates compiled by Betty Fagan Burr. 1982. Soft back. 40 pp. Indexed. Order from E. Simmons Books & Etc., 2242 West Bay Area Blvd., Friendswood, TX 77546, $9.95.

The Nacogdoches Archives is a collection of rare documents, letters, diaries and loose leaf material (much of it in Spanish) which is housed in the Archives Division of the Texas State Library in Austin, Texas. The Certificates of Entrance were needed for admission to settle in Texas under colonization laws of Coahuila and Texas in 1825. New settlers were required to prove their christianity, morality and good habits by a certificate from authorities where they formerly resided. Given here is the bearer of the certificate, type of certificate, marital status, date and name of witness.

ROHRBACH GENEALOGY VOL. III by Lewis Bunker Rohrbach. 1982. Hard back. 376 pp. Indexed. Order from Mr. Rohrbach, 43 Sea St., Rockport, ME 04856. $34.95.

Johann Reinhart Rohrbach, the immigrant ancestor of most of the Rohrbachs (various spellings) of West Virginia and ancestor of many of those in the western United States, was one of the oldest Rohrbach immigrants to America from Germany. Early in the spring of 1749, soon after he turned 50 and only slightly more than a year after his second marriage, he decided to emigrate. This book contains all known descendants; descendants of daughters are included for one generation out of the Rohrbach name. Approximately 11,000 persons are indexed.

BETWEEN THE EIGHTIES, TIFFIN, OHIO 1880-1980 by Myron B. Barnes. 1982. Hard back. 328 pp. Indexed. Order from Seneca County Museum Foundation, Inc., P.O. Box 216, Tiffin OH 44883. $24.50.

This volume represents the culmination of Mr. Barnes' decade of research into Tiffin's fascinating past. It fills a major void which for a long time has troubled local citizens, especially librarians, who needed a good reliable source book on Tiffin's history during the last one hundred years. Older works stopped at 1880 just when Tiffin entered its most exciting era. Tiffin industries, community agencies, religion, schools and medical advancements are noted. How Tiffin was affected by major events is also discussed: the 1913 flood, World War I, the Roaring Twenties and the New Deal and Depression. Myron Barnes is proud of his town and writes with unconcealed admiration for its people and their institutions in this Seneca County town.

GEORGE ROGERS CLARK AND HIS MEN, MILITARY RECORDS, 1778-1784 compiled by Margery Heberling Harding. 1981. Hard back. 244 pp. Indexed. Order from the Kentucky Historical Society, Frankfort, KY 40602. $24.95.

During the Revolutionary War, the British and Indians in the Northwest Territory were subdued by George Rogers Clark. The records of his campaigns in that area and his muster rolls have been preserved. They list the soldier's name, rank, date of enlistment and discharge, and comments such as 'Deserted' or 'Killed'. Also given is length of time served and amount of pay due. This book is a guide to those Illinois or Clark Papers which are located in the Virginia State Library. The pay rolls, muster rolls and pay abstracts represent only a portion of existing manuscripts relating to Clark; therefore sources for further reading are suggested.

METROPOLIS OF THE AMERICAN NILE Memphis and Shelby County by John E. Harkins. 1982. Hard back. 222 pp. Indexed. Order from West Tennessee Historical Society, P.O. Box 11046, Memphis, TN 38111. $24.95.

As the Mississippi, America's own Nile, meanders past southwestern Tennessee, it flows by the Fourth Chickasaw Bluff. Here sits the city of Memphis, named for the ancient capital of Egypt and surrounded by richly historic Shelby County. Dr. Harkins, Archivist of the Memphis and Shelby County Archives, has blended fact and fables of the fledgling frontier into boom town progress and contemporary metropolis by using readable prose and numerous pictures. The illustrations, at least one to every page, range from etchings, drawings and maps to the earliest tints and photographs and modern color plates. One chapter, Partners in Progress, is dedicated to business and industry in the city. This is a collectors' item, certainly for Memphians.

PERQUIMANS COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA DEED ABSTRACTS 1681-1729 by Weynette Parks Haun. 1983. Soft back. 160 pp. Indexed. Order from author, 243 Argonne Dr., Durham, NC 27704. $20.00.

Ms Haun found the usual faded ink and torn pages, and that early clerks had rewritten many of the deeds and evidently also had trouble deciphering handwriting. The index includes not only surnames, occupations, place names, rivers and branches and burial grounds, but many unusual items as well. Albermarle County is not included in the index, and all precincts are treated as counties. This is a welcome book on early Perquimans County.

MARRIAGE AND DEATH NOTICES FROM THE CHARLESTON OBSERVER 1827-1845 compiled by Brent Holcomb. 1980. Hard back. 283 pp. Indexed. Order from author, Box 21766, Columbia, SC 29221. $18.00.

The Charleston Observer, a Presbyterian newspaper, covered a wide territory by exchanging with several papers and copying notices appearing in them, circa 1827-1845. The notices cover some areas of North Carolina, Georgia, and Alabama as well as South Carolina. Used in conjunction with volumes already published on the Southern Christian Advocate and the Lutheran Observer and on Southern Lutheran, this volume can help locate rather obscure persons and family connections.

THE GENEALOGY OF RANDOLPH S. MURFF by Paul B. Murff. 1982. Hard back. 419 pp. Indexed. Order from A Press, Inc., P.O. Box 8796, Greenville, SC 29604. $26.85.

Over 3,600 names are found in the newly revised Murff book. Born in South Carolina in 1784, Randolph S. Murff fathered twelve children. They all married in South Carolina and six remained there while six moved to Monroe County, Mississippi. Their descendants have been recorded in almost every state in the nation. This reprint contains corrections and additions to the original edition of 1955. Many family lines have been updated to 1982.

INDEX of The Berryhill Family in America by Wanda Clayton James. 1983. Loose leaf. 15 pp. Order from MS James, 3225 Tena Ruth Cv., Memphis, TN 38118. $3.75.

The original book was published by Virginia Brittain in 1968 without an index. Available now is a full name index for Berryhills and a surname index for other families in the volume. Photographs are indexed also. See "Ansearchin'" News Vol. 28, #1, p. 8 for additional information on the book.

CHOWAN COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA COUNTY COURT MINUTES, PLEAS AND QUARTER SESSIONS 1730-1745 by Weynette Parks Haun. 1983. 155 pp. Indexed. $17.50.
JOHNSTON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA COUNTY COURT MINUTES (COURT OF PLEAS AND QUARTER SSESSEIONS) 1831 thru 1834 BOOK XVI by Weynette Parks Haun. 1983. 138 pp. Indexed. $16.50.
CRAVEN COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA COUNTY COURT MINUTES (COURT OF PLEAS AND QUARTER SESSIONS) 1742-1748 BOOK III by Weynette Parks Haun. 1983. 158 pp. Indexed. $17.50.
 Each book soft back. Order from Ms Haun, 243 Argonne Dr., Durham, NC 27704

The first extant book of Chowan County Court Minutes is published in Margaret Hofman's GENEALOGICAL ABSTRACTS OF DEED BOOKS CHOWAN PRECINCT, NORTH CAROLINA 1696 to 1723 (printed in 1972). Unfortunately the court records from July 1719 through 1729 are missing. Inventory of estates, deeds, executions, judgements, etc., are to be found in this volume and continue covering the county from 1730 to 1745.

Johnston County court minutes are a rich source of information. Juries, deeds, legatees, diverse personal information of many kinds are all to be found here. The compiler, in addition to the surname index, prints surnames in bold type on each page which makes for easy identification. The original document is not numbered, but MS Haun has assigned each page a number.

This Craven County volume is another in Weynette Haun's coverage of North Carolina records. It is transcribed from the original on microfilm in the North Carolina Department of Archives and History in Raleigh, North Carolina. One is cautioned to be aware of the problems of look alike letters in deciphering the originals. Care has been taken to reproduce the signature "marks" and "brands" found in the records. Any one of MS Haun's county volumes are valuable sources; collectively, she is presenting and preserving a remarkable set of records.

ORANGEBURGH DISTRICT, SOUTH CAROLINA RETURNS IN PARTITION FROM THE COURT OF EQUITY 1824-1837 by Brent Holcomb. 1982. Hard back. 96 pp. Indexed. Order from A Press Inc., P.O. Box 8796, Greenville, SC 29604. $19.85.

Of interest to genealogists is this, the only, volume that survived the courthouse or office fire of 1865 which distroyed nearly all of the Orangeburgh District records up to that time. Included in this book are references to records as early as 1771, wills, deeds and plats. There are many marriage references and cases involving relationships within families, which is important since South Carolina did not record early marriages as many other states did. If your family lines happen to swing through the Low Country of South Carolina you may find this book invaluable in linking old colonial and state records with records taken since the fire.

TALKING TOMBSTONES, Pioneers of Washington County, Oklahoma by Ruby Cranor. 1983. Soft back. 200 pp. Indexed. Order from author, History Room, Bartlesville Public Library, 6th and Johnstone, Bartlesville, OK 74003. $9.00.

Written, edited and indexed in 1974, this book is about the early pioneer settlers of the northwestern portion of the Cherokee Nation before Oklahoma became a state. This printing makes available information about the Osages, Delawares, Cherokees, and the early white settlers; when and where they lived and where they are buried. There is a wealth of information here. Also given is a bonus listing of the cemeteries in Washington County with a surname index and maps pinpointing locations.

FAYETTE COUNTY, TENNESSEE MARRIAGES 1838-1857 compiled by Helen Smothers Swenson and Frances Terry Ingmire. 1981. Soft back. 49 pp. Indexed. Order from E. Simmons Books & Etc., 2242 West Bay Area Blvd., Friendswood, TX 77546. $12.95.

Fayette County was created from the eastern part of Shelby County and the western part of Hardean County in 1824. On the northern boundry is Tipton and Haywood Counties. The southern boundry is the stateline of Mississippi. The marriages are listed chronologically and many of the later ones were never returned by the Ministers to the courthouse. The compilers note that many of the 246 Ministers performing marriages in Fayette County between 1838 and 1857 were traveling clergymen, which accounts so many times for the marriages to show NO RETURN.

GENEALOGICAL EXCERPTS From Gospel Preachers Who Blazed The Trail by Patsy R. Clark. 1983. (First published in 1911 by C.R. Nichol.) Soft back. 68 pp. Indexed. Order from Clark's Place, 5712 Wilkes Dr., Fort Worth, TX 76119. $11.50 (plus 5% sales tax in TX).

This unique little book was compiled circa 1908-10, first published in album form in 1911, then again fifty years later under the title GOSPEL PREACHERS WHO BLAZED THE TRAIL, and is now offered with an index in 1983. Found in a church library, Clark discovered it contained four hundred biographies, hundreds of genealogical facts and realized its worth. These ministers were born from the early 1800's to 1887 in Alabama, Arkansas, Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee, Louisiana, Missouri, Virginia, Texas and foreign countries.

KENTUCKIANS IN MISSOURI by Stuart Seely Sprague. 1983. Hard back. 209 pp. Indexed. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 111 Water St., Baltimore, MD 21202. $18.50 (additional books 25¢ each postage and handling. MD residents add 5% sales tax).

As a basis for his work, Professor Sprague chose approximately sixty Missouri county histories notable for their reminiscences and first hand accounts of pioneer life. From the multitude of biographical and genealogical sketches therein, he has compiled this record of over 4,000 persons who were born in Kentucky, but who later migrated to Missouri, some by way of Ohio, Indiana or Illinois. Arranged under county of origin, the entries include the name, birthdate, parents' names and their dates and places of birth if known, the name of the Missouri county in which the migrant first settled and the earliest known date of his residence in Missouri.

GRUNDY COUNTY, TENNESSEE MARRIAGES 1850-1874 by James L. Douthat. 1982. Soft back. 45 pp. Indexed. Order from the author, 2504 Kell Rd., Signal Mountain, TN 37377. $8.50.

Grundy was formed in 1844 with Altamont the county seat then as it is today. The earliest marriage book remaining begins with 1850, except for one marriage in 1849. Some marriages are recorded more than once and not in order, but it was considered important to record them as taken directly from the manuscript. The spelling of names is taken as they appear in the original at the courthouse. Listed here is the couple married, the date the license was issued and the date and by whom solemnized.

PULASKI REVISITED by George Tuggle. 1982. Hard back. 128 pp. Order from Pulaski County Historical Society, Public Library Building, Main St., Somerset, KY 42501. $21.50.

This book is about Pulaski County, Kentucky and its county seat of Somerset. It is a series of brief remembrances about the town and county and the people who lived there, and features a selection of photographs. The major sources for the factual material are old newspapers and the personal recollections of the citizens of Somerset, Eubank, Science Hill, Burnside and rural Pulaski County. Described as a book about a time which no longer exists, the author does not wish it forgotten.

IN SEARCH OF YOUR BRITISH & IRISH ROOTS by Angus Baxter. 1982. Hard back. 304 pp. Indexed. Order from William Morrow & Co., 105 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10016. $15.00.

In a clear, concise guide to tracing your English, Welsh, Scottish and Irish ancestors, the author offers very valuable help. For example; included is information on the parish and civil registers of England and Wales, the location of wills and military records, the various counties of Wales and Scotland, the division of records between Eire and Northern Ireland, etc. If you have traced your family tree back to an immigrant, don't miss this book. It contains very readable and invaluable information.

BOOTHS IN HISTORY by John Nicholls Booth. 1982. Soft back. 231 pp. Indexed. Order from Mr. Booth, 12032 Montecito Rd., Los Alamitos, CA 90720.

The author declares that almost any Booth is apt to be asked at least once, "Are you related to John Wilkes Booth or the Salvation Army Booths?" With great facility he carries you through his own family tree, ranging from England to Africa to Canada. The rest of the book focuses as the title states, "Booths in History". Truly an unusual book, if your name is Booth. Don't miss reading it.

CHARLES KILGORE OF KING'S MOUNTAIN by Hugh M. Addington. Reprint of 1935 edition. Hard back. 182 pp. Indexed. Order from Dan Crowe, 2361 Hiwassee, Kingsport, TN 37664. $10.00.

Of five Kilgore brothers at King's Mountain this little book deals exclusively with the one, Charles. He married Winnie Clayton and most of their children were born in North Carolina. However, in 1773, they settled in Washington County, Virginia which later became Russell and then Scott County. The author has devoted a chapter to each child and their descendants. Some of the related names are Simpson, Porter, Green, Gillenwater, Gray, Nickles, Culbertson, Alley, McConnell, Dings, Strong, Elliott, and Broadwater.

1850 MARION COUNTY, TENNESSEE CENSUS transcribed by James L. Douthat. 1982. Soft back. 60 pp. Indexed. Order from Mr. Douthat, 2504 Kell Rd., Signal Mountain, TN 37377. $11.00.

Following the Treaty of 1817, the region now called Marion was opened for settlement. In 1833, with the removal of the Cherokee Indians from the eastern territories, more land was added: namely Battle Creek and land south of the Tennessee River to the Georgia-Alabama line. Because the handwritten census is sometimes very difficult to interpret, it is suggested that this listing be used as a tool to further examination of the microfilm. The Marion County Census is unique in that it is one of the very few in the country for that date which gives the religious preference of the adult individuals.

RUGG-HOLT GENEALOGIES compiled by Mary Rugg Dobbins Fulton. 1981. Hard back. 217 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Paul Fulton, Rt. 6, Box 15A, Booneville, MS 38829. $22.00.

John Rugg, emigrant ancestor, was in Watertown, Massachusetts for a time before settling in Lancaster, Massachusetts in 1654. Some related families are Priest, Garfield, Wilder, Houghton, Gardner, Smith, Mason, Wells, Gleason, Ross, Goodenow, Miller, Ball, Knapp, Browne and Fuller. William Holt emigrated to Connecticut circa 1639. Some Holt related families are Hemenway, Austin, Sayer, Blakeslee, Lupton, Tuttle, Grannis, Todd, Stickney, Darbyshire, Wincom and Wyatt. The appendix includes a diary of a Holt descendant in Kenosha, Wisconsin in the 1860's. Many photographs of tombstones, some dated late 1690's, are included with some early Connecticut and Massachusetts church histories.

ROSTER OF SOUTH CAROLINA PATRIOTS IN THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION by Bobby Gilmer Moss. 1983. Hard back. 1017 pp. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., 111 Water St., Baltimore, MD 21202. $45.00.

This book resulted from a desire to know more about the rank and file soldiers (about 26,417) who fought in the many battles and skirmishes in South Carolina. When the author first began his research he discovered that neither the federal nor state governments have Revolutionary War records that are one hundred per cent complete. Some are housed in federal or state archives, or in possession of Historical Societies, libraries, private collectors or some evidently lost forever. The patriots are listed here alphabetically with sources of documented service given and birth, death and marriage data when known. This book represents the first serious attempt to collect all the known records and make them available in one source.

CEMETERIES OF JEFFERSON COUNTY, ALABAMA VOLUME I compiled by Marilyn Davis Hahn. 1982. Soft back. 295 pp. Indexed. Order from Tutwiler Collection, Birmingham Public Library, 2020 Park Place, Birmingham, AL 35203. $19.95.

This book contains records from 100 cemeteries and burial sites in Jefferson County and is the first volume in a planned series. When this project was first conceived, the decision was made to start with the smaller cemeteries, those without an office to maintain burial records, knowing that they could be the first to disappear. This one and the second volume include family burial grounds, church cemeteries and smaller community cemeteries. Later volumes will cover the larger cemeteries. The names appearing in this volume are in alphabetical order, giving the date of birth and death, and the number of the cemetery, corresponding to an indexed listing of the cemeteries. Directions are given for finding each cemetery and a map of the county is included to assist in location.

CORRECTION: Vol. 30, No. 1, p. 5 - OUR BERRY PATCH, the author's name should read W. Ross Berry.

THE LEWIS FAMILY OF MT. HOLLY AND THE ARK-LA-TEX by John Lewis, Corinne Price, Elizabeth Smith, and Claudie Cargill. 1978. Soft back. 185 pp. Indexed. Order from Cargill, Rt. 5, Box 248, Ruston, LA 72170. $11.50.

The purpose of this volume is to relate the Lewis Family in Virginia to the family the authors actually know about, John Lewis and wife, Mary, who came from Hancock County, Georgia with their family of children and relatives to Alabama. Here they lived for about thirty years and then began moving on into Arkansas, where they finally settled in the western part of Union County. John Lewis had obtained bounty land in Arkansas for his service in the War of 1812.

OUR ANCESTORS AND KINSMEN compiled by Max W. Camp. 1975. Hard back. 125 pp. Order from Mr. Camp, 29590 Hoover Rd., Warren, MI 48093. $16.00.

This small volume of excellent quality is devoted to the Shelbys, Polks, McLartys, Perkersons, Tarpleys and Camps. Particularly interesting is the Evan Shelby family from Wales who first came to Pennsylvania, then to Maryland; family members ventured into Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, etc. The Polk family includes James Knox Polk, the 11th U.S. President. The McLartys in Scotland, the early Perkersons in North Carolina, the Tarpleys of Virginia and the Camps from England all are a part of Mr. Camp's heritage.

COPELAND, BOSTICK, PATTON, AND ALLIED FAMILIES by Virginia Copeland Jantz. 1981. Hard back. 430 pp. Indexed. Order from author, Rt. 1, Box 1453, Waco, TX 76710. $25.00.

This book traces the descendants of James Copeland (1773-1819) from Ireland, to Newberry District, South Carolina, to Williamson County, Tennessee. Included are his children: Jane Champ, Cynthia Hopkins, Sarah Davis, Rebecca Still, Samuel Meredith Copeland and Dr. John Benson Copeland. The Bostic family is traced in several lines from William who died in Goochland County, Virginia, in 1740. The Patton family begins here with Robert Patton who died in Rowan County, North Carolina, in 1772. Descendants of these people are traced up to present generations. Other major lines are Martin, Clement, Thompson and Cobb.

INDIAN RAIDS AND MASSACRES OF SOUTHWEST VIRGINIA by Luther F. Addington and Emory L. Hamilton. Hard back. 155 pp. Order from Dan Crowe, 2361 Hiwassee Dr., Kingsport, TN 37664. $11.00.

Many Indian stories from the period 1755-1800's are featured in this compilation of articles originally published by the Historical Society of Southwest Virginia. Included are the Mary Draper Ingles tale, the murder of Daniel Boone's son near Cumberland Gap, the massacre of the Henry family, the captivity of Jenny Wiley, and others. The noted Indian renegade, Chief Benge, plays a part in many of these. Bits and pieces of these stories have filtered into family accounts over the years, but here they are complete.

A SOUTHERN MOSAIC, The Ancestors and Descendants of William G. Morgan and Rutha Sledge Morgan 1700-1982 by Mary P. Engles. 1983. Hard back. 359 pp. Indexed. Order from author, 1024 Hicky, Forrest City, AR 72335. $25.00.

The author's earliest known Morgan ancestor, Phillip, was married and living in Prince George County, Virginia, in 1724. She traces the succeeding generations and also the related families of Tatom, Hobson, Sledge, and Bilbo from Virginia into Georgia and Alabama and on to Arkansas. Many family group sheets, photo copies of War records, transcripts of wills and estate inventories, and handsome photographs are included.

Beginning with Thomas Renshaw and his wife, Jane, of Baltimore County, Maryland, the author has garnered all available data on Renshaws in order to document her husband's family. Thomas' second son, Abraham, moved to North Carolina where he obtained a grant of five hundred acres on the Forks of the Yadkin. Other descendants made their way into Tennessee and Kentucky; the Reverend John Renshaw of Tennessee being one of these.

SURNAMES OF THE 1870 CENSUS, HANCOCK COUNTY, TENNESSEE

By Mary Ruth Shoop Hansen, 6664 West Belmont Ave., Fresno, CA 93711

Transcribed from Microfilm Roll Number 1533 - M 593

(Editor's Note - Last fall we began a correspondence with Mary Ruth Hansen concerning her transcribed copy of the 1870 census of Hancock County, Tennessee. It is a later date than we usually publish here, but after all, it is already over 100 years old. Mrs. Hansen sent us a copy of her 229 page work, and we feel that it is definitely a major contribution to research in East Tennessee. The book is in loose-leaf form, three-hole punched, printed on one side, indexed, listed by District, Post Office and family number. Each listing gives the name, age and state of birth for every person in the household, as well as the occupation and comment when listed. Some of the notes are "bound boy", "cripple", "orphan". Mrs. Hansen sells copies of her book for $28.00 plus $2.00 for delivery by United Parcel Service.

For the convenience of our readers, we have printed here [with Mrs. Hansen's permission] the surnames as listed in her index, followed by the number of times each name appears there.)

PEYTON/PAYTON WILL AND BIBLE RECORDS - Contributed by Martha Peyton Dunlop (Mrs. Scott), 604 Huron St., Shreveport, LA 71106

"I, John W. PAYTON, of the County of Wilson and State of Tennessee, being weak in body, but sound disposing mind and perfect memory, make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following: 1st, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Fanny Payton, the tract of land on which I am now living, and my black woman, Mary, and all her children now in my possession, together with their increase and also her choice of two head of horses out of my stock, two cows and calves, her choice also one yoke of oxen and as many hogs and sheep as she may think proper and necessary...together with all my household and kitchen furniture, and all my farming utensils...all the above mentioned property unto her during her natural life or widowhood."

2nd. He denied claim to a legacy, the amount not ascertained, of his wife, Fanny Payton, from her father, Dennis KELLY.

3rd. "My will is and I so decree that all my children who are yet unmarried: to wit, Joseph M., Thomas C., Sterling B., Elizabeth W. and George W. Payton...that each one of them receive and have paid unto them out of my estate three hundred dollars in money as they arrive at the age of twenty-one years, and likewise, the four last mentioned children have each one horse, bridle and saddle worth one hundred dollars each, as they arrive at the age aforementioned and as they marry, to receive and have delivered unto them such other articles for housekeeping as my two oldest sons, John M. and James H. Payton, have received, as the account I have against them will show, so that they may be made equal with John M. and James H. Payton...but should there be a few dollars difference in the accounts, it will not be material as all my children are to be equal. And further when all my above mentioned children be made equal in the benefits of my estate with my daughter Sinai P. WARNICK that then she receive an equal share with the other children upon the final settlement of my estate."

4th "As touching slavery, having some of those unfortunate people in my possession, and having to make some final disposition of them and having for years past, looked upon slavery as a moral evil, and I wish to place such of them as are under my control in as comfortable situation as the nature of the circumstances which surround them will admit; such are the laws of this State that they cannot be freed and continue and remain within the limits of this State. Therefore my will is and I so decree that all my blacks and their increase be continued in and with my family of children. I further wish and decree that my children learn all the young blacks to read the Scriptures but should they fail in so doing, then for my Executors to employ some person to teach them to read, and to pay for it out of my estate. And finally I would impress it upon the minds of all my children to keep and continue my said blacks in and with my family of children and to treat them with humanity, rendering their lives as comfortable as their condition will admit of; not to permit one of them to be sold out of the family except of his, her or their choice..."

5th. "My will is and I so decree that after the marriage or death of my beloved wife, that all my lands, stock, household and kitchen furniture together with all the farming utensils of every description be sold on a credit of twelve months and the net proceeds thereof to be equally divided amongst and between all my children ..." I hereby nominate and appoint my two sons, John M. and James H. Payton the sole Executors to execute and carry into effect this my last Will and

THE YOUNG FAMILY OF TENNESSEE BECAME CALIFORNIA PIONEERS - Contributed by Mrs.
Charles C. Pace, 2105 Laurelei Ave., San Jose, CA 95128

About 1806/7 Joseph YOUNG, his son, Samuel C. Young, and ? were in Rutherford Co TN where land that Joseph had improved was surveyed in 1808 and then granted him in 1812. In an 1817 deed Joseph gave his son, Samuel C., 100 acres of land. Samuel C. gave land to Thomas Young "for the love and goodwill I bear for him" with no relationship mentioned.

Rutherford Co TN issued a marriage license to Samuel C. Young and Nancy LEE/LEIGH 10 Aug 1823. Samuel Crockett Young was born 18 Jun 1800 and died 27 Oct 1878. Nancy Sarah Leigh was born 15 Apr 1806 in Rutherford Co TN and died 2 Apr 1883. She was the daughter of George Washington Leigh who was born in Virginia and a granddaughter of an emigrant from England. Her mother was Willmarthe HOWERTON, the daughter of Grief Howerton. George and Willmarthe married in Campbell Co VA in 1798.

In the fall of 1831 Samuel C., Nancy and three small daughters, Sarah Wilmurth, Elizabeth J. C. and Paulina T. A., moved to the southwest part of Jackson Co MO where five more children were born. On 4 May 1846 the Youngs, CALDWELLS and the HOOVERS started for California and were at Fort Bridger the same time as the DONNERS. Their wagon was one of the first through Weber Canyon, UT. Near Henifer, UT there is a marker erected for the 1846 explorers, which included the Youngs and the Harlan Party. Thanks to Irene PADEN's Prairie Schooner Detours we located and photographed it. They were the first to be personally guided over the Pass by Lansford HASTINGS, which was named for him. Their last child, George, was born a short time before starting over the Sierra Nevada Mountains. This was just before the snow halted the Donner party.

In San Jose, CA Samuel C. Young started the first livery stable, farmed and raised cattle. He bought and sold land that is now on the main streets of San Jose as well as outside the city. In the Young home in 1849 the First Methodist Church was organized by the Rev. William TAYLOR, using the Bible with the Young family records. This Bible has been given to the Methodist Church in San Jose.

The children of Samuel Crockett Young and Nancy Leigh were:

1. Sarah Wilmurth H. Young - born 31 Aug 1824 Rutherford Co TN; died 25 Jun 1857;

OBITUARIES FROM THE SOUTHERN STANDARD, ARKADELPHIA, ARKANSAS

Contributed by Allen B. Syler, 712 South 22nd, Arkadelphia, Arkansas 71923

Among the recent deaths from yellow fever, is that of Wm. E. Everett, brother-in-law of J.A. Higgins, of this place. The faithful telegraph operator in Memphis. October 12, 1878

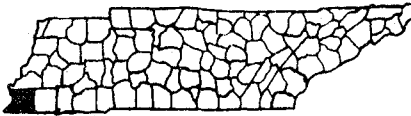

Rev. R.G. Johnson, in our city, learned last week the sad news of the death of his father, Mr. Granville M. Johnson, in Hickman County, Tenn. in the 82d year of his age. Another old Patriarch is gone, and Rev. Mr. Johnson has our sympathies. Feb. 12, 1881

Mrs. Nannie Elizabeth Wilkinson was borned in Savannah, Hardin Co., Tennessee Sept. 7, 1854 and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Hitchcock, moved to Arkadelphia, Arkansas in 1856, and again in the fall of 1879, they moved ten miles west of Arkadelphia. The deceased fell asleep in the arms of Jesus on May 12th, 1881. She had not enjoyed good health for the past year, and has been confined to her bed for the last five months...her devoted Mother and her husband read the Bible to her...I was with her during her affliction. W.B. Pullam

It has been our pleasure to know the deceased from the time she was a little girl, and our old citizens, and especially her school mates, well remember her as Miss Nannie Hitchcock. She professed religion in the great revival in the Baptist Church, and shortly afterwards joined the Methodist Church, which was the first year Rev. C. Pope was stationed in this city. In her death she was a victim of that terrible disease of consumption. Rev. W.J. Davis will preach her funeral the second sabbath in June at 11 a.m. in New Hope Methodist Church. May 21, 1881
