OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

Here it is Springtime again and we all have thoughts of traveling to different states, county courthouses and libraries, in search of that elusive "missing link." You will find some seminars and family reunions listed in the "MARK YOUR CALENDAR" section on page forty-four. Your answer could be there.

The mail that crosses our desk is, as usual, varied and interesting. We are always pleased to hear from subscribers with suggestions, compliments and even complaints. A suggestion from Virginia Curnutt Lanning of Hobbs, NM. touches on a situation encountered in books and periodicals more often than we like...the alphabetizing of names copied from headstones in a cemetery. In order to place family members together, it would be more helpful if a cemetery were read and printed as a grid, with a stated beginning and ending point. Ms Lanning made the same observation about census records. You will note that in "Ansearchin'" News we print an 1840 census exactly as it is, page by page. And even though the person recording the names on a tax list may alphabetize within a District, we print each District as it appears on the film. It always helps your genealogy to know, not only all the relatives in a given location, but the friends and neighbors as well.

The importance of reading and comparing records was pointed out by Mr. Gene Fricks of Clementon, NJ. He noticed a connection between Roane County Courts Minutes 1801-1805 (last issue p. 159) and Petition 26-2-1801 (last issue p. 172) concerning a division of Knox Co. Mr. Fricks observed that many of the names on the petition were found later in Roane County, which was formed from Knox and Blount in 1801.

Another letter announces the new Elliott family newsletter "ELLIOTT 'n' KIN", whose purpose is the collection and interchange of family history and genealogical data about Elliotts and their related lines. It will be published four times a year in February, May, August and November at a cost of $6 per year. Contact John Burrows, 815 Hartsook Blvd., Roanoke, VA 24014.

The Tennessee Genealogical Society Library receives many family newsletters which are placed in binders on the shelves of the library. Since these are donated, you will find information on each one every year in our "NEWS AND NOTES" section of this magazine. Mary Ann Hollifield, family historian for the family of John and Sara Martin, sent a letter thanking us for this service in exchange for the newsletter, "The Martin Express". For information on Martin family reunions write Mr. & Mrs. Larry Martin, 1508 Apache St., Arlington, TX 76012

How can you please Civil War buffs and computer "nuts" at the same time? During the next two years, hundreds of genealogists, history buffs and others, will be typing the names of 3.5 million blue and grey soldiers onto computer diskettes. By early 1996, Americans will be able to find out their ancestors' links to the war by searching for their names and regiments on computers at the National Park Service's 28 Civil War sites. These include two major battle sites in the Mid-South: Shiloh, in Hardin Co, TN, and Vicksburg, Ms.

THE YOUNG LADIES' MODEL SCHOOL OF FAYETTE COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Prepared by Dorothy Marr Roberson

Files of the Fayette County Library in Somerville, TN, contain an 1857 school catalogue that provides a good insight into that era's formula for turning out model young ladies. Officials of the Young Ladies' Model School make it clear in the catalogue that each pupil boarding in the institute is expected to "deport herself with that degree of complaisance which marks the conduct of the true lady."

The catalogue, printed in Memphis by A T Norton & Co., was donated to the library a number of years ago by Mrs. Jim Clay of Oakland, TN. It spells out rules and regulations for students, and lists the school's 9 trustees, 16 teachers, and 264 students as well as their parents and residences. Tuition for each 21-week session ranged from $16 to $21, with an additional $2 for supplies. Students enrolled in the "ornamental branches" of art and music were charged another $10 to $30 per session. Board, including a furnished room and lights, was $50 to $60 a session. Each pupil was required to supply her own towels and table napkins, and parents were admonished not to supply their daughters with sweetmeats and acids "as they are fruitful sources of evil." Party-going was considered a serious evil and was strictly forbidden. Students were allowed to visit town only once a month and had to be accompanied by the lady or gentleman with whom they boarded.

The school evolved from a female seminary established by the Town Commissioners in 1831, and was in operation until the turn of the century. It had various names, the best known probably being the Somerville Female Institute.

BRITTON LANE BATTLEFIELD: Submitted by J. O. Ray, 430 Cecilia Dr.
Memphis, TN 38117

One of the Civil War battles fought September 1, 1862, has left an almost forgotten landmark. This was remembered on the 130th anniversary September 1992 at Denmark, Madison Co, Tennessee. The anniversary was celebrated by a battle between Federal and Confederate forces re-enactors. Living as the original combatants did, wearing the same type of uniforms [wool!], and using the same type of weapons, including artillery [only with blanks!], they have preserved the drill and tactics of the time and given modern Americans a flavor of the Civil War period.

In a September 1993 week-end re-enactment of the battle, which took place near Jackson TN, members of Wolf River Pipes and Drums visited Denmark Presbyterian Church which began on Cub Creek in 1821. The occasion was the reopening of the old church, which had been renovated and restored to its 1884 appearance, the year the present building was constructed. In the upper story of the building was a hall used by local Freemasons and Woodmen of the World Camp No. 193. The church was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1983, the first church in Madison County to be so honored. Further, it is the oldest church in the Memphis Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church. The pews are the original ones that were made for the building, although the gates are now gone.

For one night, in 1862 the Masonic Hall was used as a prison for eighty-seven Federal captives after the battle of Britton Lane. Another Civil War memory is preserved by a plaque on one of the pews. Two young Confederate soldiers were in church one Sunday morning with their sweethearts. Federal troops surrounded the church and searched the building. However, they did not find the Confederate soldiers, who hid under the hoop skirts of their sweethearts. [Information taken from the battlefield guide published 1992 for the 130th Anniversary Re-enactment]

Some of the first settlers who pioneered the area were the following families: ALEXANDERS, AUSTINS, BONDS, BRYANTS, Rev. J. W. GILLESPIE, HARBERTS, HARTS, John JOHNSON, JOHNSTONS, McBRYDES, McMILLANS, MURCHISONS, NEELYS, REIDS, RICES, ROBERTSONS, SKILLERNS, WILSONS, TYSONS, UTLEYS, WADDELLS, David WEIR, Joe WHARTON, and WILLIAMSONS.

This Family Bible was purchased at a cost of $3.60, by Nancy WILLIAMS in Gadsden, TN. It was published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., 1860. Its records reveal that Joseph WILLIAMS, Sr., (born 15 Jan 1812), married Nancy MILLARD, (born 11 Jan 1806), on 17 Mar 1839 (29 Mar 1840 according to the certificate). Joseph Williams, Sr. died 12 Nov 1859, and Nancy Millard Williams died 27 June 1896, at the age of 90. NEWS OF BYGONE DAYS - THE COMMERICAL APPEAL, MEMPHIS, TN

15 Mar 1994

125 YEARS AGO - March 15, 1869

Washington - The House Census Committee has decided to establish a separate Census Bureau. It was shown that under the old system of taking the census through the United States marshals, numerous frauds were perpetrated.

In some districts thousands of names in excess of the population were reported and the marshals were paid for them. There will be no more fees for census takers, as the committee has determined to fix their salaries.

TENNESSEANS' TOMBSTONES FOUND IN CALIFORNIA

Joy BURKHOLDER of Greenville, California, reports finding tombstones for several Tennesseans during her wanderings in some old cemeteries in her home county of Plumas in northeast California. The Tennesseans are believed to have settled in Plumas County during the Gold Rush of the 1850's, or soon after, and their families may never have heard of their deaths.

"Most of the people who were buried in these cemeteries (long out of use) most likely were not listed in the California state records - partly because of the early dates and partly because of the unorganized towns at that time," she writes.

Prattville Cemetery, just off Highway 89/70 (originally located in Big Meadows, was moved to its present site when the area was made into the reservoir now known as Lake Almanor) had the following tombstone:

Thomas HENDERSON - Native of Tennessee

Died 11 August 1909, age 78 years

(No other Henderson markers were found.)

Cromber Cemetery in Cromberg, California, just off Highway 89, had the following:

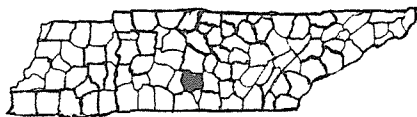

Jackson C. REID, Sr. - Native of Tennessee

Born in 1893, Died in 1950

Jackson Reid, Jr, Born 1923, Died 1938

Richard John Reid, Born 1927, Died 1963

(The sons were apparently California natives)

INDEX TO PROBATE RECORDS IN MEMPHIS/SHELBY COUNTY, TENNESSEE ARCHIVES

Contributed by Mary Louise Graham Nazor

The Index to Probate Records in Memphis/Shelby County, Tennessee Archives includes the names of Deceased, Administrators, Executors, Guardians, relatives, persons of the same surname, witnesses to wills and persons or places of special interest. Some estates contain many more names, such as lists of persons who purchased at a sale. These are not included in the index. The ID (Identification) column indicates the relationship of that person to the deceased. Beside the normal abbreviations, two additional ones were used: frmly = formerly and decd = alternate spelling of deceased surname. See Vol. 36, No 3, 1989 page 105 for photocopy information; the address for the Memphis/Shelby County, Tennessee Archives is 33 South Front Street, Memphis, TN 38103.

This concludes the present index to the loose Probate Court papers 1820-1860 for Shelby County, Tennessee. However, after this computer list was finalized and printing was started in "Ansearchin'" News, additional 1820-1860 estate papers were found in the basement of the courthouse during a major renovation. These papers were moved to the Shelby County Archives for processing. The volunteer team for the current work is Marion Graves, Betty Key, Mary Louise Nazor, Betsy Foster West, Jean Alexander West, Martha Everett Weatherford and Franklin Wright.

The processing and indexing is continuing on the 1861-1879 papers. To obtain information and order Xerox copies of estate papers contact Dr. Barbara Flanary, Shelby County Archivist, 33 S. Front Street, Memphis, TN 38103. Give name, year, and estate number of the folder desired to be copied. The rates for ordering through the mail are $0.20 per sheet; $4.00 minimum 1-5 copies; $15.00 per 1/2 hour additional charge for more than 5 copies.

We will continue publishing the additional 1820-1860 list.

BOOK REVIEWS

by Marion Graves

CHEROKEE & PIONEER ANCESTRY Ani-yun-wi-ya (Real People) by Sandi Garrett. 1993. Soft cover, 9x12. Full name index, 146pp. $20.00.

"ONLY THE NAMES REMAIN" Volume I: (Flint District) by Sandi Garrett. 1993. Soft back, 9x12. Full name index, 116 pp. $15.00. Order from Cherokee Woman Publishing, PO Box 48, Spavinaw, OK. 74366, (918)589-2236.

In Cherokee & Pioneer Ancestry, Sandi Garrett has traced her family history using reproductions of Department of the Interior records, such as applications for enrollment as Cherokee citizens. Other sources include marriage licenses, birth & death certificates, testimony for Dawes enrollment, and Cherokee Nation census. Charts are used to explain relationships, and photographs and maps illustrate the text. Also included are explanations of terms associated with Cherokee research. Family names included are: Adair, Harlan, Starr, Alberty, Field, Hood, McDonald, Scott, Bean, and Ghi-ga-u (Nancy Ward). The author invites any one interested to send her an S.A.S.E.; she will verify the family link before the book is purchased.

In Only The Names Remain, Mrs. Garrett has compared names on the Drennen Roll of 1851 and the Guion Miller Applications which date from 1906 to 1910. The Drennen Roll was made up of those forced to remove from the Cherokee Nation East and those who voluntarily moved before the forced removal. These rolls were taken to identify persons entitled to money owed the Cherokees for one reason or another. In comparing the two lists she has identified, when possible, the relationship of one list to the other. The author plans to publish more districts in future volumes.

JACKSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE CHANCERY COURT MINUTES 1840-1861 by Betty Huff Bryant. 1993. Soft cover, 9x11. Full name index, 222 pp. Order from Author, 1100-B Mission Ridge, Austin, Texas 78704, (512)441-9676. $18.50.

Volumes A-D have been abstracted, transcribed, annotated, and indexed. All names have been included when possible. Many of the cases deal with property and the settling of estates, and names of heirs and relationships are included. For the genealogist, the information is a useful tool in untangling family lines. The original minutes can be viewed on film at the Tennessee State Library and Archives in Nashville and at area libraries. The author urges anyone who plans to cite her transcription to view the primary source, and also to investigate other sources in the Inventory for Jackson County Records at the State Library in Nashville. She asks to be notified of any errors found in her work.

DICKSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE, COUNTY and CIRCUIT COURT MINUTES, 1816-1828, and WITNESS DOCKET abstracted by Carol Wells. 1993. Soft cover, 5x8. Full name index, 221 pp. Order from Heritage Books, Inc., 1540-E Pointer Ridge Place, Suite 300, Bowie, MD 20716, (301)390-7709. $21.00.

New to family historians, these County and Circuit Court Minutes were abstracted from microfilm in chronological order. All of the county court business for the years 1816-1828 is included. Divorces, administration of estates, deed of conveyance, debts, jury lists, insolvents, and law suits are some of the areas which came under the courts jurisdiction. County maintenance was also one of the areas of court responsibility. Citizens called to oversee the roads are listed. All names from the original minutes are included. Family connections are revealed in guardianships and paternity suits.

JUSTIS, JUSTUS, JUSTICE FOR ALL; A COMPILATION OF EARLY AMERICAN FAMILY RECORDS by Joyce Justus Parris. 1993. Soft cover, 8x11. Full name index, 223 pp. Order from Author, 220 Northwest Ave., Swannanoa, NC 28778. $23.00.

This family history includes Swedish Gustafssons from the area which became Pennsylvania and English Justices from Virginia. Both were in the colonies in the seventeenth century. The text concentrates on the coastal tier of colonies, later states, tracing the families over several centuries. Members of both families moved into Tennessee, the Gustafssons usually spelling their name Justus. The index is unique in giving a birth date for each Justis/Gustafsson, which is designed to simplify the research. Illustrated with photographs, copies of newspaper items, deeds, and other documents. Each chapter is completed with a bibliography.
