OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

We welcome back our old friends to "Ansearchin'" and look forward to gaining more friends in the coming year. We have already made new contacts by visiting local area seminars and offering our publications for sale. The book-sellers' tables at such symposia are very popular gathering places, and we have been welcomed by genealogists who seem glad to be able to attach faces and names to a mailing address.

Some of you may notice a change in this issue of "Ansearchin'" News - it has only 48 pages. For technical reasons of his own, our printer says this will speed up our printing and collating. You will not suffer a loss from this change; you will receive three issues containing 48 pages each, and the fourth issue will have 56 pages plus the Surname Index, making in all 200 pages of genealogical material, plus some twenty-odd pages of index.

NOTICE: This request comes from our Sales Room volunteer who has charge of mailing. If you feel that your copy of "Ansearchin'" News is over due: (1) check to see if you have renewed your membership, (2) read carefully our publication schedule and mailing policies as printed inside the front blue page, (3) check your local post office to be sure it is not awaiting delivery. The post office will not forward a second or fourth class book, and it will also charge us for an address correction if you have failed to notify us that you have moved. We must then charge you $2.50 for handling, replacing and remailing.

By the time you receive this, the former Regional Archives Branches of the National Archives and Records Service (NARS) will have been reorganized and renamed. They are known collectively as "National Archives Field Branches" and individually as "National Archives-(City Name) Branch", i.e. "National Archives-Atlanta Branch." There are eleven field branches in cities across the nation. A wide variety of microfilm is available there, including U.S. District and Circuit Court records. Ask your local librarian for the branch which serves your area.

Another note of interest is that the Virginia State Library and Archives has a new address - Virginia State Library, 11th St. at Capitol Square, Richmond, VA 23219-3491. The location has not changed; only access to it has changed.

We have received word that the extensive personal genealogical library of the late Richard Lackey has been donated by his widow to the McCain Graduate Library at The University of Southern Mississippi, Hattiesburg, MS. Most of it is not available to the public.

BOOK REVIEWS

By Pauline C. Briscoe, Harry M. Cleveland, Julia C. Cleveland,
Doris Hardister, Wanda C. James, Louise T. Tyus

COLONIALS AND KINDRED by Bonnie Jeffers Rokas. 1984. Hard back. 358 pp. Order from Mrs. Rokas, 5785 Park Manor Dr., San Jose, CA 95118. $29.50.

In order to publish this book the author has recently concluded twelve years of research on thirty-four families: Banks, Royall, Isham, Randolph, Thomas Jefferson, Wilkinson, Bricken, Farmer, Hamilton, Chaudoin, Wilson, Vance, Wooldridge, Calhoun, Swan, Bays (Bois), Greene, Cod, Lillington, Cooke, Jones, Walker, Cotton, Bumpus, Hunter, Thompkins, Wood, Alley, Stinson, Drake, Spier, Berkeley, Vaughn, Jeffers. The book includes wills, census records, family charts and many other documents. The material is displayed in an interesting, easy to follow format which includes many pictures and Coats of Arms. This is a book with a lot of genealogical information from Colonial Virginia to the newer frontiers.

HUNDRED HUNTER COUSINS compiled by Harriett A. Chilton. 1976. Soft back. 28 pp. Indexed. Order from the compiler, 3108 Annandale Rd., Falls Church, VA 22042. $10.00.

This 8x11 mimeographed booklet is an intriguing genealogy of this Hunter family. Beginning with John Hunter I and his wife, Henrietta Davidson, it continues with their son, John II and his wife, Rachel McFarland. The third generation was Benjamin Hunter, Sr. and his wife, Elizabeth Fields; their thirteen children are the generation that provides the 100 first cousins. Each one is named with spouse and children. Concise and complete is this record of the descendants of John Hunter, who came to this country from Scotland circa 1730.

TOMBSTONE INSCRIPTIONS, New Market, Mt. Jackson and Edinburg Vicinities, Shenandoah County, Virginia compiled by Duane L. Borden. 1984. Soft back. 483 pp. Indexed. Order from Mr. Borden, 5995 W. Arizona Ave., Denver, CO 80226. $30.00.

To quote the compiler "a tombstone inscription, per se, does not guarantee that the spelling of the name is correct, nor that the death dates, birth dates and other data is correct. Therefore, it is advisable that these dates be verified from other sources". This neat, large print volume of tombstone inscriptions reflects many hours of dedicated cataloguing of fifteen cemeteries located in the southern half of Shenandoah County, Virginia, and two in Rockingham County, Virginia. It contains approximately 13,000 names. Write the compiler for data concerning four previous volumes of Shenandoah County, Virginia tombstone inscriptions.

SAMUEL KELSO/KELSEY 1720-1796 Revolutionary Patriot of Chester County, South Carolina compiled by Dr. and Mrs. Mavis Parriott Kelsey, Sr. 1984. Hard back. 683 pp. Indexed. Order from compilers, 2 Longbow Ln., Houston, TX 77024. $75.00.

Dr. Mavis Kelsey is offering an excellent genealogical history of the Kelsey family. His book was forty years in preparation. It starts with more than thirty pages of Kelso/Kelsey family information in Scotland and North Ireland, then continues with Samuel Kelsey of Chester County, South Carolina in 1720-1796 and traces his descendants. There are many related families such as: Hill, Jaggers, Jones, Mauldin, McAlexander, Mills, Moore, Morrow, Pagan, Reeves, Sealy, Stevenson and Wylie. Hundreds of war veterans from the Revolutionary War to the Viet-nam War are noted. It has 10,800 names from every state and twenty-three different surnames. It also contains some church history, a church-member roll and many cemetery notations. This handsome book, printed on acid-free paper, is a fine addition to any library.

"OLD 23rd DISTRICT" by Charles D. Robbins. 1984. Soft back. 99 pp. Order from Mr. Robbins, P.O. Box 1122, Paris, TN 38242. $8.00.

"Old 23rd District" is located between the forks of the Big Sandy and Tennessee Rivers in Henry and Benton Counties, Tennessee. It is now a U.S. Wildlife Refuge. This book is "oriented more toward genealogy", but its pages are filled with recollections of the older members of many intertwined families. Mr. Robbins is a captivating story-teller, and his style leads one to believe that this is a personal letter to the reader. However, he includes lists from census records, land grants and marriage records to substantiate his unraveling of the tangled branches of some fifty families. From North Carolina to Tennessee, this history is delightful.

FAMILIES OF WESTERN GEORGIA & NORTH ALABAMA (Daniel - Gibbs - Dunkin - McDowell - McDonald - Moore Families) 1980. Soft back. 258 pp. $23.00.

COMPTON 1634-1984 1984." Soft back. 257 pp. $25.00. Both volumes by Delton D. Blalock. Order from the author, Rt. 2, Box 420, Hanceville, AL 35077.

Six families, all related to the author's wife, are herein traced from Colonial times to the present. The Daniel family settled first in Virginia c1646 and migrated to the Carolinas. William Daniel, a Revolutionary Soldier, moved to Clarke County, GA. The Gibbs lived in Fayette County, GA and moved to Randolph County, AL. The Irish McDowells and early Moore ancestors also came from Georgia; some of Zachariah Moore's family moved to Cullman County, AL. Peter E. Duncan, born 1808 in South Carolina, lived in Georgia in 1840; some of his descendants settled in Cleburne County, AL. James McDonald, born c1720 in Scotland, came to Anson County, NC c1773; some of his descendants lived in Randolph County, AL. Allied families for these lines are: Bradbury, Doss, Tinney, Puckett, Pirkle, Alewine, Reid, Harrison, Ussery, Chairs, Thomas, Coursey, Privett, Kinney and Turner.

Mr. Blalock's second book has documented the genealogy of the Compton family and descendants: Phillips and Mayfield in Alabama; Henson in Tennessee; Corry and Yarborough in Texas. The Compton line goes back to England prior to William the Conqueror and is continued here with William Compton, who married Mary Bowne c1666. Unfortunately, the book is not indexed, but it is arranged in family groups with a lineage list which gives page numbers of each family.

MARRIAGE RECORDS OF WINSTON COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI Volume I 1834-1880 compiled by the Winston County Genealogical and Historical Society. 1984. Soft back. 240 pp. Indexed. Order from the Society, P.O. Box 387, Louisville, MS 39339. $17.00.

Included in this record are the marriages recorded in Winston County since its organization on 23 December 1833 through 16 April 1880, except for the period May 1875 to November 1875, for which no records were found. All participants' names are given, listed alphabetically by the grooms' names. An unusual feature, which is most welcome to the genealogist, is the inclusion of every permission to marry which has been copied verbatim. (X) indicates if a person was illiterate, and an asterisk indicates when a person of color was noted in the record. An alphabetized list of licensed ministers and a list of officiants concludes the text.

THE CHAMPION TRAILS IN AMERICA 1607-1976 by Bonnie Neal Smith. 1976. Spiral bound. 74 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Smith, P.O. Box 22918, San Diego, CA 92122. $12.00.

Mrs. Smith believes it is important for people to know some of the "history" that surrounds family migrations in order to understand why they ventured so far from their homeland. Beginning in England with Edward Champion, the immigrant to Virginia, the early family is traced into North Carolina 1656-1792, Tennessee 1792-1800, Alabama in the early 1800's, and Kentucky 1790-1800. She has presented history along with, charts, wills, military service records, land records, abstracts of deeds, and many other documents for ten family units and their descendants.

THE LOST TOWN OF BLEDSOESBOROUGH, TENNESSEE by Vernon Roddy. 1984. Soft back. 104 pp. Indexed. Order from Mr. Roddy, 204 Andrews Ave., Hartsville, TN 37074. $8.50.

Mr. Roddy, a newspaper writer and local authority on the area, has expanded and combined two of his essays to record for us the results of his extensive and thorough research. Although this book deals mainly with the rise and fall of one town, it gives the story of many other Cumberland settlements from 1795 to 1805. This town was "decreed-to-be" by the Tennessee State Legislature in 1797, but somehow what was decreed-to-be by law did not succeed. It did not take into account the people of the area. Mr. Roddy documents his work with valuable maps and petitions, local history and some newspaper accounts. He locates pathways to the site which would become Nashville and to upper Cumberland non-Indian settlements - that is Fort Blount, Walton's Ferry, Flynn's Lick, Gist and Dixon Springs.

THE OTHER BUNCH by Sharon B. (Almas) Swindell. 1984. Spiral bound. 300 pp. Indexed. Order from the author, 3046 Van Zandt, Drayton Plains, MI 48020. $22.00.

With the cooperation and help of many relatives the author has put together an interesting family history. She found roots from Hyde County, North Carolina going back to Switzerland, Ireland and England. Carson Swindle, the son of Caleb Swindle, his wife and five children, traveled from Caswell County, North Carolina to White County, Tennessee around 1820. Families allied to the Swindell/Swindle family are Clark, Knowles, Humphrey, Hutson, Webb, Hatfield and McCoy, and Zwingli. There are thirty pages of old family pictures. Many cemeteries of White County, old letters, Bible records, obituaries, marriage records and wills give details on many of the family members.

THE HIGHLAND SCOT CLARKS FROM THE ISLE OF JURA, SCOTLAND by Victor E. Clark, Jr. 1980. Soft back. 113 pp. Order from author, 14262 Southern Pines Dr., Dallas, TX 75234. $20.00.

This presentation of the Clark family traces them from the isle of Jura off the southwest coast of Scotland to their arrival in the Cape Fear area of North Carolina in 1739, then follows them to Bibb and Perry Counties, Alabama. Part I of the book is a step-by-step account of the author's research. Written as a letter to "Dear Fellow Descendants of Alexander Clark", it contains Bible records, wills, tax lists, and collected Clark data. Part II consists of lineage and family group charts garnered from a reunion of the descendants of Hugh McCrainie Clark, born 1809 in Cumberland County, North Carolina, and his wife, Cinthia Moarning Perkenon, born 1818 in Jackson County, Georgia. Some families allied to this Clark line are McLean, Hopper, Moon, DeWitt and Dunkin.

THE FAMILY OF SQUIRE AND MARY WRAY CHITWOOD by Margaret C. Pope. 1983. Hard back. 246 pp. Indexed. Order from Ms. Pope, 813 St. John Ave., Dyersburg, TN 38024. $30.00.

This is not an all-inclusive Chitwood genealogy, but is devoted to descendants of the immigrant ancestor, Matthias Chetwood and his wife, Mary Key. Matthias was born 1681 in England and died 1755 in Cumberland County, Virginia. This line is carried forward through their son John of Franklin County, Virginia and his wife, Elizabeth Tillotson, to their son William Chitwood and his wife, Susannah Nowlin, the parents of Squire. Squire is the second son of William and Susannah and was born between 1778 and 1782 in Bedford County, Virginia. Squire married Mary Wray in 1801 and they lived near Rock Mount, Virginia and in Dyer County, Tennessee in the 1830s. Separate chapters are devoted to their children. This line is charted for eight generations (approximately 200 years) covering 3,402 descendants.

HUMPHREY COUNTY, TENNESSEE MARRIAGE RECORDS 1861-1888 compiled by Marjorie Hood Fischer and Ruth Blake Burns. 1984. Soft back. 209 pp. Indexed. Order from RAM Press, 1239 Coventry Rd., Vista, CA 92083. $16.00.

Although Humphreys County was established in 1809, Court House fires in 1876 and 1898 have destroyed most of the county records. Those found in this volume were abstracted from Marriage Books A, C, D, F, and G. Regrettably Books B and E are missing. Marriages are arranged alphabetically by the groom's name, spelled as he signed the bond. Each abstract includes name of bride, date solemnized, person who performed the ceremony, date of bond, and name of the bondsman, Marriage volume and page number. Not all entries contain all the items listed above. There is an index of brides, bondsmen and different spellings of grooms' names.

A KENTUCKY PIONEER FAMILY, The Lawrences and Their Kin by James Reed Lawrence, Jr. Soft back. 291 pp. Indexed. Order from Mr. Lawrence, P.O. Box 32, Deatsville, KY 40016. $25.00.

The author became interested in family history while going through old papers that had belonged to his father. Research led him to his Revolutionary ancestor, James Lawrence, silversmith, and his ten sons, most of whom fought in the Revolution. From Augusta County, Virginia he traced the family into Mercer County, Kentucky, where they erected one of the earliest stations. An interesting map locates and names 23 of these family fortresses between the Salt and Kentucky Rivers. In addition to family records the book includes articles on the ancient Lawrence family and a bibliography of 147 sources for research on Lawrence and allied families. Many documents, family charts, pictures, and newspaper clippings are reproduced, all very clearly.

LEST WE FORGET A Guide to Genealogical Research In The Nation's Capital published by the Annan-dale Stake of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. 1982. 104 pp. Order from and make check payable to Lest We Forget, P.O. Box 89, Annandale, VA 22003. $7.00.

This vital guide presents detailed information on the genealogical records housed in Washington, D.C. and gives directions and suggestions for using them. A map shows locations and addresses of buildings and hours. At the Archives, DAR Library, The National Genealogy Society, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and Library of Congress one finds: records available at each, procedures, requests by mail, costs, and helpful hints for census, military, land records, passenger lists, mortality schedules, Indian records, District of Columbia residents and court records, naturalization records, city directories, rare books and much, much more. Anyone visiting Washington for research or anyone corresponding with the repositories will find this a valuable preparation tool.

CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS OF CARTER COUNTY, OKLAHOMA Vol. I by Sandra Haney Tedford and Allene Banks Haney. 1982. Soft back. 217 pp. Indexed. Order from Search-N-Print, P.O. Box 777, Farmersville, TX 75031. $14.75.

Found in this volume is a selection of the smaller cemeteries of Carter County. Many of those listed are "lost or abandoned", and many are on private property or in hard to find locations. The cemeteries were copied in their entirety. The authors hope this book will be a help to all those persons whose ancestors were early settlers in this part of the Indian Territory. In many cases a gravestone is the only record that a person lived or died. All surnames are included in the index. Also indexed are names that appear to be maiden names. Buck Irwin and James Family cemeteries in Murray County are also listed.

FRANKLIN COUNTY, TENNESSEE 1890 TAX LIST by Jeanne Ridgway Bigger. 1984. Soft back. 98 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Lona Koltick, Maplewood Apts. #6, Winchester, TN 37398. $10.00.

Most of the 1890 Census schedules were destroyed by fire. The 1890 tax list is important as a substitute to the missing census. In some cases, tax records are the only source by which heirs can be proved. The list is by district, including acres owned, town lots, the name of the person who paid the tax for someone else, and whether a poll tax was paid. If a poll tax was paid, the person was age 21-50. If no poll tax was paid, he either lived elsewhere, or was excused for illness, injury, financial difficulty, or because of other handicap. These records furnish clues for compiling a family history. The book is indexed by district and by a master index at the end of the book.

SUMNER COUNTY, TENNESSEE PROBATE DATA 1787-1808 abstracted by Gale W. Bamman and Debbie W. Spero. 1984. Soft back. 80 pp. Indexed. Order from Gale W. Bamman, P.O. 8161, Nashville, TN 37207. $12.00.

Sumner County was created in 1787, and the wills survive from 1788. However, the first surviving book of inventories, settlements, and guardian accounts begins in March 1808. To cover the period of missing records (April 1787-June 1808), the authors have extracted all probate references found in the County Court Minutes April 1787-March 1805. No Court minutes survive for June 1808-December 1808, except for a volume of Daily Pleas. The source for that period has been the book of Executors, Administrators, and Guardians Bonds and Letters, July 1796-August 1816. Sumner County at this time encompassed all or part of at least fifteen present counties, and these records should be of interest to all searchers of north central Tennessee.

RACHAEL BARKLEY'S CHILDREN A History of the Finney Families (Southern Branch), Second Edition by Edna B. Reece. 1978. Hard back. 237 pp. Order from the author, Rt. 1, Box 465, Jonesville, NC 28642. $13.50.

Robert Finney, born an Ulsterman c1667, sailed west and purchased 900 acres in New London, Pennsylvania. Robert illustrates early movements of immigrants of the Scotch-Irish Settlement. In another generation, Joseph Finney married Rachael Barkley in 1783 in Orange County, North Carolina. History is given on their two sons, Joseph and Joshua, and the following generations as they settled new homesteads. Some families allied to the early Finney family are McKean, Barkley, Collins and Long. Photographs, correspondences, and photocopies of legal records depict the growth and interesting history of Rachael Barkley's children.

McMINN COUNTY, TENNESSEE COUNTY HISTORY SERIES by C. Stephen Byrum. 1984. Hard back. 144 pp. Indexed. Order from Memphis State University Press, Memphis, TN 38152. $12.50.

Mr. Byrum is a native of McMinn County and did extensive research in preparation for the history. He states in the Preface, "More than to give a history of the county, I would like to convey something of the feeling of the place." He succeeds in doing both as he leads the reader through: Pre-Indian Days to the Cherokee Removal; Early Settlers; The Cherokee Removal; From the Cherokee Removal to the Civil War; The Civil War; Industrial and Community Growth; The Black Community; Religion; Education; Newspapers; A Faithful Legacy Through Two Wars; The Battle of Athens; and A Look Toward the Future. This is another fine book in the Tennessee County Series which offers with the history photographs, map and bibliography.

HUGH HUTCHINS OF OLD ENGLAND by Jack Randolph Hutchins and Richard Jasper Hutchings. 1984. Hard back. 904 pp. Indexed. Order from J. R. Hutchins, 23 Orchard Way South, Rockville, MD 20854. $35.00.

This is a history tracing back to the year 1276 the Old English origins and migrations to the New World of the early Hutchins-Hutchings-Hutchens families. There are several New England lines; the merchant families of the Caribbean and Norfolk; Capt. John Hutchins of New York; Nicholas Hutchins of Maryland and North Carolina; the Virginia and North Carolina line of Strongeman Hutchins-Hitchens; the Virginia and Tennessee line of Colonel Thomas Hutchins-Hutchings; the Drury and James Hutchins families of Georgia; Zachariah Hutchins of Tennessee and Arkansas; Colonel Anthony Hutchins of New Jersey, North Carolina and Mississippi; and many other families. The Thomas Hutchins of Salem line is traced back to the year 1480 in Dorset. Included are summary charts of all known families of these names, maps, old documents and family pictures. This book may help others with like names determine from which line they descend. It is truly a volume of much genealogical material.

THE GOODRICH FAMILY In America by Lafayette Wallace Case, M.D. 1889. Hard back. 419 pp. Indexed. Order from Joyce Goodrich, 315 East 68th St., New York, NY 10021. $25.00.

The publishers' purpose has been "to accurately reproduce the original 1889 edition...with no effort to update the original material or to correct errors therein." However a chapter has been added at the end of the book for those who want to bring their family line up to date, suggesting a numbering system for persons born after 1889. This genealogy traces four Goodriches who emigrated from England to New England c1630-1650; William and John to Wethersfield, Connecticut, Richard to Guilford, Connecticut and William to Watertown, Massachusetts. The major portion of the book contains eight generations descended from John and William of Wethersfield. A total of 4218 Goodriches are named and numbered, although not all have dates and details.

FRANCIS MOODY 1769-1821 His Ancestors, Descendants and Related Families compiled by Clara Lorene Cammack Park. 1984. Hard back. 590 pp. Indexed. For price write to Mrs. Park, 3212 Kirkcaldy, El Paso, TX 79925. Pre-publication price $30.00

In the preface Mrs. Park says "Perhaps the title of this book should be More Than Anyone Ever Wanted to Know About the Moodys and Their Relatives." Her statement indicates the extent of her research, but the format she has used makes it easy to follow each family, even when multiple marriages are involved. Proof of every statement is provided in footnotes which give the name of the county, record book title and page number where each may be located. In addition to the direct Moody ancestors of Francis Moody, this book has biographical sketches of all men named Moody in the records of Chesterfield County, Virginia, from 1749 through 1825. The time element encompassed extends from 1984 in Texas back to 1619 on the Isle of Kent in Chesapeake Bay and to 1656 on the James and Appomattox Rivers in Virginia. Some of the colonial families outlined here are: Bragg, Claughton, Ellyson, Epes, Gee, Hall, Hardiman, Hester, Ingram, Kennon, Knott, Ligon, Lockett, McCraw, Marshall, Pemberton, Robards, Stewart, Vaughn, Williams, Worsham. Post-Revolution families added new names to the record. A few of these names are Abernathy, Baker, Davis, Campbell, Farley, Goodloe, Gregory, Hayes, Powell, Reed, Shanks, Spencer, Thomas, Wade, Wells. The author follows her numerous pioneers on their westward movement to Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas. Their experiences range from pathetic, to hilarious, to inspiring, and even to embarrassing.

FAMILY GATHERINGS

Prepared for publication by Jessie Taylor Webb and Mary Louise Nazor

"Family Gatherings" articles are compiled from records which are sent by our subscribers. We welcome these contributions of genealogical data from family Bibles, wills, cemeteries, pension applications, old letters, etc. The earliest dated items receive priority; they must have a Tennessee connection, and must be previously unpublished. We do reserve the right to edit in order to save space.

TILLMAN PATTERSON BETTIS GENEALOGY

Contributed by Margie G. Brown (Mrs. Eldon W. Jr),

3005 Phyllmar Place, Oakton, VA 22124

Mrs. Brown reports that in 1953, when she was a new bride, her husband's father died. When the household was being broken up, she rescued from the trash bin two family histories. This booklet was compiled between 1929 and 1931 by an unknown author who was a member of the "Old Folks Society" of Memphis, TN. Through her research Mrs. Brown has made a few corrections and added information on the family of Sallie CARR, wife of Tillman P. BETTIS. Mr. Brown's line of descent is through Salena Bettis and Albert G. BLAKEMORE. Their daughter Lucy married John Harrod OWEN, son of Henry and Frances V. (ANDERSON) Owen of Paris, TN. Lucy and John's daughter, Clara Owen, married Marion Walter BROWN and became the grandmother of Eldon W. Brown, Jr.

We are printing only the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of Tillman and Sallie Bettis, but there are several additional generations in the book. The information on each family is not complete, but the last recorded birth is 1929.

INTRODUCTION

"There is always something about the character of the first settlers of a country full of interest and there is a good reason for it; for there never was yet any country whose first settlers, the pioneers, the men who planted and established the civilization of the country who were not marked men in their day and time; men noted for their high integrity, firmness, energy and enterprise and for full capacity to give form and shape and impress to the sentiment of the country."

"They are always men who stamp forever the impress of their mind and character upon the country they founded. It takes something more than the average man or an ordinary woman to cut loose and sunder those ties and attachments of earlier homes and friends and kindred and blaze for themselves a new pathway and establish for themselves a new civilization. Such were the men and women who settled our goodly country."

Tillman was one of the first settlers of Shelby County (along with James, William, and John Bettes; Gideon, Thomas, Anderson and Overton Carr; Thomas and Drewry PATTERSON, as well as others). He was born in North Carolina near the Virginia border 6 Oct 1788 of Irish descent and became a farmer. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church. From records printed in "Ansearchin'" News, Volume XXIV, Mrs. Brown found that Tillman was married in Wilson Co TN 10 May 1809 to Miss Sallie Carr. They came to Shelby Co TN in 1819, traveling on a flatboat with several other families bound for New Orleans. Upon reaching this point, they were so well-pleased with the country that they decided to settle here. The first white female child born in Shelby Co TN was Mary Bettis, the sixth child of Tillman P. and Sallie Bettis.

Sallie was born in Virginia 23 Dec 1784, the daughter of Thomas Carr born 15 May 1742 died 5 May 1821 and Ann SANDERS born 6 Feb 1750 died 10 Sep 1826. Thomas was the son of Gideon Carr born 1 Jan 1712 died 14 Apr 1783 and Susannah BROOKS born c1719. Gideon was the son of William Carr born c1680, whose parents were Sir Thomas Carr and Mary GARLAND born and wed in England. Sallie died in Memphis at the birth of her ninth child 19 Jun 1826.

Tillman's second wife, Mrs. Sallie (HARKLEROAD) GRIBBIN, was born in Pennsylvania in 1800. They were married in Arkansas March 1827 and seven children were born of this union. She died in Memphis 3 Aug 1860. Tillman Bettis owned extensive acreage lying between present-day Poplar Avenue and Union Avenue. He died at his home on Union Avenue 6 Feb 1854 and is buried in the family plot on the grounds now owned and occupied by the Convent of the Good Shepherd.

Extensive genealogical data can be gleaned from Revolutionary pension applications which were applied for by the pensioner, his wife and his children. Also evident in the pensioner's application is a soldier's view of his place in the war. We have excerpted data from each application chronologically to show how the war and genealogical information unfolds.

STATE OF TENNESSEE BEDFORD COUNTY 19 August 1832

On this day personally appeared before John B. ARMSTRONG, John L. NULL and Samuel PHILLIPS, Esqs., Justices, Hugh McCRORY, citizen and resident of said county aged about seventy-four years, who makes the following declaration to obtain benefit from an Act of Congress 7 Jun 1832.

McCrory volunteered May 1778 for nine months service at Guilford Court House, North Carolina under Capt. RAFORD of NC 4th Regiment. They marched to Moons Creek, Caswell Co NC for a short time and "re'd furlows to return home to rendesvous again at a minute's warning", which happened Nov 1778 when he rejoined army at Salisbury, NC. They were ordered to Charleston, SC and then to Savannah, GA under the command of Col. LITTLE, Col. THAXTON and Col. Armstrong. When they arrived at a town on the Savannah River, Purysburgh he thinks, Genl. SUMMER took command under Gen. HOWE and afterwards under Gen. LINCOLN. In the spring they were marched up the Savannah River opposite the town of Augusta, GA when they heard the British had crossed the River near Purysburgh and were coming towards Charleston, SC. A small skirmish resulted in their taking several wagons loaded with Rum. They followed after the British and had another skirmish at Bacon's Bridge where the Americans halted. Several skirmishes preceded their engagement at the Battle at Stono June 20th where Col. ROBERTS was killed. After this they marched to a place called Port Royal where his term of service expired, but he volunteered to guard some prisoners to Salisbury, NC. He was legally discharged in 1779 but lost his papers. Other names he remembers in his company were Maj. DICKSON, Capts. LEWIS, ROADS and CHAPMAN.

Hugh McCrory volunteered again in 1780 under Capt. FORBES and Col. JACOBY in Genl. DAVIDSON's Brigade in Rowan Co NC. From there he marched to six mile creek in Mecklenburg Co NC remaining during that winter when he was again discharged by Col. FIFER about February 1781. He once more volunteered about March 1781 in the Light Horse in Capt. WALKER's company commanded by Col. or Maj. LEE. A few days after volunteering in Guilford Co NC he was taken prisoner at Col. O'NEIL's by TARLETON's troopers. He was paroled to return home after his confinement by the British but volunteered again at Guilford, NC in Light Horse company commanded by Capt. BASHARES and they joined Genl. RUTHERFORD's army and marched to the vicinity of Wilmington from which place they were ordered home and dismissed from service of our country.

McCrory gave the following information in answer to questions by the Justices. He was born in Ireland about 1748. He lived in Guilford Co NC, moved to Mecklenburg Co NC and then to Bedford Co TN. He stated the following people will testify to his veracity and their belief as to his service in the Revolution: Revd. Richard CARDWELL, William NORVELLE, Col. Samuel CLAY, Col. Samuel MITCHELL, Nobel L. MAJORS, Esqr. Ruben MANLY and Nathan CHAFFIN, Esq.

STATE OF TENNESSEE BEDFORD CO December 1843

John McCrory and Ruben MANLEY, executors of last will and Testament of Hugh McCrory, deceased, appeared before Hon. Samuel ANDERSON, Judge of 5th Judicial Circuit Court. They made the following declaration in order to obtain benefit of the provision made by the Act of Congress 7 July 1838 granting half pay and pensions to certain widows. Hugh departed this life 28 March 1836 leaving a widow, Jane McCrory, who has since departed this life 9 February 1838 at the advanced age of 88 years. Among his papers they found the Pension Certificate upon which they now claim benefits for the heirs. The Hon. Samuel Anderson, Noble L. Majors and James FRIZZELL attested to the death and burial of Hugh and Jane McCrory. John T. NEIL, Clerk

STATE OF TENNESSEE MARSHALL COUNTY 5 October 1843

Benjamin THOMPSON, aged seventy-three upwards, appeared before James V. EWING, Acting Justice and swore he was well acquainted with Jane CLARK of Mecklenburg Co NC "previous to her intermarriage with Hugh McCrory --and for many years after their marriage, lived near and about to them in said county of Mecklenburg, all of which took place previous to the first day of January Seventeen Hundred and Ninety-four and that they passed as husband and wife during the whole time of his acquaintance with them."

STATE OF TENNESSEE BEDFORD COUNTY 14 April 1852

John McCrory, aged about sixty-four years, appeared before Acting Justice, R.S. THOMAS to give the following declarations. He is the second child of Hugh McCrory and that his father and mother were married in 1786. His sister, Hannah, age about sixty-five is the oldest child and Mary, age about fifty-eight years, is the youngest child. This record is in the old family Bible. Hannah married John Majors in 1815 and Mary married in 1814, both in Bedford Co TN. John further states that when his parents died they left the following persons - Hannah, John, Mary and Hugh, who died after his mother. He appointed W.W. WILLIAMS as his attorney.

Mrs. Banes adds the following information to complete the puzzle. Thomas McCrory was the father of Hugh, born in Ireland. John married Annie WILSON and Hugh, son of Hugh, married Martha WHITWORTH. The two known children of Hugh and Martha were Rebecca Ann and Sarah Jane who married Isaac L. SPARKMAN. The children of Sarah Jane and Isaac were Ola, Lish, Ike and Ada. Ola Sparkman married William Lee BAKER: they are the grandparents of Mrs. Banes.

In the Old Salem Cemetery, Bell Buckle, TN are found these markers: John McCrory died 15 Oct 1874, age: 86y, 8m, 7 d; Ann McCrory died 22 Jan 1864, age: 73y, 3m, 11d; Sallie P. Sparkman born 7 Aug 1846 and died 27 Jul 1872; Eliza McCrory died 28 Feb 1859, age: 34y & 10m; Hugh McCrory born 25 Dec 1819 and died 12 May 1848. There are other McCrory's listed in Marsh's Cemetery Records of Bedford County TN.

PETITIONS TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF TENNESSEE
Transcribed from Tennessee State Library and Archives Microfilm, Roll No. 3, Legislative Petitions 1805-1812

The number preceding each petition is the identifying number for that document.

1-1-1805 To the Hon. Gentlemen of the General Assembly sitting at Knoxville

This petition humbly sheweth that whereas sometime in the year one thousand eight hundred and four James D. PUCKET of the county of Anderson and State of Tennessee did stab the body of a certain Nicodemus LEFTWICH, and the said Leftwich became bound in recognizance to prosecute (for and in behalf of the State) him the said James D. Puckett for the said offense, and in which Recognizance Nicodemus HACKWORTH and John Leftwich befame the said Nicodemus Leftwich's Securities for the said prosecution, in a considerable sum, and the said Nicodemus sometime previous to the Court to which he was bound to appear at Knoxville, took a journey into the State of Virginia to transact some business, promising his said Securities to appear and prosecute the said suit, as what he was bound to do, but the said Nicodemus Leftwich failing to appear and return from his journey, as what he had promised, John Leftwich his Security went after the said Nicodemus Leftwich promising Nicodemus Hackworth his other Security to bring him back to last March Term 1805. But the said John Leftwich has also failed to return and consequently that the said Nicodemus Hackworth is the only surviving person left in the state who is liable to suffer as Security in behalf of the said prosecution...his circumstances in life is low...(payment of bond and costs) would reduce him to such circumstances that he could not possibly support his wife and family. Therefore this petitioner (prays to be released from paying) And this petition further maketh known to the General Assembly that previous to the time that John Leftwich...went away, that James D. Pucket, Defendant, and his Security removed themselves out of the state,
