BOOK REVIEWS

GENERATIONS, An American Family by John Egerton. 1983. Hard back. 263 pp. Order from The University Press of Kentucky, 102 Lafferty Hall, University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY 40506-0024. $19.50.

In the fall of 1977, John Egerton set out in search of an American family whose lives over several generations could be seen as a microcosm of our national experience. His inquiries finally led him to the Lancaster, Kentucky home of Curtis Burnam Ledford, age 101, and Addie King Ledford, age 93. They had been married 74 years and counted nine surviving children, thirty-two grandchildren, and thirty-nine great grandchildren in their far flung family. With their assistance, Egerton began a family portrait that eventually would embrace nine generations and two and a half centuries. From their memories he has shaped a thoroughly original version of American social history and offers each of us a glimpse of our own past.

HICKLE HERITAGE 1971. Soft back. 134 pp. Indexed. $8.00.

CORNELIUS COMEGYS OF KENT COUNTY, MARYLAND 1982. Soft back. 186 pp. Indexed. $12.00.

THOMAS PARKE AND REBECCA HOOPER OF CHESTER COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA 1982. Soft back. 271 pp. Indexed. $17.50. All volumes by Ernestine Parke Moss. Order from author, 658 Stonewall, Memphis, TN 38107.

The Hickles volume is about Devault Hickles and his wife, Eve, who were born in Germany in 1730 and 1743. They had 12 children all born in Virginia; some of these children when grown remained in Virginia and some moved on to West Virginia and Ohio. The author has gathered all available information on these Hickles from records and from descendants. Included are some Cutshall-Glaze, Grove-Groves, Halbrook, and Parke records.

Cornelius Comegys came to America about 1654 from Lexmont, Holland, and was in New York for a few years. In 1658 he married at New Amsterdam, in the Dutch Reformed Church, Willimentje Gysbert. They lived near Jamestown, Virginia when their first child was born, then moved to Kent County, Maryland, where they lived the remainder of their lives. There were 11 known children. One of their descendants settled in Nova Scotia in 1767 and changed the spelling of Comegys to Cumming. Some connected families are: Tyler, Randell, Falconar, Hardiman and Morgan.

Thomas Parke was born in Ireland and came to Chester County, Pennsylvania in 1724. His wife's name was Rebecca; they had 10 children. With 20 years of research the author has catalogued their descendants. Information is also given on related families; some of these are Pyle, Chalfant, Hannum, Wierman, Halbrooks, Criffield, and Woodward. A few early Parke records of England and Ireland are included in this volume.

THREADGILLS BOOK II compiled by Janis H. Miller. 1983. Hard back. 325 pp. Order from Ms. Miller, P.O. Box 2245, Hudson, OH 44236. $35.00.

As a young lad, John Threadgill arrived in Norfolk, Virginia around 1732. He sired five sons, William, John, Thomas, Randolph (Randall) and George. All five served in the Revolutionary War and later migrated to Anson County, North Carolina. The youngest son, George, received land in Alabama for his war service, but nothing more is known of him. William, the eldest, was the most prosperous, owning much land in Anson County, but left only daughters and his line has been lost to researchers. This book concerns itself with records of the remaining three brothers, John, Thomas and Randolph.

LINKS, VOL. II THE RAMSEY FAMILY by Elizabeth Ramsey. 1983. Hard back. 302 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Ramsey, 29 S. State #716, Salt Lake City, UT 84111. $30.00.

The author has continued her research on the Ramsey family into Georgia and the Indian Territory of Oklahoma in this second volume of "Links." Georgia county records concerning Ramsey families form the body of this book. Ramseys on the Grayson County, Texas 1880 Census and on an Orange County, North Carolina 1768 petition are included. Some allied lines are: Carter, Coats, Culbreath, Dorsey, Duckworth, Grier, Grubbs, Herrin, Hicks, Jarrett, Malone, Oliver, Pardue, and others. Several good photographs are included.

MARRIAGES OF CLAIBORNE COUNTY, TENNESSEE 1838-1850 & CAMPBELL COUNTY, TENNESSEE 1838-1858 1983.
Hard back. 112 pp. Indexed. $15.00.
MARRIAGES OF McMINN COUNTY, TENNESSEE 1821-1864 1983. Hard back. 121 pp. Indexed. $15.00.
MARRIAGES OF RHEA COUNTY, TENNESSEE 1808-1859 1983. Hard back. 89 pp. Indexed. $15.00.
Each compiled by Edythe Rucker Whitley. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 111 Water St., Baltimore, MD 21202.

Anderson County's marriage records begin in 1838 and are fairly complete from that time to the present, but those for the period from 1801 to 1838 are apparently missing. The marriages are listed here in chronological order and give the names of the bride and groom, the date of issue of the marriage bond or license, and the date the marriage was performed.

The marriage volume of Claiborne and Campbell Counties, Tennessee comprises the earliest surviving marriage records of both of these strategically placed counties. The records date from 1838 when marriage registers came into official use in the state. Earlier records are apparently missing. Altogether some 2,000 marriages are listed here, each giving the names of the bride and groom, the date of issue of the license, and the date of that marriage.

The early marriage records of McMinn County are somewhat disorganized, and those appearing in this compilation are apparently all that exist. Most of the early marriage records on file in the county courthouse have been recorded in miscellaneous volumes, and these, along with some loose bonds for the period 1821-1838, form the basis of this work.

The records appearing in the volume of Rhea County marriages date from the formation of the county. They were transcribed from a microfilm copy of the bonds and licenses on file at the State Archives in Nashville and compared with the WPA transcripts of the records. The records give the names of bride and groom, the date of the bond or license, the date of the actual marriage, and the name of the officiating clergyman or Justice of the Peace.

INDEX TO PROBATE RECORDS OF COLONIAL GEORGIA 1733-1778 by R.J. Taylor, Jr., Foundation. 1983.
Soft back. 106 pp. Indexed. Order from the Taylor Foundation, P.O. Box 38176, Capitol Hill Station, Atlanta, GA 30334. $15.00

The Foundation was set up in late 1971 for the purpose of indexing and abstracting for publication, records relating to pre-1851 Georgia residents. In this volume are persons named in hundreds of wills, administrations, and related probate documents executed in colonial Georgia, which are now available for research at either the Georgia Department of Archives or the University of Georgia Library. Relevant documents, both loose papers and those recorded in bound volumes, have been carefully analyzed and indexed. A diligent effort has been made to correlate all documents relating to each estate.

FROM BOYT TO BOYETTE, The Descendants of Thomas Boyet by Wendy L. Elliott. 1982. Hard back. 252 pp. Indexed. Order from author, 4808 E. Garland St., Anaheim, CA 92807. $30.00

The earliest known records of any BOYT in America are found in Nansemond County, Virginia. Starting about 1740, most families had migrated south into North Carolina and were spelling their name BOYET. After 1850, the name is usually found as BOYETT, although the Mississippi branch of the family has kept the original BOYT spelling to date. It has been the author's intention to record documented evidence of the southern families, including only the descendants of Thomas Boyet, Sr. There will be a second volume to record various other Virginia-descended Boyets.

THE GRAY FAMILY compiled by Shirley Gray Buckeley. 1983. Soft back. 68 pp. Indexed. Order from Shirley Buckeley, Rt. 2, Box 261, McKenzie, TN 38201. $15.00.

This is a nine-generation history of the descendants of Joseph Gray, who was born in England, emigrated to America and settled in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. He later went to Rowan County, North Carolina, died there and was buried on Dutchman's Creek. His only known son, George, was born in 1740 in Bucks County and died in Fayette County, Kentucky. George was a Revolutionary War Soldier and married Mary Stuart in 1769 in Rowan County, North Carolina. References are listed for the earliest generations.

TOMBSTONE INSCRIPTIONS Woodstock, and Vicinity, Shenandoah County, Virginia by Duane L. Borden. 1983. Soft back. 446 pp. Indexed. Order from Mr. Borden, 5995 W. Arizona Ave., Denver, CO 80226. $30.00.

This is the fourth volume issued by the compiler and contains tombstone inscriptions transcribed from twenty-four church and community cemeteries located in the northern half of Shenandoah County, Virginia and generally within a fifteen or twenty mile radius of Woodstock. Included are the very large Massanutten Cemetery at Woodstock, and the large Cedarwood Cemetery at Edinburg, Virginia. Those using the name index of this volume are cautioned to search for variants of any surname, as the large percentage of the listed surnames are of Germanic origin and may be spelled many different ways by early recorders.

UNITED STATES CENSUS VAN BUREN COUNTY, TENNESSEE 1880 by the Van Buren County Historical Society. 1983. Soft back. 89 pp. Indexed. Order from the Society, P.O. Box 126, Spencer, TN 38585. $10.00.

We welcome this well-organized and easy-to-use 1880 Census of Van Buren County. In this volume, the names are followed by age, sex, marital status, relation to head of household, and places of birth for person and parents. This is the fifth census the Van Buren Historical Society has published. The others are: 1850, 1860, 1870 and 1900. These publications surely will make gathering family ties in Van Buren County a pleasure. The Society also has available Van Buren County Marriage Records 1840-1935 and the Van Buren County Historical Journal, Volume 1 and Volume 2. Please contact the Society for prices for these other offerings.

SEQUATCHIE FAMILIES by James L. Douthat. 1983. Soft back. 111 pp. Indexed. $12.00.
CROSSVILLE NEWSPAPERS 1888-1895 Volume 2 compiled by Patricia Barclay Kirkemine. 1981. Soft back. 81 pp. Indexed. $3.50. Order both books from Mr. Douthat, 2504 Kell Rd., Signal Mountain, TN 37377.

Sequatchie Families contains short biographical sketches on the various Tennessee families living in the valley prior to 1850. These families remained there for an extended period and had influence on the day-to-day life of the area. This volume contains the largest collection of marriage records left in existence for both Marion and Bledsoe Counties, Tennessee, prior to 1880. Among some of the family names are Alley, Anderson, Kirkland, Ladd, Moyer, Orme, Pryor, Sexton, Shelton, Skillern, Thurman and Wynn.

The newspaper articles are reprinted exactly as they appeared in the newspapers of the time: The Crossville Times, The Crossville Sentinel, Crossville Chronicle, and The Tennessee Times. They are chock full of names and adventures and make for very interesting reading indeed. Example: "Squire Proctor is stepping around as high as a blind horse, and when asked the reason why, said that baby girl was just a daisy."

TRUE & BEVERS (BEAVERS) FAMILIES by Odessa Morrow Isbell. 1983. Hard back. 302 pp. Indexed. Order from Ms. Isbell, Rt. 2, Box 191, Pilot Point, TX 76258. $42.00

The author's first known True ancestor in America was Martin True, Revolutionary War Soldier who was born in Virginia in 1755. Martin married Mary Hill in Halifax County, Virginia in 1791. The Beavers family descends from Spencer Beavers who lived in Wilson County, Tennessee circa 1806. Spencer married Martha Clack in 1779 in Henry County, Virginia. Included in this volume is data on the allied families of Clack, Glasscock, Guenzel, Hill, Johnson, Sladen and Pistole. Many good photographs, copies of various documents, and maps complete the volume.

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH DIRECTORY edited by Keith A. Johnson and Malcolm R. Sainty. 1983. Soft back. 243 pp. Order from Mrs. L. Kivitt, 2707 West Clark Ave., Burbank, CA 91505. $15.00.

The 1983 Directory is the fourth Genealogical Research Directory published by the Library of Australian History. Entries from Britain, Europe, Canada, U.S.A., Australia, New Zealand, and other countries list surname alphabetically with at least one date and place given; contributors' number is given by the surname, and the contributor's address is found in another numbered listing in the book. For forms on which to submit entries write to agent, Mrs. Kivitt, at the above address.

MARRIAGES OF ROANE COUNTY, TENNESSEE 1801-1838 compiled by Edythe Rucker Whitley. 1983. Hard back. 110 pp. Indexed. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 111 Water St., Baltimore, MD 21202. $15.00.

Most of Roane County's marriage records are preserved at the county courthouse in Kingston. The records in this work, however, derive not only from the courthouse records but from the list of marriages appearing in Emma Wells' History of Roane County. Since some of the original bonds and licenses have disappeared from the courthouse, the Wells book is an essential backup. Altogether the 1,500 marriage records given here include the names of the bride and groom, the date of the marriage bond or license, and the names of bondsmen.

INDEX TO 1860 FEDERAL CENSUS OF SOUTH CAROLINA 1982. Soft back. 255 pp. $22.00.

INDEX TO 1860 MORTALITY SCHEDULE OF SOUTH CAROLINA 1982. Soft back. 31 pp. $16.00. Both compiled by Jonnie P. Arnold. Order from A Press, Inc., P.O. Box 8796, Greenville, SC 29604

More than 80,000 persons are listed in this 1860 index for the whole state of South Carolina. Only the Head of Household is given, except in cases where someone of a different surname is residing in that house. In this case, only one person of that surname is indexed, but the use of asterisks indicates where there are others of the second surname. The district (county) of residence and page of census record follows each name. This is an invaluable tool for SC search.

This is an index to the Mortality Schedule, which recorded the names of all persons usually living at home who died during the twelve months immediately preceding June 1st of the census year. That schedule also contained the name of the deceased (and/or his owner), his age, sex, marital status, race, and profession and condition at time of death. Here one finds an alphabetical listing of persons, districts where death occurred and an assigned page number within the district.

THE COPELAND/COPLIN And Allied Families, Immigrants to Virginia by Herman L. Coplen, Jr. 1983 Hard back. 197 pp. Indexed. Order from Coplen Publishing, 3092 Sudbury Rd, Shingle Springs, CA 95682. $20.00

Several fine genealogies have been published on the New England branch of the Copeland family. However, with two exceptions, there are no published genealogies on the several Copeland families who immigrated from Scotland and England to Virginia in the 17th Century. This genealogy traces the descendants of William and Mary Copeland who arrived in Virginia, probably from Glasgow, Scotland, prior to 1650. Several of the Copeland families traced herein, including the author's, have changed their spelling of the name to Coplen, beginning about 1870 in Ohio. Coverage in this work is limited to those ancestors with birth dates of c1900 and earlier.

LAUDERDALE COUNTY, TENNESSEE MARRIAGES 1867-1886 compiled by Bettie B. Davis. 1983. Soft back. 203 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Gene F. Davis, 1610 Wheaton, Memphis, TN 38117 $10.00

This volume contains all the marriage records in the second and third books of Lauderdale County. The first book, covering August 1838 to January 1867, was published previously by the same compiler. The county's first book was written entirely by hand, whereas, these two books are made up of printed forms which the clerk completed and the applicant signed. These records have been arranged alphabetically by grooms' names with bride, bondsman and officiant, book and page, and dates as available. The appendix contains three indices, brides, bondsmen, and officiants, each color-keyed for the convenience of the researcher...a handy and very thorough work.

NEWBERRY COUNTY, SOUTH CAROLINA CEMETERIES Volume One compiled by George Carter Abrams. 1982. Soft back. 314 pp. Indexed. Order from The Newberry County Historical Society, Newberry, SC 29108. $20.00

Like other counties in this section of South Carolina, Newberry was formed from a part of the old Ninety Six District in 1785. Listed in this volume are 328 burial grounds with complete index. Sixty-four burial sites are in the Dutch Fork area north of Lake Murray in Lexington and Richland Counties. About 10% of the 15,117 names are markers of unnamed infants or just initials. The location of each is shown on an included map. It is advisable to secure a guide, however, if one wishes to visit a particular site in many of the remote areas.

The Tennessee Genealogical Society welcomes contributions of family records such as the above diary. Because many such records have been lost through fire, flood or other natural disaster, it is important to get the facts on file in several permanent locations. Even disinterest in genealogy has prompted loss of records. The TGS library vertical files are one good repository for copies of your original documents. Any data published by "Ansearchin'" News is on file in the Library of Congress and in various state and county libraries. Qualifications for publication in AN may be found inside the front page of every issue.

REVOLUTIONARY PENSION APPLICATION OF WILLIAM BRIMER - Submitted by Mrs. Lawrence A. Klingaman, P.O. Box 31315, Yukon Station, Jacksonville, FL 32230

While searching for her own ancestor's Revolutionary pension, Mrs. Klingaman ordered this pension of William BRIMER.

On 27 Jul 1832 William Brimer, age 73, appeared before Judge Ew^d SCOTT, Sevier Co TN and after being duly sworn made the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress of 7 Jun 1832.

While living in Wilkes Co NC about Jul 1777, he volunteered under Capt. Jacob FREE, Col. ARMSTRONG's Regt., Gen. RUTHERFORD's Brigade and marched against the Cherokee Indians to the head of the Catawba River; then went to the middle settlements, having a scrimmage with the Indians; then to the upper valley towns on the Hewassee River having several scrimmages with Indians; then down the Hewassee River and back again another way to Birmingham and little Chochota (?) to Cowan. He served three months being honorably discharged at Scotch Creek in the Neighborhood of Cowan but lost his discharge papers.

About Jul 1778 while living at the same place, he volunteered under Capt. William GALBREATH, Col. BREVARD's Regt., Gen. Rutherford's Brigade of NC militia and marched to Saulsbury to the high hills of Santee; on to near Monk's Corner near Charleston, SC; then to near Savannah, GA which was taken by the British before we arrived. We were in a scrimmage with the British near the mouth of Brier Creek, GA, Gen. ASH commanding. Served nine months and was discharged at Camp Hills, 9 Apr 1779 and discharge is enclosed.

Again in Washington Co NC, now included in Tennessee, about Sep 1780 he volunteered under Capt. Valentine SEVIER and Col. John Sevier; then marched to John's River near the head of Catawba River; then to King's Mt. where he was in battle of King's Mt. with Gen. Wm. CAMPBELL commanding. He thinks he served almost three months, but his discharge papers are mislaid. He has no documents proving the above statements and knows of no person living by whom he can prove his actual service. Sworn to in open court 27 Jul 1832.

William (X) Brimer

Mr. Michael WELLS, a clergyman residing in Sevier Co TN and Henry HOUK, residing same place, certify that they were acquainted with William Brimer and believe him to be 73 years of age and that his reputation is that of being a soldier of the Revolution. Sworn to on 27 Jul 1832, P. M. WEAR, Clerk.

On 18 Mar 1839 Elizabeth Brimer, resident of Sevier Co TN about 75 years old, swore that she was the widow of the identical William Brimer who was a private in the army of the Revolution and who was placed on the Pension list about 1833. She declared that she married William Brimer about 1784 and that he died on 10 Jul 1834. She produced sufficient evidence that she was the widow and was entitled to the pension that was due at his death. She further declares that she was the only wife of Wm. Brimer and that she has not married since he died.

On 6 Aug 1839 George McCOWN swore before H. M. THOMAS, acting JP, Sevier Co, that he had known the Brimer family since 1810, and at that time there were children living with them "about the age of twenty years or upward."

BAKER'S ITCHING FOOTE - Contributed by Russell P. Baker, Archivist,
Arkansas History Commission, Little Rock, AR

In an abandoned cemetery near Glenwood, Pike Co AR stands a grave marker with the following inscription:

Stephen Pelzer Baker
born Nov. 14 1815
died Sept. 13, 1885

Many years ago my grandmother, whose husband was a grandson of Stephen P. BAKER, told me a story which sparked my imagination. She spoke of a Baker ancestor whose last name was "FOOTE"; he had killed a man, fled to the wilds of the southern frontier and there married an Indian princess. At that time, he changed his name from Foote to Baker. Although the same story has been repeated for several generations, efforts to document its reliability have not surfaced.

Several researchers have located Stephen in the 1850 census of DeSoto Co MS, but the entry supplied no clues to this name change. Then I had the good fortune of locating his family bible. It confirmed the birth date on his grave stone and supplied the additional fact that he had been born in Maury Co TN. This new information is confirmed by the 1880 census of Clark Township, Pike Co AR where Stephen reported to the census taker that he was born in TN, his father in PA, and his mother in AL.

I know the names of two of Stephen's brothers and one of his sisters, and their records in the 1880 census gave these rather confusing results:

Sebastian Co AR - James J. Baker, 57 b TN, father b CT, mother b SC

Sebastian Co AR - Mahalia KING (sister of Stephen), 56 b TN, parents as above

Clark Co AR - Jonathan Baker, 60 b AL, father by NY, mother b NC

There are inconsistencies, and yet I had certain proof that they were siblings.

In hope of contacting descendants of James J., Jonathan or Mahalia, I placed a query in the Arkansas Family Historian. Mrs. Betty Mayberry of Fort Smith, AR (who was descended from James J. through a daughter named for his sister Mahalia) was able to supply a very vital piece of missing information - the names of James' mother and father. These came from a family bible record and were recorded as Edmond Baker and Rebecca PHILLIPS Baker.

This enabled me to locate the family on the 1830 census of Lawrence Co TN and in Marshall Co MS in 1840. They were listed on the state census of Pontotoc Co MS in 1837. The 1850 census of Ouachita Co AR enumerates the James Hughes family as including: Rebecca Baker 62 b NC, Mahala Baker 37, John M. Baker 31, Louisiana Baker 27, all b TN. Here is Stephen P. Baker's mother and some of her family. Edmond had evidently died. Rebecca does not seem to appear on the 1860 census of Arkansas, and must have died in the 1850s at a place and date unknown.

In a back issue of "Ansearchin'" News I found that one Edimon Baker received a pass in 1803 to travel down the Tennessee River through Cherokee lands near Kingsport, TN. However, the first definite mention of Edmond Baker is dated 1812 when he was one of the signers of a petition from early settlers in the Tennessee Congressional Reservation. Records of the War of 1812 revealed that Edmund Baker served as a private in Capt. William Creel's Co. of Tennessee Militia Infantry in 1814. This placed him in the area of Maury County several years before the birth of his son, Stephen.

I then came across what was to prove the first of several strange coincidences surrounding this family. In the marriage records of Williamson County, just north of Maury County, I found a marriage which was recorded on April 30, 1813 between Abraham Baker and Rebecca Phillips. Edmond and Rebecca's child, Mahalia, was born in Tennessee about 1813. Could this have been the record of their marriage? Might it possibly indicate that Edmond had yet to settle on a final alias?

I next turned to a book entitled, Footte Family, reprinted in 1974. On page 286 I found the information contained on the left below. On the right I have placed the data collected to date on Edmond Baker. Just another coincidence?

RECORDS OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH, MACON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Contributed by Harry M. Cleveland

The following church minutes were given to me by Mr. Harold Blankenship, former principal and biology teacher at Lafayette High School, Lafayette, Macon County, TN. Mr. Blankenship said these churches were commonly referred to as the "Upper" and "Lower" churches. The Upper Church was located just inside the Kentucky line near where the present Tennessee counties of Clay and Macon meet at the border. The Lower Church was located near present day Red Boiling Springs, Macon County, TN. Both churches are not in existence today. The minutes were copied from the original record book, and although the dates are not in chronological order, we record them here just as they were given to me.

So many persons from the state of Tennessee settled prior to 1850 in one section of what is today Saline Township, Sainte Geneviere County, Missouri, that it was called "NEW TENNESSEE". This fact is evident in the number of Tennesseans appearing in Saline Township's 1850 U.S. Census.
