OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

The Tennessee Historical Commission recently awarded the Tennessee Genealogical Society a Certificate of Merit "for having made significant contributions to the study and preservation of Tennessee's historical heritage." Our president, Sarah Anderson Hull, accepted the award at the annual awards ceremony of the Memphis Landmarks Commission and Memphis Heritage, Inc.

Summer is a time when many of us go "ansearchin'" for lost or misplaced ancestors with trips to family reunions, cemeteries, courthouses, archives and genealogical seminars or workshops. Happy hunting! Some notices we have received recently about planned activities are:

The Douthit Family Reunion, "FOR ALL DOUTHITS, whether kissin' cousins, long lost kin, shirttail relatives or anyone with a Douthit in their Family Tree" will be held 4-6 July 1986 at Arcata, California. Contact person is Marilyn Lauck, 1915 Cliff Ave., McKinleyville, CA 95521, (707) 839-4108 or (707) 443-2625.

Harden, Hardin and Harding kin mark your calendar. The Second National Reunion of HARDEN FAMILY ASSOCIATION will meet at the Hilton Hotel, Fort Wayne, IN 3-5 Oct 1986. Write or call John Hardin, 7041 Kilbourne Rd., Sunbury, OH 43074, (614) 524-4301.

The Maryland State Archives in Baltimore [formerly the Maryland Hall of Records] will be closed the month of July 1986, and will reopen at its new facility on Rowe Blvd., across from the Law Library, not far from their old location.

All Bowlings are invited to the BOWLING REUNION 26 July 1986. Sue Hughes, Box 20, Justiceville Add., Pikeville, KY 41501 (606) 432-2080, writes that it will be held at the Breaks, Breaks State Park, Buchanan County, VA.

A Third Conference on Computer Applications in Genealogy will be held 18 Oct 1986 at St. Paul, MN. Write Minnesota Family Trees 3C, 718 Sims Ave., St. Paul, MN 55106.

TENNESSEANS IN ARKANSAS

Submitted by Rebecca Williams Harris
2396 Corning Avenue, Memphis, TN 38127

The Goodspeed Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Western Arkansas was published in 1891 by the Goodspeed Publishing Company for the counties of Yell, Pope, Johnson, Logan, Scott, Polk and Montgomery. In 1978 new material was copyrighted by The Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., Southern Historical Press, P. O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640.

The abstracted biographies show some connection with Tennessee in the life of the subject. Since they are abstracts and not complete quotes, the researcher should refer to the original for complete information. Abbreviations used are:

B - Born	CHN - Children	SIBS - Siblings
D - Died	MIL - Military Service	GRPTS - Grandparents
M - Married	PTS - Parents	GGPTS - Great Grandparents

"Still living", of course, pertains to 1891 when the book was published.

SMITH FAMILY BIBLE - Contributed by Elizabeth Smith, 41640 Carsey Rd.,
Albany, OH 45710

Since the front and back covers of this old Bible are missing along with the first few chapters, the date cannot be determined. It was published by J&P Meguiar in Bowling Green, KY and is believed to have belonged to Bedford B. SMITH.

Thomas Smith was born in Virginia on 25 Apr 1779. Sometime before 1806 he moved to North Carolina where he met and married Mildred ? who was born in North Carolina 23 Jan 1788. One Thomas Smith was married to Mildred Atkins on November 27, 1804 in Caswell Co NC. The bondsman was Francis Smith and the witness was Alex MURPHY. This is possibly the correct Thomas Smith and Mildred for it is known that Thomas' first child, Mildred M. Smith, was born shortly before 1806. Between 1815 and 1822, Thomas Smith moved his family to a section in Bledsoe Co TN called Nine Mile Community, located in the Sequatchie River Valley about nine miles from Pikeville, TN. They raised their family here and remained the rest of their lives. Thomas Smith died 5 Nov 1860 and Mildred died 14 Aug 1869. Their known children were:

1. Mildred M. - born c1805 NC; married Thomas J. SAPP
2. Lucy - born c1806 NC; married Stephen B. HANKINS
3. Bedford B. - born 19 Aug 1808 NC
4. Milton - born c1811 NC
5. Jerusha - born c1813 NC
6. Susan P. - born 4 Apr 1815 NC
7. Eliza J.
8. William F.
9. Catherine - born c1822 TN
10. James R. - born c1823 TN
11. Benjamin F. - born c1831 TN

Bedford B. Smith, born 19 Aug 1808 NC, married Elizabeth TEETER 23 Jul 1829; she was born 8 Nov 1807 VA and is the daughter of Jacob and Susannah Teeter. All of Bedford and Elizabeth's children were born in Bedford Co TN. Near the beginning of the War between the States, Bedford, being a strong believer in the Union, decided it was time for the Smith family to move to the North. Two of Bedford's children were probably already in the United States Army at this time. All other members of the Smith family, along with some of the WHITTENBURG and SIMMONS families loaded all their belongings that they wanted to keep into wagons and moved to Southern Illinois. It is recorded in the Bledsoe Co Courthouse that Bedford B. Smith sold some of his land to Joseph MARR on 2 Mar 1863, so the move must have been made about this time. The families settled in the area of White and Hamilton Counties in Illinois. After a short time, Bedford and Elizabeth moved to Franklin Co IL where they remained the rest of their lives. Bedford B. died 9 Sep 1873 and Elizabeth died 17 Feb 1874. They are buried in the Macedonia Cemetery. Their children were:

1. Addaline - born 7 Jul 1830 TN; married William Whittenburg 29 Jul 1852
2. James - born 22 Sep 1831 TN; married Sarah Ann GLENN 29 Oct 1851
3. Mary - born 18 May 1833 TN; married Peter Whittenburg 27 Jan 1853

7. John - born 31 Jan 1840 TN; died 27 Aug 1840

ROBERTS BIBLE RECORDS - Submitted by M. Sybil Roberts Smith, P.O. Box 213
Grove, OK 74344

These records were taken from a Bible which is in very bad condition; a page "To the Reader" has, Philadelphia 1834. The transcription was made by Sybil SMITH with the help of Susan Roberts MARTIN, the only living child of John C. ROBERTS and Martha Bailey Roberts. Ms. Smith is a granddaughter of said Roberts.

Joseph and William Roberts were sons of William Roberts and Mary HOLDER of South Carolina, Tennessee and Arkansas. According to Mary Holder Roberts' application for bounty land due her husband for service in the War of 1812, she and William were married in 1800 in South Carolina. They lived in Hamilton Co TN and Bedford Co TN. About 1850 they and several of their children moved to the part of Carroll Co AR that later became Boone Co AR. William died there 26 Aug 1855 and is buried in Harden or New Hope Cemetery in eastern Boone Co. Mary was living in February 1860.

Joseph and William married sisters, Hannah and Malinda Smith of Hamilton and Bedford Counties in Tennessee. It is believed five children of William and Mary Roberts married children of John and Jane Smith; they are:

EARLY LETTER FROM FAYETTE COUNTY, TENNESSEE - Contributed by Arthur M. Reagan,
5101 Maris Ave. #101, Alexandria, VA 22304

This 1826 letter from David BARRETT postmarked "Wolf River Tennessee April 26" was to his father-in-law, John WHITTEN, Esq. of Greenville District, South Carolina. It was accepted for posting in Fayette Co TN on 23 May 1826. The original letter is in the possession of Walter Wood Whitten of Macon, MS, who descends from Silas Reagan Whitten (1794-1888) of Greenville District, SC and Tippah Co MS and is a son of John and Mary Whitten.

David Barrett's letter graphically describes the primitive conditions of daily living as well as the economic and religious environment faced by families who settled in the Wolf River area during the 1820's. He and many of his neighbors in 1827 joined in petitioning the Tennessee legislature to expedite a plan for improving the navigability of the Wolf River course to the Mississippi River. (See "Ansearchin'" News, Volume 15, page 41, 1968)

David, evidently a school teacher and farmer, had married in Greenville Dist., SC, Elizabeth Whitten, eldest daughter of John and Mary (Reagan) Whitten, who also resettled in Fayette Co TN in 1834. John, who died there in 1837, served as a Matross of Artillery in the Virginia Continental Line during the Revolutionary War (Service Record #5751, National Archives). He was a son of Charles Whitten, Sr., a "pewter caster" who emigrated with is family to Spartanburg District, SC in 1784 and died in the adjoining Greenville District about 1799. Mary Whitten, who also died in Fayette County, was a daughter of James Reagan, Sr. who lived in the Rockingham Co NC area from 1770 to 1800 and thereafter in Knox Co TN where he died at an advanced age in late 1827.

JESSE TAYLOR FAMILY - Submitted by Deloris Taylor, Route #2, McLeansboro, IL 62859

According to his Revolutionary War pension papers, Jesse TAYLOR was born c1750 in England. In 1792 he was living in Mecklenburg Co VA where he married Mary (Polly) BRANTON (born 1778) whose father was James Branton.

Jesse, Polly and some of their children left Virginia sometime after 1815. The next record of him is when he made his Revolutionary War Claim 10 Dec 1828 in Rutherford Co TN. In that he states that he enlisted in the Continental Line of the State of Virginia for twelve months but was in the service till the close of the War. He was an orderly Sargeant in Capt. BALLARD's Company in the Third Regiment commanded by Col. Samuel MEREDITH. This was witnessed by H.D. JAMISON, J.P. Attesting to his service were John R. TENCH and John Taylor as witnessed by John R. LAUGHLIN, Clerk.

By 1832 Jesse, Polly and some of their children had moved to Hamilton Co IL. On 14 Aug 1848 Polly made an application for a widow's pension in which she stated that Jesse died 24 Feb 1832 in Hamilton Co IL.

There were nine known children, all born in Virginia:

1. Charles - born 19 Jul 1796; died c1840 IL; married Elizabeth ? in VA

5. Jesse - born 1804; died 2 Jun 1857 Hamilton Co IL; married Elizabeth OWENS and had two sons

Deloris Taylor knows that her great grandfather, Benjamin J. Taylor, was born 1829 in Tennessee and his sister, Harriet 1827 in Tennessee, but she does not know which of Jesse and Polly's sons was their father because the parents were divorced. The other, Mary, went to Illinois with her children and the father remained in Tennessee. He was known to have race horses. Miss Taylor has a diary that was kept by Jesse Taylor.

In order to defray such Claims the state opened a Land Office for her Western Land (which is now within the Limits of Tennessee) and invited her Citizens to come forward and receive pay - for the Caption of the Law, is for the Redemption of the specie Certifits, and to discharge the arrears due the Army - and on the 10th day of January 1784 your petitioner went forward & made an Entry in Their office called John Armstrong's Office for 5000 acres of Land ["on the west side of Elk River joining above an entry of 5000 acres made by William Patterson"], and paid his money or Certifits as an Evidence..." Pinkley employed Major Edwin HICKMAN, Deputy Surveyor, to survey lands and procure a grant. However, before Hickman could complete the transaction, he was killed by the Indians. Pinkley "came to inquire about my Land, I found that a warrant had (been) issued to Martin ARMSTRONG on my entry (for which I had paid the money) and that Stockley DONELSON had conveyed said warrant to William TYRRELL & William Tyrrell back to Donelson...now as Evidence that this warrant was fraudently taken from me, I refer you to the deposition of Hardy L. TENNESSEE HOMECOMING '86 GENEALOGICAL SEMINAR
"Ancestral Routes to Tennessee...and Beyond"

August 21, 22, 23, 1986

Plans are developing here in Memphis for three exciting and beneficial days for genealogists. On Wednesday August 20th, the corner of Central and Patterson Streets will be alive with activity as people from all over the country begin to arrive on the Memphis State University campus. They will be unloading luggage and books - armloads of notebooks, and probably a favorite pillow and walking shoes - going back to school again. The air is always one of excitement at times like this because everyone is pursuing his or her most favorite hobby, GENEALOGY. Cheerful greetings will be heard as friends from other years and other seminars meet again. Plans will be made to meet for dinner at the Peabody Hotel, or to take a quick look at Elvis' home, Graceland, or to go to Mud Island for a sneak preview of all the entertainment available there.

Then, on Thursday morning August 21st, registration will be followed by welcomes and announcements, and the race is on. There will be two days of lectures including one on migration into Tennessee and one on migration out of Tennessee by Lloyd D. Bockstruck. Elizabeth Shown Mills will speak on Tennessee migration via the southern routes, and on sources of information in little-used records. One session will be given by Marilyn Bell Hughes, who will tell us about the resources and facilities in our newly refurbished Tennessee State Library and Archives in Nashville. We will hear Delanie Ross speak on the restoration and preservation of old documents. James R. Johnson will outline the holdings of local libraries and archives.

Whatever spare time we may have can be spent learning how computers can be used in genealogy and watching Steve Vorhenburg, author of Family Roots, demonstrate his computers. Then there are the booksellers with their wares on display. Both of these features will be open continuously.

By now, you may think your brain will be befuddled, but not so. A delightful break has been planned for those who choose to participate - a sunset supper-cruise on the Mississippi River Thursday night. This Dutch treat event will be hosted by the West Tennessee Historical Society.

Then comes Saturday, August 23rd. There will be informal round-table discussions led by persons experienced in research in various Tennessee areas. Here is where you may bring your problems to discuss with other researchers in a particular Tennessee county. The compiled list of surnames submitted by other participants in the seminar should be complete, and you may find someone else working on the same lines as yours. Who knows, you might even meet your own cousins here!

The seminar may be accredited by Memphis State University as a continuing education course; we will have this information at the registration desk when you arrive. You may receive one hour of credit for a $10.00 fee paid to Memphis State University.

All of these plans for your enjoyment and education have been planned under the co-sponsorship of the Tennessee Genealogical Society, The Tennessee State Library and Archives, and Memphis State University, but we welcome the cooperation of other interested organizations. If your group would like to join us in celebrating Tennessee Homecoming '86, write to us and we'll talk about your ideas and how we may work together.

FOXWORTH, BUSH, PAYNE, BLEDSOE AND ALLIED LINEAGES by Sarah Payne Foxworth and Michal Martin Farmer. 1985. Hard cover. 6x9. 388 pp. Indexed. $20.00. Order from Sarah Payne Foxworth, 5506 DeLoach, Dallas, TX 75220.

This volume is more than a collection of lineage charts. It contains diaries, wills, biographies, tax lists, and census records—all carefully researched. Excellently documented with footnotes following each chapter, it contains some unusual family records, the most remarkable of which are the autobiographies of L.W. Payne (1835-1918) and W.C. Bledsoe (1847-1923). Allied families covered are Foxworth, Lenoir, Regan-Pope, Bush, Elkins, Quisenbury, Burrus, Morter, Payne, Mitchell, Foster, Johnstone-Walker, Bledsoe, Ogilvie, Watson, Birdsong, Higgins, Tyler, and hundreds of other related names. PATRICK SHOCKNEY AND HIS DESCENDANTS edited by Elizabeth Swank Frazier and Edward Leon Frazier. 1985. Hard cover. 8x10. 404 pp. Indexed. $27.50. Order from Elizabeth Swank Frazier, 5007 W. 14th St., Speedway, IN 46224.

This is an exceptionally well written book. Its preface includes a chart displaying the descendants of Patrick Shockney (ca 1752-1827). An Irish immigrant and revolutionary soldier, he was married to Mary Nash in 1782, joined the revolution in Pennsylvania, and died in Maryland. The editors tell us that more than two hundred thirty Shockney descendants contributed data, wrote stories, and reviewed parts of the book. It is presented in four sections: (1) background and history (2) children of Patrick Shockney and descendants (3) children of John Newton Shockney to the present generation (4) bibliography, index and appendix. Included in the latter are pension and Revolutionary War records of Patrick Shockney; Maryland Shockneys in the War of 1812; United States census records of descendants in Maryland, Indiana, and Michigan; marriage records in Maryland, Ohio and Indiana; cemetery records; and obituaries. The book explores the derivation of the name concluding that in its original form it most likely was O'Shaughnessy. RFS

THE LAMAR LEGACY by Ruth L. Petracek. 1985. 8½x11. Vinyl cover. Spiral bound. 255 pp. $34.50. Order from the author, 935 River Ln., Santa Ana, CA 92706.

This material is presented in a fairly easy-to-follow format. There are sections devoted to documents and pictures and newspaper clippings although some of each are sprinkled throughout the presentation. The focus is on the descendants of William Lamar who came from Botecourt County, Virginia to Knox (and later Anderson) County, Tennessee about 1795. The relationship, or the possibility of relationship, of William to others of the surname is explored. Notable among these are Charles Lemar, Peter Lamar-Lemar, and Thomas Lamar of Maryland. Some researchers will term the absence of a comprehensive surname index a serious handicap. However, those interested in the Lamar surname will surely find some valuable leads here. JCH

HENRY CO. TENNESSEE NEWSPAPER GLEANINGS 1893-1903 compiled by Charles D. Robbins. 1986. Soft cover. 9x11. 117 pp. Indexed. Order from the author, P.O. Box 1122, Paris, TN 38242. $10.00 or $18.00 for this volume plus the preceding volume.

This book, an important genealogical source, is Mr. Robbins' second volume of excerpts from the Paris (Tennessee) Post-Intelligencer. It is informal and anecdotal, knowledgeable and easy to read. The topics chosen range from local news to some of the world crises of the period; thus he gives a broad perspective to the every-day happenings of the Henry County area. For easy reference a place-name index follows the index of surnames. The compiler's comments (prefaced by note) are both witty and enlightening. However, the reader is often in some confusion as to which part of the text is the newspaper excerpt and which the compiler's note. Correction of this relatively minor problem would further enhance the work's readability. BCT

MADISON COUNTY: 200 YEARS IN RETROSPECT by William Ellis, H.E. Everman, and Richard D. Sears. 1985. Hard cover. 6x9. 440 pp. Indexed. $22.50. Order from Madison County Historical Society, 515 West Main St., Richmond, KY 40475.

The years are 1774 to 1985; the area is the heartland of Kentucky, that bluegrass region settled by intrepid pioneers who followed Daniel Boone through the Cumberland Gap. Dr. Thomas D. Clark in his introduction to this book points out that "...history written at the local level must of necessity reflect the forces and contributions of individual personalities." He further declares genealogy "...an area of personal concern which gives continuity to human and family involvement in a community, and gives to individuals a sense of direct relationship to the past as well as an attachment to the land itself." Genealogy and history, he maintains, are discretely and skillfully mixed by the authors of this volume. Dr. Clark's observations will touch a responsive chord in many family genealogists, especially those of us interested in studying the myriad of forces which shaped the lives of our predecessors and thereby influence to a certain extent our own. Expertly written and carefully documented, the book is divided into three parts, pioneer days, the middle period, and a later period of growth and maturity. There is an impressive quantity of primary source material, a special index of pioneers at Fort Boonesborough, and an extensive bibliography emphasizing the excellent quality of research reflected in this scholarly, albeit readable, county history. THE HOUSTON FAMILY AND RELATIVES by Curtis A. Houston. 1984. Hard cover. 8x11. 167 pp. $20.00. Order from the author, P.O. Box 154, McCrory, AR 72101.

This family chronicle will be highly valued by members of the Houston family. The locals are primarily Montgomery and Stewart Counties in Tennessee and Greene County in Arkansas. The first part of the book consists of historical background and traces the family from the eastern seaboard. Vignettes of various members are included along with family album pictures following the introduction. The second section is devoted to genealogical data. It lists the earliest progenitors of the family, Henry Houston, Sr. and Lucretia Pool, both of whom were born in North Carolina in 1793 and resided in Tennessee. He tentatively identifies the mother of the former as Ama Houston, born ca 1771, maiden name unknown. There is an appendix containing court records and deeds and five pages of surnames in a general index which may be of interest to Houston related researchers. From either the sentimental or the historical viewpoint this is a significant book for the Houston family. BCT

PERSON COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA MARRIAGE RECORDS 1792-1868 by Katharine Kerr Kendall. 1983. 9x11, soft cover. 112 pp. Indexed. $10.00. Order from author, 2814 Exeter Circle, Raleigh, NC 27608.

Person County was formed from Caswell County in 1791. It borders Halifax County in Virginia and Caswell, Orange, Durham and Granville Counties in North Carolina. Presented here are 3286 marriage records listed alphabetically by surname of the groom. Two other indices list brides and bondsmen/witnesses having surnames other than that of the groom. This is a careful compilation and valuable aid to North Carolina-Virginia researchers. JCH

FRANKLIN COUNTY TENNESSEE IN THE YEAR 1840, featuring the 1840 census with abstracts of the 1840 court minutes and deeds. Compiled by Judy Henley Phillips. 1985. Soft cover. 8½x11. 142 pp. Indexed. $14.00. Order from the author, Route 3, Box 284, Tullahoma, TN 37388.

In addition to having transcribed the complete 1840 census of Franklin County, the author has more fully identified the inhabitants by coordinating abstracts of the 1840 county court minutes and deeds with the persons named in the census. Similarly, marriage records, cemetery records, and newspaper notices are included when applicable to the person enumerated. Particular attention was given to the inclusion of place names and to the fourteen districts comprising Franklin County in 1840. As stated by the author, "some court proceedings are presented more completely in order to maintain the style and retain the flavor of the language." This new publication is an excellent reference for genealogical research in Franklin County, Tennessee. BJG

POLK COUNTY, ARKANSAS 1870 CENSUS compiled by Georgia D. Helderlein. 1985. Soft cover. 8½x11. 72 pp. Indexed. $11.00. Order from the compiler, 22118 Trotter Road, Grass Valley, CA 95949.

Polk County was organized in 1844 from part of Sevier County, Arkansas. In 1851 a portion of Polk County was made a part of Sebastian County. In 1873 a section of Howard County was formed from the southeastern part of Polk County. Polk County records have twice been destroyed by fire. This enumeration of the entire county by Mr. John F. Lane, assistant marshall in 1870, is a valuable resource for the researcher. Ms Helderlein has prepared her publication giving all the information found on the census and listing families exactly as they appear on the documents. She has listed township, post office, household, family, etc., for seventeen columns. This is an outstanding job and removes the necessity of having to go to the census microfilm for further study. REGISTER OF FREE NEGROES AND ALSO DOWER SLAVES BRUNSWICK COUNTY, VIRGINIA 1803-1850 transcribed by Frances Holloway Wynne. 1983. 6x9. Hard cover. 206 pp. Indexed. $23.50. Order from the compiler, 9151 Hermosa Drive, Fairfax, VA 22031.

The focus of this work is a transcription of books one and two of registrations of free Negroes and dower slaves in Brunswick County during the years 1803-1850. The compiler has abstracted from the federal census records, Brunswick County 1810-1840, the free Blacks and presents these in appendices A-D. There is additional information dealing with year-by-year totals of Blacks registered in the county as well as a table showing the origins of freedom as reflected in the registrations presented in the early pages of the book. The index, in two parts, lists first those who are identified by given name only and secondly those identified by surname. Ms. Wynne makes here a valuable contribution to Negro genealogical research in Virginia. JCH

CEMETERY RECORDS OF CHEATHAM COUNTY, TENNESSEE VOLUME 1, Districts 3 & 4 Annotated by Lynette H. Dalton, Robert E. Dalton & Cleo G. Hogan. 1986. Spiral bound, soft cover. 8½x 11. 341 pp. Indexed. $15.00. Order from Dalton and Dalton, 1257 Oak Ridge Drive, #4, Memphis, TN 38111.

This most interesting and well-documented volume is much more than a cemetery record. It contains sixty-two cemeteries found in the Northwest quadrant of Cheatham County. This part of of the county was taken from Dickson, Robertson, and Montgomery Counties in 1856, the largest portion coming from Montgomery County. Location maps and new plat sketches help locate all cemeteries. Some of the streams noted are Half Pone Creek, Raccoon Creek, and Dry Fork of Half Pone Creek. Genealogical notes are included when the authors had information about the families or individuals, whose graves are noted. Migration trails of several families to the area from England, Virginia, and North Carolina are documented. The earliest monument recorded is that of Samuel Clifton, 1743-1831. Church cemeteries include Bethel Freewell Baptist, Brewer's Chapel United Methodist, New Hope Freewill Baptist, and Mallory's United Methodist. MJB

Tennessee, "The Volunteer State" is justifiably proud of her pioneers, settlers and leaders in westward migration. Her central location made her a cross-roads for countless adventurers from all points east as they moved into the new western lands. Many put down their roots and stayed here, and many returned to former homesteads after a sojourn in another state. All of these Tennesseans deserve to be remembered for their contribution to Tennessee's development. Registration of these ancestors is documented by the Certificate of Tennessee Ancestry issued by The Tennessee Genealogical Society.

Pictured below is a reduced copy of the certificate. The 8 x 11 inch original is printed on ivory parchment with background illustrations in a gray half-tone. Printing is black, highlighted by a gilt border, and a shiny gold seal decorates the Settler (1796-1850) certificate, with a ribbon added for the Pioneer (Prior to statehood) certificate.

There will be a $6.00 fee to offset the expense and administration of this program. Applications and all materials submitted become the property of The Tennessee Genealogical Society.

For application forms and additional information, please send a self-addressed, stamped envelope for each application to:
